Chance And Life Faith As The Living Reality:

The Meaning of Life William Gerber,1994 The book aims to present the wisdom of sages great thinkers renowned writers and philosophers of many countries and time periods in their own words regarding life The book also aims to place the numerous quotations from these sources in a structured organization with introductory and explanatory comments and comparisons Main Topics or Fields See Organization or Principal Parts Chance and Life Marc Oraison,1972 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1974 Theology Digest ,1973 Sacred and Profane Beauty Gerardus Leeuw,2006 Gerardus van der Leeuw was one of the first to attempt a rapprochement between theology and the arts and his influence continues to be felt in what is now a burgeoning field Sacred and Profane is the fullest expression of his pursuit of a theological aesthetics surveying religion s relationship to all the arts dance drama literature painting sculpture architecture and music This edition makes this seminal work first published in Dutch in 1932 newly available A new foreword by Diane Apostolos Cappadona analyzes the continuing relevance of van der Leeuw s thought Van der Leeuw s impassioned and brilliant investigation of the relationship between the holy and the beautiful is founded upon the conviction that for too long the religious have failed to seriously contemplate the beautiful associating it as they do with the kingdom of sensuality and impermanence Similarly it has been alien to literati and aesthetes to reflect upon the holy for they choose to consider this physical world to be permanent and therefore to be glorified through beauty alone In truth as van der Leeuw undertakes to show in Sacred and Profane Beauty the holy has never been absent from the arts and the arts have never been unresponsive to the holy Whether one considers the Homeric epics the dancing Sivas and Vedic poems the sacred wall paintings of ancient Egypt the primitive mask or the range of sacred arts developed out of Latin and Byzantine Christianity primordial creation in the arts was always directed toward the symbolization and interpretation of the holy The fact that in our day this original connection is obscured and the artistic impulse is more generally regarded as wholly individualistic and autonomous does not contradict van der Leeuw s thesis indeed the breakdown of the unity of the holy and the arts is central to his thesis Van der Leeuw was the rare thinker who combined profundity of insight grace of style and a willingness to take daring intellectual chances In Sacred and Profane he describes each of the arts in its original unity with the religious and then analyzes its historical disjunction and alienation After a penetrating investigation of the structural elements within the arts which illumines a crucial dimension of the religious experience van der Leeuw points toward the reemergence of an appropriate theological aesthetics on which a reunification of the arts could be founded The Library Journal Book Review ,1977 A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P,2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being

Friends' Weekly Intelligencer ,1890 The Passion of Possibility Ingolf U. Dalferth,2023-02-20 For Kierkegaard the most important thing in life is to become a single individual or a true self We are all born as human beings but this makes us only members of a crowd not true selves To become a true self we must transcend what we are at any given time and orient ourselves to the possible and to the actuality of the possible to which all that is possible owes itself True selves exist only in becoming they are fragile and that is their strength They are not grounded by their own activities but in a reality extra se the flip side of which is a deep passivity that underlies all their activity and allows them to continually leave themselves and move beyond their respective actualities toward the new and the possible Therefore without the passion of possibility there is no truly single individual This study of Kierkegaard s post metaphysical theology outlines his existential phenomenology of the self by exploring in three parts what Kierkegaard has to say about the sense of self finitude uniqueness self interpretation and alienation about selfless passion anxiety trust hope and true love and about how to become a true self a Christian in Christendom and a neighbor of God s neighbors based on the identification of the defaults to change your thought process Time and time again we learn of true accounts of rags to riches incidents of real people who took control of their lives Once you identify the defaults determination is the process by which your goal will be achieved Cultivate aspirations in your conscious mind as to where you are and desire to be the sky is the limit The train of life is moving right along one day at a time make hay while the sun is shining and seek shelter when it is raining Carefully pursue the path of life utilizing the limited allotment of time to the ultimate destination Have a wonderful life and enjoy its pleasures Finite and Infinite Goods Robert Merrihew Adams,1999-07-29 Renowned scholar Robert Adams explores the relation between religion and ethics through a comprehensive philosophical account of a theistically based framework for ethics Adams framework begins with the good rather than the right and with excellence rather than usefulness He argues that loving the excellent of which adoring God is a clear example is the most fundamental aspect of a life well lived Developing his original and detailed theory Adams contends that devotion the sacred grace martyrdom worship vocation faith and other concepts drawn from religious ethics have been sorely overlooked in moral philosophy and can enrich the texture of ethical thought Reverence for the Relations of Life Frank M. Oppenheim, S.J.,2016-12-15 Josiah Royce and William James lived in Cambridge Massachusetts on Irving Street just two doors apart and Charles Peirce grew up only blocks away John Dewey was born and educated in nearby Vermont These four great thinkers shared more than geographic space they engaged in a series of formative philosophical discussions By tracing the interactions of Royce 1855 1916 with James Peirce and Dewey Oppenheim re imagines pragmatism in a way that highlights the late Royce s role as mediator and favors the seed plant image of O W Holmes Jr over the corridor image of Papini Josiah Royce emphasized that communities of all sizes ranging from families to towns needed reverence for the relations of life not only to thrive but to survive This theme permeates the dialectic of Royce s interactions with Peirce James and Dewey Oppenheim analyzes the agreement and disagreement of these thinkers on the method and content of philosophy skepticism and intelligibility and nominalism and intentionality as he uncovers their varied stances toward transcendent Reality Oppenheim repudiates Ralph Barton Perry s tactic of using Royce as a foil to display James positively by offering a richer portrait of Royce Oppenheim calls attention to Royce s doctrine of two levels and its effects on the distinction of human and super human by showing the contrast of Royce s third attitude of will against two primarily self centered attitudes of will and by examining the roles of Spirit Community and semiotic process in Royce s late thought Plain Sense of Things James C. Treasured Writings H. Th Lilipaly, Andre C. Aki, 2010-04-14 For centuries Biblical scholars have attempted to prove statements of the Christian religion yet today there are still no definite answers in Christianity that provide us with confirmation of the true existence of the Trinity Treasured Writings shares a unique introduction to God the Father and Jesus Christ who H Th Lilipaly says he received at the foot of the Cross of Golgotha Calvary to confirm the absolute answer to the question Where might we find a degree of certainty and be inspired by the principles of a high standard of Christian thinking As Lilipaly explores questions about Christian Trinity the Father Son and Holy Spirit as well as God s word he also offers insight into how he came to an understanding as to why being a Christian and having Christian consciousness is entirely different than what Christ expects of us Throughout the ages Christian philosophers and theologians have tried to present to us the truth of the Trinity through formulas doctrines research and contemplations of the Bible without ever presenting an intrinsic truth Treasured Writings opens the door to the acceptance of principles that focus on the reality of God in the light of the Cross of Christ The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1975 The Thinking Christian Gene Wesley Marshall, 2020-04-13 The practice of Christianity is going through a transition that is deeper than the Reformation The Thinking Christian explores two main questions 1 What is religion as a general social process that can link humans to Profound Reality and 2 what is a meaningful and appropriate mode of Christian theologizing communal life and mission to this planet for a viable and vital next Christian practice These are profound probes and they are communal and activist guidelines for general readers Such union of the profound and the practical pertains to the needs of scholars as well The Catholic Library World John M.
