Peasant economy in the first millennium AD Luigi Pinchetti,2021-10-31 Approaches to early medieval peasantry are often polarized either enhancing the benefits brought by the weakening of aristocratic dominance or emphasizing the limited prospects for peasant development in the absence of a solid extra regional trade network This study offers a long term overview of the peasant economy throughout the 1st millennium AD in the Upper Volturno Basin between the town of Isernia and the monastery of San Vincenzo al Volturno The reader is presented with data collected from two archaeological surveys and is invited to scrutinize changes in settlement patterns ancient land use and ceramic distributions while the main economic center shifted from town to monastery These proxies of economic performance offer a vantage point to reconstruct the history of agrarian production and of exchange networks in Central Italy opening a novel outlook on peasant social dynamics at a time when the Roman economic system transitioned into the feudal system The results show that the golden age of peasants was an age of experimentation forcing to reconsider the role of the peasantry in the making of the feudal economy Peasant Labour and Colonial Capital Sugata Bose,1993-03-11 A critical work of synthesis and interpretation of agrarian change in India over the long term Continuity and Change in Tribal Society Mrinal Miri,1993 With reference to India seminar papers Rural Development Abstracts ,1995 From the Ptolemies to the Romans Andrew Monson,2012-02-02 Compares how two different political regimes shaped the structure and performance of the agrarian economy in Egypt Finding The Middle Path B. The Violence of Development (ed.), Karin Kapadia,2002-11-28 the strength of the volume lies in its ability to mesh its diverse theoretical concerns with rich empirical data from all across India Seminar This timely volume brings together the work of some of India s leading feminist economists historians political scientists journalists and anthropologists to investigate the contemporary situation of women in India It focuses on four broad domains the cultural the social the political and the economic The writers argue that despite apparently positive indicators of progress in education and paid employment women s status has not improved Critical Perspectives in Rural Development Studies Saturnino M. Borras Jr.,2013-09-13 Agrarian transformations within and across countries have been significantly and dynamically altered during the past few decades compared to previous eras provoking a variety of reactions from rural poor communities worldwide The recent convergence of various crises financial food energy and environmental has put the nexus between rural development and development in general back onto the center stage of theoretical policy and political agendas in the world today. Confronting these issues will require re engaging with critical theories taking politics seriously and utilizing rigorous and appropriate research methodologies. These are the common messages and implications of the various contributions to this collection in the context of a scholarship that is critical in two senses: questioning prescriptions from mainstream perspectives and interrogating popular conventions in radical thinking. The contributors are leading scholars in the field of rural development studies: Henry Bernstein, Terence J. Byres, Saturnino M.
