Topsy-Turvy Thomas A. Renquist, 2000 The world of the Bible is quite different from our own According to Thomas Renquist it s a topsy turvy world where guests become hosts where masters are turned into servants where hoarders are transformed into givers where peace making is experienced as piece making And says Renquist the biblical world changes us because we begin to look at our own world in a different way seeing things from God s point of view Thomas A Renquist is a graduate of the University of Iowa B A and Yale University M Div He is currently pastor of Lord of the Hills Lutheran Church ELCA in Aurora Colorado The author of What Grace They Received CSS Renquist is one of 60 pastor theologians selected by the Center of Theological Inquiry in Princeton New Jersey for three years of study and conversation concerning the church s current theological crisis A Word that Sets Free Mark Ellingsen, 2000 Inspired by the heritage of African American churches Mark Ellingsen has created innovative visionary sermons on Old Testament texts from the Revised Common Lectionary His messages reflect his unique vantage point as a Lutheran of Norwegian heritage teaching at a historically black seminary and they are a model for anyone who wants to learn how to relate the Bible to the cutting edge social issues of our day Ellingsen suggests that many American Christians have abdicated their responsibility to advocate justice in our society or to talk about what the gospel can do in our lives and society as a whole from Monday through Saturday Ellingsen believes these Old Testament texts are relevant to our contemporary lives An all too common view of many Christians is look to the New Testament to find the liberating word of God while viewing the Old Testament as being about the law and the confining demands of tradition But Ellingsen says that the history of Christianity proves this is not true He observes that Martin Luther was primarily an Old Testament scholar and that African American churches have based many of their traditions of liberation on Old Testament stories and prophetic traditions Mark Ellingsen s offering of sermons based on Old Testament texts reflects his usual thorough biblical scholarship and his readable down to earth style that consistently render his material useful to both scholars and those seeking the inspiration of a faithful Christian Richard H Stough Publisher King Publications Mark Ellingsen has had a rich and varied career as a parish pastor and a seminary professor In addition to serving several Lutheran congregations in Pennsylvania and North Carolina he has held teaching positions at Luther Northwestern Seminary and the Institute for Ecumenical Research in Strasbourg France Ellingsen currently is on the faculty of the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta the largest historic African American seminary in the United States A regular contributor to several homiletics periodicals Ellingsen is also the author of ten books some of which have been used as homiletics texts in many American and Canadian seminaries

What If What They Say Is True? John W. Wurster, 2000 Since much of the prophetic literature of the Old Testament is distant and difficult preachers often neglect it in favor of more direct and easy to preach New Testament passages But John Wurster maintains that for those willing to look a little more closely these texts from the Revised Common Lectionary offer interesting and rich homiletical possibilities His sermons listen to those ancient preachers and produce a fresh harvest of meaning for our time They are full of penetrating insights that will be useful for sermon preparation or for study groups working on these often overlooked texts These thoughtful sermons on the great prophetic texts bring the message of the prophets home to our own time John Wurster is faithful to the biblical word unflinching in his critique of our culture and unceasing in his proclamation of the true word of hope Thomas G Long F L Patton Professor of Preaching and Worship Princeton Theological Seminary John Wurster s sermons give new and surprisingly fresh life to the ancient and sometimes jagged words of the Old Testament prophets Wurster is true to the biblical texts and to the lived realities of everyday life These are well honed sermons about large issues life and death God and grace conflicts and questions love and faithfulness heaven and earth Read them meditate on them and let God touch your soul Dennis T Olson Associate Professor of Old Testament Princeton Theological Seminary John W Wurster is a graduate of Trinity University in San Antonio Texas summa cum laude and Princeton Theological Seminary Currently the associate pastor of Market Street Presbyterian Church in Lima Ohio Wurster is also a D Min candidate at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary He has previously served congregations in Texas New Jersey and Pennsylvania
