Changing Campaign Techniques Louis Sandy Maisel,1976-09 Inside Political Campaigns Karen S.

Johnson-Cartee,Gary A. Copeland,1997-04-22 As Dan Nimmo notes in his introduction Inside Political Campaigns endeavors to trace the sources of professional campaign wizardry by encapsulating the theories and concepts that practitioners and scholars alike claim to guide and rationalize consultants magical weaving of strategies tactics and techniques into a winning tapestry of political communication This study presents the theoretical areas political communication consultants draw upon in making strategic and tactical decisions in political campaigns And it provides an understanding of what motivates political consultants to choose a particular campaign strategy by explaining how various strategies work with the voting public While the book is research driven its academic findings are tempered and expanded by the authors personal political consulting experiences The text will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners alike in political communication advertising public opinion political science political rhetoric and campaigns and elections Political Communication Yearbook ,1985

Melbourne Journal of Politics ,1973 New Perspectives on Political Advertising Lynda Lee Kaid,Dan D. Nimmo,Keith R. Sanders,1986 This volume is part of a series of anthologies which cover various topics in the study teaching and practice of political communication The purpose of the series is to make available to researchers teachers students and other specialists findings analyses and commentaries which are representative of current scholarship in the rapidly evolving field of political communication The focus of this volume political advertising its history forms styles settings uses and effects seems appropriate because there are few if any forms of political communication which are more prevalent more expensive more highly developed and which have been the object of more controversy and less serious scholarship than political advertising especially the political commercial made for television Law Books, 1876-1981 R.R.
