The Changing Face of Irrigation in Kenya Herbert G. Blank, Clifford M. Mutero, H. Murray-Rust, 2002 The Changing Face of Kenya Rob Bowden, 2002 Looks at how Kenya is changing to meet the challenges of the 21st century Includes information and statistics about key geographical themes as well as short commentaries by a cross section of Kenyan citizens Suggested level primary intermediate junior secondary South Asians in Kenya Pascale Herzig, 2006 For more than a century a substantial South Asian minority has been living in Kenya Within a few decades a majority of the Kenyan Asians has managed to transform their living conditions from an impoverished rural background in South Asia to a globalised and economically successful middle class in East Africa Therefore this research sets an example of migration as an opportunity for social mobility The study is based on empirical data collected with South Asians in Kenya who were differentiated by gender age migratory generation and other social boundaries The research is divided into three levels of analysis interethnic and intra ethnic relations i e the relations within the South Asian minority as well as the relations within the family To understand the complexity of migrants lives an approach of geographies of intersectionality was developed which takes different intersecting social boundaries into account and additionally considers the significance of place The study shows that migration has an impact on the relations between genders age groups and migratory generations and leads to changing identities and new lifestyles Book jacket Food systems transformation in Kenya: Lessons from the past and policy options for the future Loading... entrepreneurial and innovative peoples Yet they have been ignored and marginalised by the states that control their territory and the development agencies who are supposed to help them This book argues that while we should not ignore the profound difficulties of creating secure livelihoods in the Greater Horn of Africa there is much to be learned from development successes large and small This book will be of great interest to students and scholars with an interest in development studies and human geography with a particular emphasis on Africa It will also appeal to development policy makers and practitioners

Beyond the Line Georg Berkemer, Derek L. Elliot, Ute Fendler, Margret Frenz, Michael Mann, Ineke

Phaf-Rheinberger, Sebastian R. Prange, Ana Sobral, Frank Schulze-Engler, 2014-04-23 The title of Beyond the Line refers to the imaginary Line drawn between North and South a division established by the Peace Treaty of Cateau Cambr sis in 1559 This is an early modern time and Eurocentric construction according to which the southern oceanic world has long been taken as symbol of expansionist philosophies and practices An obvious motivation for changing this Line division is the growing influence of the Global South in the contemporary economic and political setting However another motivation for changing opinions in regard to the Line is equally important We observe an emergent consciousness of the pivotal role of the oceanic world for human life This requires the reformulation of former views and raises numerous questions A diversity of connections comes to the mind which demands the composition of a catalogue of case studies with an oceanic horizon Through this operation different problems are being linked together Which problems encounter historians with their research on fishes in the archives How to trace records about pirates of non European descent in the Indian Ocean Which role play the Oceans as mediators for labor migrations not only of the Black Atlantic but also of people moving from Asia to Africa and vice versa What do we know about workers on the oceans and their routes When considering oceans as contact zones with which criteria can their influence in different literary texts be analyzed Is it possible to study nationalisms taking into account these transoceanic relationships And how do artists address these questions in their use of the media Against the background of this catalogue of oceanic questions old stories are told anew Sometimes their cultural stereotypes are recycled to criticize political and social situations Or in other cases they are adopted for elaborating alternative options In this sense the contributions concentrate on countries like India Kenya Angola or Brazil and cover different academic fields A variety of objects and situations are explored which have been and still are determinant for the construction of cultural narratives in view of the modified relationship with the geographically southern oceanic regions Ethnic Patriotism and political leaders and candidates for office must campaign in a multimedia world through traditional forums newspapers radio and television as well as new digital media particularly social media Electoral Campaigns Media and the New World of Digital Politics chronicles how Twitter Facebook Reddit email and memes are used successfully and unsuccessfully to influence elections Each of these platforms have different affordances and reach various audiences in different ways Campaigns often have to wage different campaigns on each of these mediums In some instances they are crucial in altering coverage in the mainstream media In others digital media remains underutilized and undeveloped As has always been the case in politics outcomes that depend on economic and social conditions often dictate people's readiness for certain messages However the method and content of those messages has changed with great consequences for the health and future of democracy This book answers several questions How do candidates parties reach audiences that are preoccupied inattentive amorphous and bombarded with so many other messages How do they cope with the speed of media reporting in a continuous news cycle that demands instantaneous responses How has media fragmentation altered the campaign styles and content of campaign communication and general campaign discourse Finally and most critically what does this mean for how democracies function

Decolonization & Independence in Kenya, 1940-93 Bethwell A. Ogot,William Robert Ochieng',1995 This is a sharply observed assessment of the history of the last half century by a distinguished group of historians of Kenya At the same time the book is a courageous reflection in the dilemmas of African nationhood Professor B A Ogot says The main purpose of the book is to show that decolonization does not only mean the transfer of alien power to sovereign nationhood it must also entail the liberation of the worlds of spirit and culture as well as economics and politics The book also raises a more fundamental question that is How much independence is available to any state national economy or culture in today's world It asks how far are Africa's miseries linked to the colonial past and to the process of decolonization In particular the book raises the basic question of how far Kenya is avoidably neo colonial And what does neo colonial dependence mean The book answers these questions by discussing the dynamic between the politics of decolonization the social history of class formation and the economics of dependence The book ends with a provocative epilogue discussing the transformation of the post colonial state from a single party to a multi party system Challenges in Tropical Coastal Zone Management Matthias Wolff, Sebastian C.A.
