Leadership for Change and School Reform Kathryn Riley,Karen

Seashore Louis,2013-01-11 School reform is a top priority for governments today This timely and challenging book edited by leading international researchers Kathryn Riley and Karen Seashore Louis offers a rich comparative perspective on leadership for change and school reform Contributors form North America Europe and Australia demonstrate how school leadership is influenced by global pressures differing national and state contexts and local concerns They illustrate the limitations of reform initiatives which focus on school leaders tot he exclusion of the many other organisations which affect school such as national and local governments professional associations and school communities This book raises some important questions such as How can school leaders create intelligent thinking schools How can leadership and learning be linked together What are the characteristics of effective local education authorities and school districts What is the role of teacher organisations in educational reform and change What happens if businesses teachers parents and local communities have different views of what makes a good school The text illustrates the ways in which leadership is rooted in learning and identifies new directions for school leadership It challenges conventional notions of leadership offering an expanded view which sees leadership just as an individual role based function but as a network of relationships among people structures and cultures This lively and provocative book should be read by all those interested in education reform

Post-2020 Climate Change Regime Formation Suh-Yong Chung,2013-07-18 The fate of the climate change regime hangs in the balance as the UN led negotiations try to forge a new international strategy for the post 2020 period Since 1992 the UNFCCC and its Kyoto Protocol has been the primary legal instrument to respond to the climate challenge However the intergovernmental process has been riddled with problems that have rendered it ineffective The changing economic landscape has further made this country grouping problematic as some developing countries now emit more than some of their advanced counterparts Such problems have crippled the existing regime in adequately addressing climate change Building upon the expertise of the contributors of this volume this ground breaking collection aims to show the way forward for the intergovernmental process

It is the first of its kind to explore the key features of the regime featuring meticulously researched pieces from leading experts in the field Each chapter responds to the questions surrounding the political and structural limitations of the current top down approach taken in climate negotiations and proposes various alternatives countries can take to overcome such limitations in the process of building the post 2020 climate change regime In particular this collection underscores the concept of low carbon development and green growth to make the climate change regime more effective A Guide to Renewing Your School Lew Allen,1999-03-05 Sponsored by the League of Professional Schools Understanding school reform is a daunting task A Guide toRenewing Your School goes a long way in communicating essentialinformation about reform in a clear cut manner Childhood Education In Renewing America s Schools Carl D Glickman founder of theLeague of Professional Schools made the case for basing schoolimprovement efforts on democratic values and principles He proposed a three part framework for reform that would enableschools and communities to create successful change in theirschools and discussed how states and districts could support their efforts In this companion volume the authors provide detailedinstructions on how Glickman s framework can be implemented at the school level A Guide to Renewing Your School is based on years of practical experience numerous case examples and empirical studies from theLeague of Professional Schools a reform network based in Georgia This hands on book guides school practitioners through theessential steps of a reform process 1 designing a covenant to guide teaching and learning 2 creating a shared governanceprocess to promote democratic leadership and decision making and 3 implementing action research to assess the reform process The authors also address the challenges of change such as how to create a school climate that will foster implementation of theframework and how to determine the type of facilitation and staffdevelopment needed to sustain this work Filled with samplecovenants charters mission statements worksheets forms and other tools A Guide to Renewing Your School presents not only acoherent framework but useful strategies for promoting school widerenewal and improvement Unesco's Role in International Cooperation Unesco. Division of Educational Policy and Planning,1977 OECD Rural Studies Delivering Quality Education and Health Care to All Preparing Regions for Demographic Change OECD,2021-03-05 COVID 19 has put renewed focus on the importance of addressing longstanding challenges that OECD governments face in delivering public services especially in regions with people spread over a wider area where economies of scale are more difficult to achieve The physical infrastructure needed to provide good quality education and health services can be more complex and expensive in rural and remote regions that also struggle to attract and retain education and health care professionals
