Changing The Subject Womens Discourses And Feminist Theology:

Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology Pui-lan Kwok,2005-01-01 The burgeoning field of postcolonial studies argues that most theology has been formed in dominant cultures laden intrinsically with imperializing structures An essential task facing theology is thus to decolonize the mind and free Christianity from colonizing bias and structures Here in this truly groundbreaking study highly respected feminist theologian Kwok Pui lan offers the first full length theological treatment of what it means to do postcolonial feminist theology She explains her methodological basis and explores several specific topics including Christology pluralism and creation

Feminist Theology Watson,2003-12-08 Rethinking the Christian faith from a woman s perspective has been an important advancement in modern theology This book introduces the methods ideas and contributions of recent feminist theology to readers encountering the subject for the first time Natalie Watson explores the historical background of feminist theology discusses the value of reading Scripture from a feminist perspective and shows how this approach can offer a critical creative and constructive rereading of the Christian tradition She also sets forth some fresh ideas encouraging people to see feminism not as a threat to the church but as a challenging perspective that actually enhances its life in today s world An extensive annotated bibliography invites readers to further study presenting a wealth of books on feminist theology by many well known authors Ideal for classroom instruction discussion groups and personal study this volume is an exceptional user friendly guide to contemporary feminist thought

Changing the Subject Mary McClintock Fulkerson,2001-01-25 The author shows the many ways in which women s scriptural performances are liberating Shifting decisively from women s experience to discursive practices she offers three sample readings of emancipatory discourses from diverse social locations that better display the variety of ways in which women are oppressed and resistant

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson,Sheila Briggs,2012 This volume highlights the relevance of globalization and the insights of gender studies and religious studies for feminist theology It focuses on the changing global contexts for the field and its movement towards new models of theology distinct from the forms of traditional Christian systematic theology and of secular feminism

Changing the Subject Mary McClintock Fulkerson,1994 The author shows the many ways in which women s scriptural performances are liberating Shifting decisively from women s experience to discursive practices she offers three sample readings of emancipatory discourses from diverse social locations that better display the variety of ways in which women are oppressed and resistant

The Cambridge Companion to Feminist Theology Susan Frank Parsons,2002-07-04 Feminist theology is a significant movement within contemporary theology The aim of this Companion is to give an outline of feminist theology through an analysis of its overall shape and its major themes so that both its place in and its contributions to the present changing theological landscape may be discerned The two sections of the volume are designed to provide a comprehensive and critical introduction to feminist theology which is authoritative and up to date Written by some of the main figures in feminist theology as well as by younger scholars who are considering their inheritance it offers fresh insights into the nature of feminist theological work The book as a whole is intended to present a challenge for future scholarship since it critically engages with the assumptions of feminist theology and seeks to open ways for women after feminism to enter into the vocation of theology The Role of Women's Experience in Feminist Theologies of Atonement Linda D.

Peacore,2010-03-11 A strong critique of traditional atonement theology is found in the work of many contemporary feminist theologians This approach in large part is related to the notion of women s experience a category that is used widely within feminist theology But what is women s experience and how does it affect feminist theology particularly views on the atonement The category of women s experience is pivotal to feminist theology yet its use may lead to models of atonement that place excessive stress upon the subjective element of Christ s saving work thereby neglecting to address adequately the objective aspects of the cross This book focuses on the methodological issues regarding the category of women s experience generally its definition and use in feminist theology with a more detailed analysis of its use in the context of feminist theologies of atonement Utilizing the work of a wide variety of feminist theologians in conversation with theologies of experience this work attempts to understand the role of women s experience as it shapes feminist views on the atonement noting the strengths and limitations of feminist approaches to soteriology What are They Saying about Theological

Reflection? Robert L. Kinast,2000 Theological reflection is a form of theologizing that begins with lived experience correlates this with the sources of Christian faith and draws out concrete implications for praxis Robert Kinast finds five distinct types of theological reflection from within this common form ministerial spiritual wisdom feminist inculturation and practical theology Each of these styles is analyzed in terms of the type of experience it favors the way it connects this experience to theology and what sort of praxis it envisions The end result is a succinct overview of this wide ranging and diverse approach to theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Women in

Olena Ava Kate Oleson Joy E A Qualls and Zachary Michael Tackett The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without What's Wrong with Sin Derek R. Nelson, 2009-09-30 Catholicity and Emerging Personhood Horan OFM, Daniel P., 2019-09-26 An exploration of the meaning and identity of the human person in light of a renewed theology of creation the ongoing discoveries of evolution and natural sciences and newly appropriated resources in the theological tradition Women and Men in the Fourth Gospel Margaret Beirne, 2004-12-10 e fourth gospel presents the reader with an early christian text in which women and men are treated as a discipleship of equals as this term is broadly understood in the work of Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza but qualified with respect to her discussion of the meaning of equality when applied to gender Specifically the gospel contains six examples of gender pairs of characters a widely accepted lukan feature The members of each pair are portrayed in a parallel or contrasting faith encounter with the Johannine Jesus which is of substantial theological importance to the gospel s stated purpose John 20 31 The six pairs are the mother of Jesus 2 1 11 and the royal official 4 46 54 nicodemus 3 1 12 and the samaritan woman 4 4 42 the man born blind 9 1 41 and Martha 11 1 54 Mary of Bethany and Judas 12 1 8 the mother of Jesus and the beloved disciple 19 25 27 Mary Magdalene 20 11 18 and Thomas 20 24 29 Horizons in Feminist Theology Rebecca S. Chopp, Sheila Greeve Davaney, 1997 By all accounts feminist theology is at a crossroads Even as the longstanding consensus wanes that women s experience is the source and norm of feminist theology the specific and often contradictory experience of different groups is now highlighted and new theoretical frameworks are being proposed This landmark volume explores central issues of female subjectivity and feminist identity gender and embodiment tradition and norms and their impact on theology Leading thinkers in this new generation of feminist theologians rethink the central claims of feminist theology and offer proposals for the future Words Made Flesh Elaine Graham, 2013-01-25 Words Made Flesh draws together a number of Elaine Graham s shorter writings and essays and thereby maps out the work of a pioneer theological thinker and the development of pastoral and practical theology in the last twenty years Elaine Graham considers the theological significance of topics as diverse as nativity plays science fiction gender consumerism cyberspace and urban regeneration They all share a concern with the way the sources and norms of the

Christian tradition can enter into a creative and critical conversation with contemporary experience in order to generate the practical wisdom by which the life of the Church can be directed They reflect Elaine Graham s fundamental conviction that theology as talk about God in the world is always practical and public and that it begins and ends in the complexities of the human condition where words become flesh Quivering Families Emily Hunter McGowin,2018-05-01 American evangelicals are known for focusing on the family but the Quiverfull movement intensifies that focus in a significant way Often called Quiverfull due to an emphasis on filling their quivers with as many children as possible Psalm 127 5 such families are distinguishable by their practices of male only leadership homeschooling and prolific childbirth Their primary aim is multigenerational faithfulness ensuring their descendants maintain Christian faith for many generations Many believe this focus will lead to the Christianization of America in the centuries to come Quivering Families is a first of its kind project that employs history ethnography and theology to explore the Quiverfull movement in America The book considers a study of the movement s origins its major leaders and institutions and the daily lives of its families Quivering Families argues that despite the apparent strangeness of their practice Quiverfull is a thoroughly evangelical and American phenomenon Far from offering a countercultural vision of the family Quiverfull represents an intensification of longstanding tendencies The movement reveals the weakness of evangelical theology of the family and underlines the need for more critical and creative approaches The Blackwell Companion to Political Theology Peter Manley Scott,William T. Cavanaugh,2008-04-15 Written by a team of international experts drawn from various traditions of political theology this outstanding resource brings together 35 newly commissioned essays in the field Demonstrates that Christian theology is inherently political and shows how theology impacts on present day political issues Considers the interface of theology with political ideologies including the contribution of theology to feminist ecological black and pacifist movements Assesses the contribution of the major political theologians and theological movements Explores the political aspects of Christian sources such as scripture and liturgy Meaning in Our Bodies Heike Peckruhn,2017 In Meaning in Our Bodies Heike Peckruhn argues that scholars who appeal to the importance of bodily experiences need to acquire a robust and nuanced understanding of how sensory perceptions and interactions are cultural and theological acts of making meaning Divine Economy D. Stephen Long,2002-09-11 What has theology to do with economics This first book to address the question directly will be welcomed by all those with an interest in exploring how theology can inform economic debate Ecofeminism and Globalization Lois Ann Lorentzen,Heather Eaton,2004-09-08 Discusses ecofeminism in the context of the social political and ecological consequences of globalization The book includes case studies essays theoretical works and articles on ecofeminist movements from many of the world s regions including Taiwan Mexico Kenya Chile India Brazil Canada England and the United States
