Changing World Of Bali Religion Society And Tourism:

The Changing World of Bali Leo Howe, 2005 The Changing World of Bali Leo Howe, 2006-06-07 The glossy guide book image of Bali is of a timeless paradise whose people are devoutly religious and artistically gifted However a hundred years of colonialism war and Indonesian independence and tourism have produced both modernizing changes and created an image of Bali as traditional Incorporating up to date ethnographic field work the book investigates the myriad of ways in which the Balinese has responded to the influx of outside influence The book focuses on the fascinating interrelationship between tourism economy culture and religion in Bali painting a twenty first century picture of the Balinese In documenting these diverse changes Howe critically assesses some of the work of Bali s most famous ethnographer Clifford Geertz and demonstrates the importance of a historically grounded and broadly contextualized approach to the analysis of a complex society Political Ecology of Tourism Mary Mostafanezhad, Roger Norum, Eric J. Shelton, Anna

Thompson-Carr, 2016-01-08 Why has political ecology been assigned so little attention in tourism studies despite its broad and critical interrogation of environment and politics As the first full length treatment of a political ecology of tourism the collection addresses this lacuna and calls for the further establishment of this emerging interdisciplinary subfield Drawing on recent trends in geography anthropology and environmental and tourism studies Political Ecology of Tourism Communities Power and the Environment employs a political ecology approach to the analysis of tourism through three interrelated themes Communities and Power Conservation and Control and Development and Conflict While geographically broad in scope with chapters that span Central and South America to Africa and South Southeast and East Asia to Europe and Greenland the collection illustrates how tourism related environmental challenges are shared across prodigious geographical distances while also attending to the nuanced ways they materialize in local contexts and therefore demand the historically situated place based and multi scalar approach of political ecology This collection advances our understanding of the role of political economic and environmental concerns in tourism practice It offers readers a political ecology framework from which to address tourism related issues and themes such as development identity politics environmental subjectivities environmental degradation land and resources conflict and indigenous ecologies Finally the collection is bookended by a pair of essays from two of the most distinguished scholars working in the subfield Rosaleen Duffy foreword and James Igoe afterword This collection will be valuable reading for scholars and practitioners alike who share a critical interest in the intersection of tourism politics and the environment The Kecak and Cultural Tourism on Bali Kendra Stepputat, 2021 The Kecak is one of the most well known dramatic dance performance practices on Bali It is based on stories from the Old Indian epic Ramayana performed by an ensemble of male and female solo dancers and accompanied by a group consisting of approximately 100 men who function both as musical accompaniment and living scenery that can be flexibly choreographed Since its genesis in the 1930s the Kecak has been almost solely performed in a tourist context This book gives a thorough analysis and description of the Kecak in its present form and explores how the Kecak became and stayed a tourist genre for more than 80 years The book is divided into two parts The first part focuses on the Kecak in its present form including musical choreographic and dramatic elements The connection between cultural tourism on Bali and Kecak performance practice is analyzed in detail including the dependency between tourism professionals and artists and ways of promoting the kecak Tourists perspectives on the Kecak are addressed separately The second part deals with the genesis and development of the Kecak from the 1930s onward The Politics of Religion in Indonesia Michel Picard,Rémy Madinier,2011-05-13 Indonesia is a remarkable case study for religious politics While not being a theocratic country it is not secular either with the Indonesian state officially defining what constitutes religion and every citizen needing to be affiliated to one of them This book focuses on Java and Bali and the interesting comparison of two neighbouring societies shaped by two different religions Islam and Hinduism The book examines the appropriation by the peoples of Java and Bali of the idea of religion through a dialogic process of indigenization of universalist religions and universalization of indigenous religions It looks at the tension that exists between proponents of local world views and indigenous belief systems and those who deny those local traditions as qualifying as a religion This tension plays a leading part in the construction of an Indonesian religious identity recognized by the state The book is of interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asia religious studies and the anthropology and sociology of religion Re-enchanting Nationalisms Brad West,2015-04-13 This book provides original insight into the way we now engage and remember national history Drawing on fieldwork and analysis of international case studies on state commemoration memorialization recreational and tourism and times of disaster and crisis the author demonstrates that not only does the nation frequently retain a strong cultural relevance in our global world but that the emergence of new forms of ritual and remembrance means that in many instances we are seeing the re enchantment of nationalism Drawing upon and developing an empirically informed cultural sociology the author charts the distinctive qualities of these new national rites and how they feed into and advance particular cosmopolitan and orthodox national politics Because social science has so often wrongly assumed the end of nationalism the insights of this of the book about the possibilities and limitations of contemporary nationalism demand serious consideration by academics and also by policy makers and the general public Grassroots Memorials Peter Jan Margry,Cristina Sánchez-Carretero,2011-08-01 Grassroots memorials have become major areas of focus during times of trauma danger and social unrest These improvised memorial assemblages continue to display new and more dynamic ways of representing collective and individual identities and in doing so reveal the steps that shape the national memories of those who struggle to come to terms with traumatic loss This volume focuses on the hybrid quality of these temporary memorials as both monuments of mourning and as focal points for protest and expression of discontent The broad range of case studies in this volume include anti mafia shrines Theo van Gogh s memorial September 11th memorials March 11th shrines in Madrid and Carlo Giuliani memorials in Genoa Between Harmony and Discrimination: Negotiating Religious Identities within Majority-Minority Relationships in Bali and Lombok, 2014-05-22 Between Harmony and Discrimination explores the varying expressions of religious practices and the intertwined shifting interreligious relationships of the peoples of Bali and Lombok As religion has become a progressively more important identity marker in the 21st century the shared histories and practices of peoples of both similar and differing faiths are renegotiated reconfirmed or reconfigured This renegotiation inspired by Hindu or Islamic reform movements that encourage greater global identifications has created situations that are perceived locally to oscillate between harmony and discrimination depending on the relationships and the contexts in which they are acting Religious belonging is increasingly important among the Hindus and Muslims of Bali and Lombok minorities Christians Chinese on both islands have also sought global partners Contributors include Brigitta Hauser Sch ublin David D Harnish I Wayan Ardika Ni Luh Sitjiati Beratha Erni Budiwanti I Nyoman Darma Putra I Nyoman Dhana Leo Howe Mary Ida Bagus Lene Pedersen Martin Slama Meike Rieger Sophie Strauss Kari Telle and Dustin Wiebe Asia on Tour Tim Winter, Peggy Teo, T.C. Chang, 2008-09-24 Examining domestic and intra regional tourism the book reveals how improvements in infrastructures ever increasing disposable incomes liberalized economies the inter connectivities of globalization and the lowering of borders both physical and political are now enabling millions of Asians to travel as tourists Religion and Tourism Michael Stausberg, 2011 This book explores the dynamic interaction between religion and tourism in the modern world It considers questions such as do travellers leave their religion at home when they are touring e and what happens if not what are the relationships between tourism and pilgrimage what happens to religious performances places and festivals that function as tourism attractions Other chapters examine religious theme parks wellness and spa tourism the roles played by tourist guides guidebooks and religious souvenirs and the role of tourism as a major arena of religious encounters in the contemporary world Surveying the growing body of work in the field Michael Stausberg argues that tourism should be a major focus of research within religious studies music migration and tourism in different global settings and provides current even new perspectives for ethnomusicological research on globalizing musics in transit The dual focus on tourism and migration is central to debates on globalization and their examination separately or combined offers a useful lens on many key questions about where globalization is taking us questions about identity and heritage commoditization historical and cultural representation hybridity authenticity and ownership neoliberalism inequality diasporization the relocation of allegiances and more Moreover for the first time these two key phenomena tourism and migration are studied conjointly as well as interdisciplinary in order to derive both parallels and contrasts While taking diverse perspectives in embracing the contemporary musical landscape the collection offers a range of research methods and theoretical approaches from ethnomusicology anthropology cultural geography sociology popular music studies and media and communication In so doing Musics in Transit provides a rich exemplification of the ways that all forms of musical culture are becoming transnational under post global conditions sustained by both global markets and musics in transit and to which both tourists and diasporic cosmopolitans make an important contribution

Contemporary Bali Agung Wardana, 2019-01-25 This book offers a comprehensive examination of spatial and environmental governance in contemporary Bali In the era of decentralisation Bali's eight district governments and one municipality acquired a strong sense of authority to extract revenues from within their territorial borders while disregarding the impacts beyond them which has exacerbated environmental cultural and institutional issues These issues are addressed through reorganising space In reality however such re organisation has predominantly been in order to provide space for tourism investments and market expansion The outcomes of reorganising space are in fact shaped by the dynamics of power that interface with increasingly complex legal and institutional structures These complex structures provide more arenas for vested interests to manoeuvre but at the same time provide different forms of legitimacy for local forces to challenge the dominant process The book demonstrates the mechanisms through which social actors mobilise legal institutional arrangements to advance their interests The Changing Village Environment in Southeast Asia Ben

Critical Reflections on Religion and Media in Contemporary Bali Richard Fox,2010-12-17 Scholars of religion have always worked closely with media of one kind or another from sacred books and archaic languages to cassette sermons and the Internet Yet comparatively little attention has been paid to the ways we actually use these and other media in the pursuit of historical inquiry Drawing on ethnographic and archival research conducted on the Indonesian island of Bali this book offers a critique of the media related assumptions underpinning fields as diverse in their subject matter and approach as the history of religions British cultural studies and Old Javanese philology Its central contention is that more nuanced attention to problems of media will have serious implications for how we think about the study of religions past and present Change
