Channels Of Imperishable Fire The Beginnings Of Christian Mystical:

Channels of Imperishable Fire Clement A. Kuehn, 1995 Ever since the poems of Dioscorus of Aphroditon ca 520 ca 585 C E were discovered on papyri in Upper Egypt they have perplexed and disturbed scholars Written largely in an Homeric vocabulary many appear to be praising dukes and other government officials according to encomiastic conventions Yet the poems do not adhere closely to these conventions and contain many verses and passages which are nearly incomprehensible This book demonstrates that many of these problematic passages have mystical significance and that the encomia possibly have an allegorical level of meaning The study also reveals the valuable contribution these poems make to our understanding of early Christian mysticism and Late Antique culture Transfigurations of Hellenism László Török, 2021-11-29 This book deals with the architecture and visual arts in late antique early Byzantine Egypt as an organic part of the art of the Mediterranean region in the period between the 3rd and 8th centuries The richly illustrated book discusses the survival and transformations of Hellenistic themes and forms in the Roman and late antique periods It also presents a history of Coptic art history Transfigurations of Hellenism is an outstanding addition to this scholarship tracing out in detail the continuity of the Hellenistic tradition in Egyptian art All scholars of late antiquity will find much of interest in this fine work Stanley M Burstein California State University Los Angeles The Intellectual World of Late Antique Christianity Lewis Ayres, Michael W. Champion, Matthew R. Crawford, 2023-10-26 The Intellectual World of Late Antique Christianity explores new perspectives on early Christian epistemology in relation to the changing discourses institutions and material culture of late antiquity Early Christian modes of knowing and ordering knowledge involved complex processes of appropriation reproduction and reconfiguration of Jewish and classical epistemologies This helped Christians develop cultures of interpretation and argument as textually oriented religious communities within the Roman Empire and beyond It laid an intellectual foundation that would be built upon and modified in a variety of later contexts Encompassing Greek Latin and Syriac Christianity and an historical arc that stretches from the New Testament to Bede this volume traces how diverse theological commitments resulted in distinctive Christian accounts of knowing It foregrounds the myriad ways in which early Christian epistemology was embedded in earlier intellectual traditions and forms of life and how they established norms for communal life and powerful ways of acting in the world The Monks of the Nag Hammadi Codices Paula Tutty, 2024-10-02 This work tells the story of a community of fourth century monks living in Egypt The letters they wrote and received were found within the covers of works that changed our understanding of early religious thought the Nag Hammadi Codices This book seeks to contextualise the letters and answer questions about monastic life Significantly new evidence is presented that links the letters directly to the authors and creators of the codices in which they were discovered The Cambridge Ancient History Averil Cameron, Bryan Ward-Perkins, Michael Whitby, 2001-03-29 Volume 14 concludes the new edition of The Cambridge Ancient History The Oxford Handbook of Byzantine Studies Elizabeth Jeffreys, John F.
