[A Tale.]. Israel Zangwill,1895      The Dreamer Barry McCutcheon,2019-04-07 Jucelino s Premonitory DreamsJucelino s inner life is as remarkable as his outer life is commonplace When he is asleep he travels through space and time and witnesses events which have not yet transpired on the earthly plane but which will come to pass in days months years or decades in the future Jucelino refers to his experiences as premonitory dreams but these are obviously very different from the dreams that most people have So to call them dreams is a matter of convenience and refers mainly to the fact that they occur when he is asleep Jucelino Luz has advised with spiritual guidance to John of God with many letters sent but not to accuse him but told about his future life Since Jucelino refers to them that way so does this book but in truth they are more like extraordinarily sharp visions of a wide variety of future events In rare cases they refer to Jucelino himself he saw his wife in a dream three months before meeting and marrying her      David the Dreamer Ralph Bergengren,1922
