Chairil Anwar: The Poet and His Language Boen S. Oemarjati, 2012-12-11 Chairil Anwar, the Poet and His Language Boen Sri Oemarjati, 1970 Chairil Anwar; the Poet and His Language Bun Sri Umarjati Slamet, 1972 Chairil Anwar Boen Sri Oemarjati, 1972 The Complete Poetry and Prose of Chairil Anwar, 1970-06-30 The Complete Poems of Chairil Anwar Chairil Anwar, 1974 The Blue-Eyed Enemy Theodore Friend, 2014-07-14

The Blue Eyed Enemy is a comprehensive account of the interwoven histories of the three major archipelago nations of the West Pacific during the years of the Second World War Theodore Friend examines Japanese colonialism in Indonesia and the Philippines as an example of recurring patterns of domination and repression in that region He depicts Japanese rule in Greater East Asia as expressive of the folly of the general who exhorted his troops to annihilate the blue eyed enemy and their black slaves At the same time he clearly shows where the return of Western power aimed at new links between conqueror and conquered or lords and bondsmen Throughout the work one encounters an infectious sympathy for those afflicted by imperialism and racism from whatever source at whatever time The book is based on documentary research in Japan Indonesia and the Philippines as well as in the United States and the Netherlands and on over one hundred interviews with major actors and key observers of the era The analysis balances an eclectic use of social science perspectives with a humanistic concreteness and leads to new understanding of leaders like Sukarno and Hatta Jose P Laurel and Benigno Aquino Sr and Generals Yamashita and MacArthur As comparative tropical history it elucidates the contrasting cultural traditions and political psychologies of Indonesia and the Philippines and explains why 1945 was a year of dramatic contrast reoccupation and revolution for the first country and liberation and restoration for the latter Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Gender, Sexuality and Colonial Modernities Antoinette Burton, 2005-08-05

Gender Sexuality and Colonial Modernities considers the ways in which modernity was constructed in all its incompleteness through colonialism Using a variety of archival resources and equally diverse methodologies the authors trace modernity's unstable foundations in the slippages and ruptures of colonial gender and sexual politics As a whole the essays illustrate that modern colonial regimes are never self evidently hegemonic but are always in process subject to disruption and contest and never finally accomplished and are therefore unfinished business

Essays on Literature and Society in Southeast Asia Tham (Seong Chee), 1981 Sacred Language, Vernacular Difference Annette Damayanti Lienau, 2024-01-09

How Arabic influenced the evolution of vernacular literatures and anticolonial thought in Egypt Indonesia and Senegal Sacred Language

Vernacular Difference offers a new understanding of Arabic's global position as the basis for comparing cultural and literary histories in countries separated by vast distances. By tracing controversies over the use of Arabic in three countries with distinct colonial legacies: Egypt, Indonesia, and Senegal, the book presents a new approach to the study of postcolonial literatures, anticolonial nationalisms, and the global circulation of pluralist ideas. Annette Damayanti Lienau presents the largely untold story of how Arabic often understood in Africa and Asia as a language of Islamic ritual and precolonial commerce assumed a transregional role as an anticolonial literary medium in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. By examining how major writers and intellectuals across several generations grappled with the cultural asymmetries imposed by imperial Europe, Lienau shows that Arabic as a cosmopolitan, interethnic and interreligious language complicated debates over questions of indigeneity, religious pluralism, counter-imperial nationalisms, and emerging nation states. Unearthing parallels from West Africa to Southeast Asia, Sacred Language Vernacular Difference argues that debates comparing the status of Arabic to other languages challenged not only Eurocentric but Arabocentric forms of ethnolinguistic and racial prejudice in both local and global terms. Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08

Living Art: Indonesian Artists Engage Politics, Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life. In the 1970s, Sanento Yuliman, Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century, further developed that concept, stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history. The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual, sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium, including their responses to the COVID-19 pandemic. The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia. The volume also features essays by T. K. Sabapathy, Jim Supangkat, Alia Swastika, Wulan Dirgantoro, and FX Harsono, as well as the three editors: Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, and Caroline Turner. The book's contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art, including the inspirations and achievements of women artists, despite social and political barriers; Islam-inspired art; artistic ideologies; the intergenerational effects of trauma; and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s. The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia. Extensively illustrated, Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia's contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history, as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally. Forgotten Wars Christopher Bayly, Tim Harper, 2008-01-31

This extraordinary book is a vivid, highly original account of the creation of a new Asia after the Second World War: an unstoppable wave of nationalism that swept the British Empire aside. It tells the definitive story of how India Pakistan Burma and Malaysia came into existence and how British interference in Vietnam and Indonesia fatally shaped those countries futures Art of Translating Poetry Burton Raffel, 2010-11-01 Crisscrossing

Teeuw, 2013-03-09 The history of this book dates back exactly 20 years When I first set foot on the shores of Indonesia in September 1947 I was amongst other things assigned the task of teaching Malay literature in an advanced teacher training course with the instruction to lay stress on modern literature This was easier said than done as very little had been written on the subject and few materials were available to me From this period I recall with great gratitude the regular and friendly contacts I had with Mr Sutan Takdir Alisjahbana who in many ways me with information and documentation helped The editors of the magazine Kritiek en Opbouw found my lecture notes On some pre war authors worth publishing These articles with an introduction on Bahasa Indonesia and some other additions were subsequently collected and published by Pembangunan under the title Voltooid Voorspel Completed Prelude Djakarta 1950 The little book sold fairly quickly but rather than publishing a new edition in Dutch the publisher was interested in bringing out an Indonesian adaptation Much material was added the larger part of which had been collected by writing occasional reviews of Indonesian literary works for the Dutch newspaper Nieuwsgier in Djakarta The text of the book was very conscientiously turned into Bahasa Indonesia by Anku Raihul Amar gl Modern Indonesian Literature, Volume 1 A. Modern Indonesian Poetry Burton Raffel, 1967-06-30 Indonesian poetry like the country and also the language is basically a product of this century Only in the twentieth century have the people of this vast archipelago begun to achieve a unified cultural identity and national spirit only since 1928 has the possibility and by now the reality of a common language been realized and only since World War II have Indonesians achieved nationhood Yet Indonesia has already produced a highly individual lyric poetry that is in many ways unusual Reflecting the diverse heritage of the Orient and the West Moslem Buddhist Hindu and Christian Malay Chinese Dutch and others a poetic expression is developing that is accessible to and meaningful for both East and West In this first major study of this poetic flowering Burton Raffel traces its development discusses the work of such major figures as Chairil Anwar and points the paths the most recent poets are taking This is illustrated with a wealth of examples in translations mostly by the author but also with samples of the original Indonesian to convey the flavor of the language and by an extensive appendix of Indonesian literary criticism that indicates how the poets themselves view their role and their performance The Development of Modern Indonesian Poetry provides the English speaking public with a rare insight into the cultural development of the fifth most populous country in the world and raises along the way some questions important for an understanding of the relationship between poetry and politics in nonaligned
