Challenge and survival H Herstein,1970 Challenge & Survival Harvey H. Herstein,1974 Challenge & Survival Harvey H. Herstein,1974 Challenge and Survival [sound Recording] : the History of Canada Herstein, Harvey H,Ronald C. Kirbyson,Hughes, Laurie J,1984 Educating African Canadians Keren S. Brathwaite,1996 This book offers a critical assessment of the experiences of African Canadian students exploring strategies that will serve to enhance their academic success Writing from their respective locations as students parents teachers counsellors professors and researchers the contributors to this collection alert readers to many of the challenges that African Canadians face in the educational system They discuss new initiatives and suggest new directions that might improve the academic success of Black students Educating African Canadians offers practical suggestions that can enhance the education not only of African Canadian students but of all students An Our Schools Our Selves book CHALLENGE + SURVIVAL:THE HISTORY OF CANADA, BY...AND OTHERS. H.H. Herstein,1970 The Vimy Trap Ian McKay,Jamie Swift,2017-03-16 The story of the bloody 1917 Battle of Vimy Ridge is according to many of today s tellings a heroic founding moment for Canada This noble birth of a nation narrative is regularly applied to the Great War in general Yet this mythical tale is rather new Vimyism today s official story of glorious martial patriotism contrasts sharply with the complex ways in which veterans artists clerics and even politicians who had supported the war interpreted its meaning over the decades Was the Great War a futile imperial debacle A proud nation building milestone Contending Great War memories have helped to shape how later wars were imagined The Vimy Trap provides a powerful probe of commemoration cultures This subtle fast paced work of public history combining scholarly insight with sharp eyed journalism and based on primary sources and school textbooks battlefield visits and war art explains both how and why peace and war remain contested terrain in ever changing landscapes of Canadian memory New Possibilities for the Past Penney Clark,2011-08-22 The place of history in school curricula has sparked heated debate in Canada Is Canadian history dead Who killed it Should history be put in the service of nation Can any history be truly inclusive New Possibilities for the Past advances the debate by shifting the focus from what should be included in a nation s history to how we should think about and teach the past Museum educators secondary school teachers historians and history educators document the state of history education research They go on to consider the implications of the research for classrooms from kindergarten to graduate school and in other contexts such as museums virtual environments and public institutional settings This book takes into consideration the perspectives of indigenous peoples the citizens of Quebec and advocates of citizenship education This volume sets a comprehensive research agenda for educators policy makers and historians to help students learn about and more importantly understand the significance of the past Catalog of Copyright Entries. Canadian Books in Print ,1992 New Challenges and Perspectives in Conservation Breeding Programs Eliana Pintus, José Luis Ros-Santaella,William Holt,Pierre Comizzoli,2025-05-21 Conservation Breeding Programs CBPs remain essential tools to preserve animal biodiversity and save threatened species from extinction Despite the advances made during the last decades CBPs have been carried out only on a small number of species mostly mammals and birds There is therefore an urgent need to develop and complement in situ and ex situ strategies to also preserve other vertebrates like fish amphibians and reptiles in which the biodiversity loss because of climate change or other anthropogenic activities is even more dramatic One of the main factors that limits CBPs success is the lack of knowledge of the animal reproductive biology and behavior which is precisely known for instance in less than 4% of mammals the majority of which are terrestrial species Such knowledge is beneficial not only to enhance but also to control animal fertility that is especially warranted for the management of overabundant or invasive species which represent a further major threat for biodiversity The goal of this Research Topic is to bring together studies that deal with different aspects of animal reproduction both in captive and wild populations This includes both ex situ and in situ approaches such as the management of animal reproduction in captive populations and their reintroduction release into the wild Other approaches such as assisted reproductive technologies and biobanking greatly contribute to the success of conservation breeding This Research Topic also welcomes studies exploring the effects of biotic e g inbreeding diseases stress and abiotic e g anthropogenic activities housing and veterinary care

factors on reproductive biology of all vertebrates classes with a special interest to fish amphibians and reptiles As a comprehensive knowledge of animal reproduction and behavior plays a key role for the development and success of breeding programs descriptive studies on reproductive anatomy and physiology of wild or captive species either endangered or overabundant are welcomed The Research Topic also accepts manuscripts that deal with ethical aspects of animal welfare in CBPs and population management of invasive or overabundant species
