Journeys Towards Intercultural Capability in Language Classrooms Martin East, Constanza Tolosa, Jocelyn Howard, Christine Biebricher, Adèle Scott, 2022-05-16 This open access book presents an account of five teacher educators who over a two year period undertook a research project with five teachers of languages other than English in pre secondary schools in New Zealand Their collaborative aim was to develop students intercultural capability in the context of learning a new language

The school participants were typical of many in New Zealand's pre-secondary sector the teachers had limited language teaching experience and limited prior knowledge of how to develop the intercultural dimension in their language classrooms and the students were largely at the beginning stages of learning a new language The book discusses the findings obtained using a range of data collection methods including classroom observations reflective interviews with teachers and focus groups with students It documents instances of breakthrough and growth for teachers and students and reveals the problems and tensions Lastly it reflects on the lessons learned in the course of this project and speculates on the roles that teacher education needs to play if the goal of intercultural capability is to be better achieved in language classrooms both in New Zealand and internationally Of interest to a wide range of stakeholders in the area of education the book allows readers to gain an understanding of the opportunities of working with teachers through an action research model alongside the challenges that this brings and ways in which intercultural capability may be strengthened

Community Series: Towards a Meaningful Instrumental Music Education. Methods, Perspectives, and Challenges - Volume II Andrea Schiavio, Marja-Leena Juntunen, Dylan van der Schyff, Luc Nijs, 2024-02-26 Trying to understand the complex interplay between effective learning and personal experience is one of the main challenges for instrumental music education Much of the research that focuses on effective learning outcomes often adopts experimental methodologies that do not allow for a thorough examination of the subjective and social processes that accompany each student's musical journey on the contrary contributions dedicated to the detailed analysis of the learners' lived experience often do not offer generalizable outcomes to different types of learning and teaching

Teacher Acculturation Edward R. Howe,2022-03-16 This book evolved from decades of transcultural experiences Edward Howe s comparative ethnographic narrative a blend of narrative inquiry and reflexive ethnography uniquely captures the essence of teacher acculturation Each chapter is filled with intriguing teachers stories based on lived experiences connected through the common thread of learning to teach Compelling teacher narratives spanning seven decades show that much of what teachers do is learned implicitly and is culturally embedded Teacher Acculturation provides a window into the world of novice teachers from the 1950s through present day The thought provoking stories provide a springboard for critical discussions about gender sexuality culture race ethnicity Indigenous perspectives SES class religion location space time and the challenges facing teachers in different contexts The author highlights the importance of teacher relationships built on mutual understanding trust mentorship leadership and guidance Beginning teachers are largely required to work in isolation to learn their practice through trial and error left to sink or swim There is little provision for mentorship and insufficient time to reflect on teaching practices Collaborative and reflective self study as illustrated in Teacher Acculturation shows great promise to ameliorate this pervasive problem in teacher induction Thus the book will appeal to teacher educators teachers and to anyone interested in the fascinating lives of teachers
