Challenge Of Islam Encounters In Interfaith Dialogue:

The Challenge of Islam Douglas Pratt, 2005 Addressing challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter this book engages with the primary challenge enabling outsiders to understand the religion of Islam Douglas Pratt offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular of Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West Whilst in recent years there have been many introductions to Islam a book that combines introductory material with issues of the relationship of Islam to Christianity and Judaism and issues of dialogical engagement is rare and offers an important complementary perspective to other texts Jacket Routledge Revivals Douglas

Pratt, 2018-05-31 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so Muslims, Christians, and the Challenge of Interfaith Dialogue Jane I.

Smith, 2007-10-11 Christian Muslim dialogue going on in America for many decades has become more intentional and serious since the events of September 11 2001 This volume looks at the history of encounter between the two religions the types of dialogue that are taking place both locally and nationally and the hope that conversation brings for better interfaith understanding No book has been written on this topic before The book combines the history of Christian Muslim relations the rise of Islam in America with an emphasis on groups and individuals who have participated in dialogue and different kinds of dialogue Interreligious Dialogue Models Alwani Ghazali, Muhammad Kamal, 2023-12-15 How did the Prophet

Muhammad pbuh converse and engage with other religious believers Did he start off with prejudice and mistrust Or was he convivial and open minded This book analyses six models of the dealings in the lifetime of the Prophet Muhammad pbuh specifically but not restricted to the siblings of Abrahamic religious believers The six models of dialogue analysed in the book are dialogue with Ashamah Najashi of Abyssinia delegation of Najran Christians different Jews of Yathrib and emperors of Byzantine and Sassanid The analysis applies Ibn Khaldun s d 1406 historical approach which the author termed as Khaldunian Hermeneutics due to the similarity between his ideas to that of Johann Gustav Droysen d 1884 a German philosopher in historical hermeneutics As such the analysis goes beyond the dialogue content taking into consideration the immediate and larger contextual settings and changes of the contexts due to the passage of time It critically considers the suitability of each model due to the difference in times and contexts The book serves as a reference for Muslim dialogue advocates and practitioners to provide substantial evidence of the dialogue application by the role model of Muslims the

Harris,2013-09-06 Using vignettes of Muslim Christian engagement within the Anglican and Lutheran communities from around the world this book provides thoughtful Anglican and Lutheran responses to Muslim Christian relationships from a variety of perspectives and contexts lays the groundwork for ongoing faithful sensitive and sincere engagement

The Faiths of Others Thomas Albert Howard,2021-01-01 The first intellectual history of interreligious dialogue a relatively new and significant dimension of human religiosity In recent decades organizations committed to interreligious or interfaith dialogue have proliferated both in the Western and non Western worlds Why How so And what exactly is interreligious dialogue These are the touchstone questions of this book the first major history of interreligious dialogue in the modern age Thomas Albert Howard narrates and analyzes several key turning points in the history of interfaith dialogue before examining in the conclusion the contemporary landscape While many have theorized about and practiced interreligious dialogue few have attended carefully to its past connecting its emergence and spread with broader developments in modern history Interreligious dialogue grasped in light of careful critical attention to its past holds promise for helping people of diverse faith backgrounds to foster cooperation and knowledge of one another while contributing insight into contemporary global religious pluralism

Understanding Interreligious Relations David Cheetham,Douglas Pratt,David Richard Thomas,David Thomas,2013-11 Understanding Interreligious Relations is a multi authored volume that explores the theme of the religious other from the perspective of five major religions Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Christianity and Islam and discusses a range of issues in which interreligious relations are central These include conversion the impact and nature of religious extremism the contemporary development of inter religious dialogue the dynamics operating between majority and minority religious groups belonging to more than one religion or faith tradition examples of cross religious co operation religion in the public domain and the task of peace building among others In a religiously plural world how different religious communities get along with one another is not just an academic question it is very much a focus of socio political and wider community attention The challenge to understand interreligious relations is of critical importance in today s world

Contemporary Christian-Muslim Dialogue Douglas Pratt, 2021-02-28 This book introduces and examines the work of two significant 21st century Christian Muslim dialogue initiatives Building Bridges and the Christian Muslim Theological Forum and gives close attention to five theological themes that have been addressed in common by them An overview and analysis including inception development outputs and significance together with discussion of the select themes community scripture prophecy prayer and ethics allows for an in depth examination of significant contemporary Muslim and Christian scholarship on issues important to both faith communities The result is a challenging encounter to arguably a widespread default presumption of irredeemable mutual hostility and inevitable mutual rejection with instances of violent extremism as a consequence Demonstrating the reality that deep interreligious engagement is possible between the two faiths today this book should appeal to a wide readership including upper undergraduate and graduate teaching as well as professionals and practitioners in the field of Christian Muslim relations

International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world s religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity

New Approaches to Human Dignity in the Context of Qur'ānic Anthropology Rüdiger Braun, Hüseyin I. Cicek, 2017-05-11 In recent years the challenge of relating one s own theological concept of man and his destiny to secular topics such as the inviolability of human dignity has generated a dynamic discourse about how Islamic anthropology can help cultivate and perfect the individual self and social humanisation This anthology brings together contemporary Muslim and non Muslim approaches to the secular notion of human dignity with reference to the Islamic tradition in general and the anthropology of the Qur'an in particular The collection presents approaches to Islamic theological anthropology across a range of fields especially with regard to the narrative of Adam and Iblis which occurs in all monotheistic traditions It focuses on the specific grammars of anthropological narratives at the levels of the canonical text of the Qur'an itself Section I and the interpretations that focus on its performative discourse Section II Further to this the normative implications of the human images that are derived from the canonical text and its interpretations are discussed in Section III The dynamic interdependencies between the hermeneutics of the Qur'an theological anthropology and legal philosophy particularly in the European context are a promising field of research that not only allows a deeper insight into the multiperspectivity and indexicality of theological anthropology but also has the potential to facilitate the long overdue discursive cooperation and rapprochement between Muslim and non Muslim scholarship

Islam and Peacebuilding Ishan Yilmaz, 2013-02-27 The exploration of the contributions is made with regards to the title in hand by the thought and practice of the global movement associated with the Turkish Muslim scholar Fethullah Gulen The importance and distinctiveness of teaching of Gulen and the practice of the movement is that it is rooted in a confident Turkish Islamic heritage while being fully engaged with modernity It offers the possibility of a contextualised renewal of Islam for Muslims in the modern world while being fully rooted in the teachings of the Qur'an and the Sunnah of the Prophet It advocates the freedom of religion while making an Islamic contribution to the wider society based on a commitment to service of others

A History of Christchurch Muslims Abdullah Drury, 2024-09-30 This book examines a significant part of New Zealand history through a critical analysis of the Muslim community in Christchurch a neglected but important aspect of wider New Zealand social and religious history Islam is one of the fastest growing religions in New Zealand and one of the least understood by the wider public However the historic reality demonstrates that the first Muslim settlers arrived within 15 years of the proclamation of the colony in 1841 and many have been living quietly in this country and contributing to society ever since Drury elucidates how New Zealand Muslims have proved it possible to integrate into a European society in the South Pacific whilst retaining an idiosyncratic sense of Islamic communal identity This book is a useful reference for scholars and educators curious to learn more about Muslims in New Zealand and about the Christchurch Mosque communities before the 2019 shootings

Christian Engagement with Islam Douglas Pratt, 2017-04-24 Why did the Christian Church in the twentieth century engage in dialogue with Islam What has been the ecumenical experience What is happening now Such questions underlie Douglas Pratt's Christian Engagement with Islam Ecumenical Journeys since 1910 Pratt charts recent Christian WCC and Vatican engagement with Islam up to the early 21st century and examines the ecumenical initiatives of Africa's PROCMURA Building Bridges and the German Christian Muslim Theological Forum together with responses to the 2007 Common Word letter Between them Islam and Christianity represent over half the earth's population Their history of interaction positive and negative impacts widely still today Contentious issues remain real enough yet the story and ongoing reality of contemporary Christian Muslim engagement is both exciting and encouraging Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005)

Douglas Pratt,2016-10-04 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so Fight with extremism and freedom of religion concerns Gulnar

Hasanova,2014-04-27 The main goal of the author in writing this critical book is to support peace in the world This book covers some topical issues One conclusion the author arrived at in this research is that extremism is a pan cultural phenomenon not being endemic to a select group of nations or societies and none of the religions affirm or encourage violence and there is no link between religion and extremism If there is no link between religion and extremism the term religious extremism is just a mask created by extremists for giving the status of holiness to their own activities

Challenging the Stereotype Glenn A. Chestnutt,2010 Karl Barth never paid particular attention to the religions of the world In fact he has often been stereotyped as the prime exponent of an exclusivist attitude toward other religions because of his belief that salvation comes through Christ alone However a close analysis of his work suggests that it defies the rigid typology of exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism so often used in inter religious debate and instead allows for the possibility of discerning God s presence in the other Abrahamic faiths This book asserts that a case can be made on the basis of Barth s theology for promoting a democratic society which respects freedom and difference It shows how this argument can be extended to accommodate religious pluralism Other faith groups can contribute to a just society and interact in ways which are theologically fruitful for the Church s own life In particular this book demonstrates how Barth s theology can help Christians relate to Muslims by showing that God s grace is at work in places it is not expected beyond the boundaries of the Church The Church can be addressed through the presence and voice of the other In today s context this includes address through the presence and voice of Islam Contemporary Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges,2017-01-26

cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9 11 Nigerian Muslims and Christians and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students researchers and interfaith professionals Terrorism: Bridging the Gap with Peace and Conflict Studies Ioannis Tellidis, Harmonie Toros, 2016-01-08 This book opens up the discussion of the interrelation between terrorism studies and peace and conflict studies The aim is to examine the instances and circumstances under which both fields can benefit from each other Even though it is often accepted that terrorism is a form of political violence it is also quite frequent that research on the topic is dismissed when it is approached with conflict analysis frames More importantly policy approaches continue to inhibit obstruct and reject frameworks that are concerned with the transformation and resolution of terrorist conflicts partly because they see the state as the ultimate referent object to be secured At the same time peace and conflict studies seem to be excessively focused on problem solving approaches which overemphasise the role of parity during negotiations and misdiagnose the distribution of power both within conflicts as well as within conflict management resolution and or transformation approaches This book was published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Terrorism A Common Humanity Dr. Chigor Chike, 2016-11-21 This book looks at what motivates Muslims to reach out to people of other faiths The book found that for Muslims their sense of sharing a common humanity with non Muslims is a key factor The book is based on the experience of a group of Muslims in East London who have worked successfully for several years with the non Muslims in their community The books finding suggests that whilst leaders and scholars of different religions might focus on such areas as the nature of God or the similarities of holy scriptures across different religions as the basis for unity for the people at the grassroots relating with those of other faiths is more about being human together
