Challenge To Honor:

Unexpected New Life Matthew J. Marohl, 2012-01-18 from expected death comes unexpected new life The Gospel of Matthew does not shy away from the realities of struggle suffering doubt and death Yet from the first names in the genealogy to the last words spoken by Jesus the Gospel testifies to the promise that from expected death comes unexpected new life Through the actions of Tamar Rahab Ruth and Bathsheba we experience the expectation of death and the promise of unexpected new life In the birth story of Jesus Joseph suspects Mary of committing adultery It is this dilemma that is the focus of the narrative If he reveals her pregnancy she could be killed If he conceals her pregnancy he will be going against the law of the Lord What is a righteous man to do In Joseph s dilemma this experience of expected death the Gospel of Matthew proclaims the promise of unexpected new life The promise of unexpected new life is a theme that continues throughout Matthew s Gospel in the life and ministry of Jesus The call of his disciples is a call from death to new life The teaching of Jesus focuses on the experience of death and the promise of new life In both healing and curing Jesus brings unexpected new life to those who face death But it is the death and resurrection of Jesus that is the climax of unexpected new life in the Gospel of Matthew Even as Jesus experiences a most horrific and humiliating death in the crucifixion death and the grave do not have the final say In bearing witness to Jesus resurrection the Gospel of Matthew proclaims the magnificent promise of unexpected new life Matthew J Marohl invites you in these pages to read the Gospel of Matthew in a new way from a fresh perspective Integrating insights from the study of Mediterranean anthropology Marohl makes the cultural world of the Gospel come alive so that as you read Matthew again or perhaps for the first time you will certainly experience the powerful promise that from expected death comes unexpected new life James and Jude William Frank Brosend, 2004-06-21 Sample Text We Speak the Word of the Lord Daniel E. Harris, 2012-05-01 We Speak the Word of the Lord A Practical Plan for More Effective Preaching will help all priests deacons chaplains and other ministers called to proclaim God s word Working individually with an informal study group or in a structured continuing education program preachers can use this book to review and improve upon all aspects of preaching The Shame Factor Robert Jewett, Wayne Alloway, John G. Lacey, 2010-10-15 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status adversity slavery abuse illness grief and defeat Anthropologists sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice to bullying crime genocide narcissism post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The Shame Factor sponsored by St Mark s United Methodist Church in Lincoln NE in October 2010 Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for

The Diffusion of Ecclesiastical Authority Darin H. Land, 2008-07-17 The Diffusion of Ecclesiastical Authority explores the leadership of the church in Acts from a sociological perspective Two primary models emerge from a sociologically informed investigation of first century Greco Roman and Jewish religious leadership manager leader and innovator leader An examination of seven passages in Acts reveals that the leaders of the early church although initially conforming to cultural expectations are best described as innovator leaders whose counter cultural actions resulted in the empowerment of new leaders and the advancement of the gospel Through the use of fictive kinship language the voluntary sharing of authority the fostering of a sense of mutual dependence on God as the common patron and the redefinition of what is honorable the leaders in Acts consistently enabled others to share authority in the church and Interrogating Dueling Caning and Fencing during the British Romantic Period examines Romantic era representations of physical interpersonal conflict and the ways in which they reflect challenge and subvert gender roles class hierarchies and racial and ethnic stereotypes Along with fictional depictions of one on one physical aggression by writers such as Mary Robinson William Godwin Walter Scott Lord Byron and Mary Shelley it considers historical accounts of honor violence While recent studies of honor disputes during the Romantic period have tended to focus on the codified formal duel this book considers other forms of physical aggression as well including unritualized duels assassinations canings public fencing bouts boxing matches and brawls William Brewer argues that many Romantic era Britons found the aristocratic chivalric code compatible with bourgeois commercial values Although the middle classes were on the ascendant during the decades before the Great Reform Bill British society continued to affirm the chivalric ideals of honor physical courage duty service loyalty and reverence toward women Romantic period representations and interrogations of physical conflict and toxic masculinity along with the affirmative portrayals in Mary Shelley s fiction of pacifistic and nurturing models of masculinity continue to resonate today and testify to the ongoing struggle to contend with and regulate interpersonal aggression

Urgency and Severity: Pauline Rationale for Expulsion in 1 Corinthians 5:1-13 David E. Bosworth, 2024-05-21 When Paul heard that a Christ follower in Corinth was in an incestuous relationship with his stepmother the apostle insisted the man be removed immediately from the congregation This dramatic response is surprising as Paul responds to other serious situations with much less vehemence Why did Paul react to the immoral man with such urgency and severity Using socio cultural tools this study explains the importance of group identity and witness for Paul s ecclesiology The argument lays a foundation for contemporary readers to appraise contexts where an expulsive response to sin might be appropriate
