Blokker, N. J. Schrijver, 2011-01-07 Two major factors brought about the establishment of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law in 1970 demand for the publication of national practice in international law and the desirability for legal practitioners state representatives and international lawyers to have access to the growing amount of available data in the form of articles notes etc The Documentation section contains an extensive review of Dutch state practice from the parliamentary year prior to publication an account of developments relating to treaties and other international agreements to which the Netherlands is a party summaries of Netherlands judicial decisions involving questions of public international law many not published elsewhere lists of Dutch publications in the field and extracts from relevant municipal legislation Although the NYIL has a distinctive national character it is published in English and the editors do not adhere to any geographical limitations when deciding upon the inclusion of articles African Catholicism and Hermeneutics of Culture Joseph Ogbonnaya, 2014-08-05 The study of Christianity in the non Western world reveals a demographic shift in the center of Christianity from the Northern Hemisphere to the South But the contradictory aspect of the massive African conversion to Christian faith is the grinding poverty level in Africa This condition raises important theological and ecclesiological questions that demand urgent answers Therefore the research objectives of this book are to examine African Catholicism's involvement in human promotion and to seek a new way of theologizing Christianity that moves sub Saharan African peoples to action against the massive injustices that keep them poor Drawing on Africae Munus the Post Synodal Apostolic Exhortation of the Second African Synod 2011 and Bernard Lonergan's notion of culture African Catholicism and Hermeneutics of Culture argues that to truly be the spiritual lung of humanity African Catholicism must appropriate the Christian message to transform African attitudes and personhood and so foster a self reliant commitment to integral African development Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Reports United States. The World Environment 1972-1992 O. El-Kholy, 2012-12-06 Our planet is under siege Assaults on the atmosphere the greenhouse effect the depletion of the ozone layer and increasing air pollution pose a still unquantified threat to human life The dumping of hazardous wastes and land based sources of pollution present a similar threat to the oceans On land we are destroying a tropical forest the size of Austria every year and more than a hundred species of wild plants and animals are lost forever each day When the General Assembly of the United Nations established UNEP it charged us with reporting on the changing state of the world s environment tracking the underlying causes of change and working with governments to develop responses to those changes Every year since 1974 UNEP has produced a State of the Environment report focusing on one or more emerging environmental issues and always stressing the human factor the impact of environmental quality on people and society Three times since its inception 1982 1987 and 1992 UNEP has undertaken a more wide ranging study The results of the present study are the most disturbing of the three However not all the signs are negative Throughout the 1970s and into the 1980s UNEP was able to report progress in some important areas Environmental monitoring capacity was being rapidly improved in many parts of the world and Ministries of the Environment were being set up in an attempt to deal with environmental threats in a more coherent way
