Challenges And Opportunities Abroad White Paper On Foreign Policy:

Challenges and Opportunities Abroad Ireland. Department of Foreign Affairs, 1996 Ireland in International Affairs Ben Tonra, Eilís Ward, 2002 International Peacekeeping: The Yearbook of International Peace Operations Harvey Langholtz, Boris Kondoch, Alan Wells, 2004-11-01 International Peacekeeping is devoted to reporting upon and analyzing international peacekeeping with an emphasis upon legal and policy issues but is not limited to these issues It is recognized that in today's world there is a wealth of information available from the internet and through other sources It is therefore the goal of this Yearbook to make this information available in one publication which both organizes and records events over the course of a year through analytical articles a chronicle primary documents and a bibliography Topics include inter alia peacekeeping peace war conflict resolution diplomacy international law international security humanitarian relief humanitarian law and terrorism The Yearbook is of scholarly quality but is not narrowly theoretical It provides the interested public diplomats civil servants politicians the military academics journalists NGO employees and serious citizens with a document of record comment and a starting point for further research on peacekeeping and related topics This is achieved not only by the provision of basic documents on CD ROM such as Security Council Resolutions and Reports of the UN Secretary General but also by expert commentaries on world events Peacekeeping is treated in a pragmatic light seen as a form of international military cooperation for the preservation or restoration of international peace and security Attention is focused not only on UN peacekeeping operations but other missions as well This Yearbook is the continuation of the journal International Peacekeeping Human Rights Diplomacy: Contemporary Perspectives Michael O'Flaherty, Zdzisław Kędzia, Amrei Müller, George Ulrich, 2011-10-28 This collection of essays explores the notion tools and challenges of human rights diplomacy Human rights diplomacy is understood as the utilisation of diplomatic negotiation and persuasion for the specific purpose of promoting and protecting human rights This book builds on discussions at a high level workshop on the topic organised by the University of Nottingham Human Rights Law Centre the European Inter University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation and the Adam Mickiewicz University of Poznań that was held in Venice Human Rights: 21st Century Angela Hegarty, Siobhan Leonard, 2012-11-12 Published in the year 1999 Human Rights 21st Century is a valuable contribution to the field of Law The Europeanization of National Foreign Policies Towards Latin America Lorena Ruano, 2013 Who shapes the European Union's policy towards Latin America How has this EU policy modified individual member states relations with the region This book provides a comparative account of seven member states bilateral links with Latin America since 1945 in the context of their EU membership and based on the concept of Europeanization It illustrates how and why the main architects of this EU policy have been Spain and Germany In contrast Poland Sweden and Ireland which had little previous interaction with Latin America have developed their current relations with that region virtually as a result of their EU membership The United Kingdom and France lie in the middle they have been influential in certain policy areas and key periods in history while they have adapted to what is done at the EU level in others Practitioners established academic experts as well emerging scholars in the field bring to bear a novel combination of pioneering research and cutting edge conceptual analysis on this important but neglected area of the EU's foreign relations

Reflections on International Law from the Low Countries Erik M.G. Denters, Nico J. Schrijver, 2023-09-25 This wide ranging series provides expert insights into the most fundamental aspects of public international law and has for many years made a major contribution to the international debate on legal issues affecting the world community

Ireland on the World Stage William J. Crotty, David Schmitt, 2014-06-03 For 2nd and 3rd year courses in Irish Politics European Politics or Comparative Politics International Relations or Economic Development This book provides an up to date analysis of Ireland's place on the world stage exploring its international relations evolving economic power changing relationship with the EU its political role in the world and its changing relationship with England and Northern Ireland The book traces Ireland's development from a rural and isolated country to one that has emerged as an influential player on the international stage It looks at the continuing difficulties with the North Ireland's role of prominence in Europe and the way in which it has benefited from economic globalisation

EU Foreign Policy and the Europeanization of Neutral States Nicole Alecu de Flers, 2012-03-12 This book examines the effects of the Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP of the European Union EU on the national foreign policies of Ireland and Austria Small and neutral EU member states provide a fascinating case study as the CFSP entails a dilemma for them Their size may create assumptions that they are more likely to adopt EU policy yet the traditional position of neutrality may act contrary to Europeanization By concentrating on this side of the reciprocal relationship between EU and national foreign policy the book takes a new and innovative approach to investigate prospects for a common European foreign policy and goes beyond an examination of changes in the national foreign policies of Ireland and Austria to provide an engaging explanation and understanding of Europeanization Based on a comprehensive conceptual framework this text investigates three dimensions of national foreign policy the Europeanization of foreign policy making the Europeanization of foreign policy substance and effects on neutrality to create an accessible and informed insight into the evolution of European cooperation in the field of foreign policy and the impact on national foreign policy EU Foreign Policy and the Europeanization of Neutral States will be of interest to students and scholars of European Studies International Relations and Foreign Policy

Ireland and International Peacekeeping Operations 1960-2000 Katsumi Ishizuka, 2014-04-23 The Republic of Ireland has won its status as a leading contributor to international peacekeeping operations which has been its key foreign policy since the 1960s But why is Ireland so keen to be involved This new book asks and answers this and other key questions about Ireland's close involvement with the EU It cannot simply be for charitable reasons so is it because it is a neutral state or because it is a middle power Overall is Ireland's peacekeeping policy based on realism and liberalism The characteristics of peacekeeping operations have changed significantly especially since the end of the Cold War Can Ireland survive as a traditional peacekeeping contributor or does it have to change its peacekeeping policy radically And will it be able to maintain its distance from NATO and the EU in terms of peacekeeping operations This title attempts to answer all of these questions drawing on a wide range of resources from literature Irish and UN documents to newspapers and interviews

Perspectives on European Development Cooperation Olav Stokke, Paul Hoebink, 2012-10-12 Events of the past twenty years including the Cold War and the War on Terror have meant that the environments of international development co operation have changed extensively with dramatic consequences for development policies and North South relations in general Perspectives on European Development Cooperation takes stock of such changes describing and analyzing the new European development agenda including the role of the European Union Essays by prominent authorities in the field examine the development policies of individual donor countries and focus on the principles and objectives governing aid strategies and the performances of these policies This book will be of interest to students of development studies and those involved in determining development policy

"Foundations of an Ever Closer Union" Mark Callanan, 2007 Marking the fiftieth anniversary of the Treaty of Rome this publication examines some of the key developments in European integration from an Irish perspective The book explores different aspects of Ireland s relationship with the process of European integration including Ireland s relationship with the six founding members before it joined in 1973 and how European developments formed the backdrop to domestic debates over changing Irish economic policy in the 1950s and 1960s The increasing importance of the European Union in different policy areas is also analysed as is the impact the Union has had on the work of ministers and the Oireachtas and how EU business is managed within government departments The publication also reflects on the different amendments to the Treaty of Rome and how Ireland has contributed to the negotiation of new treaties since the 1980s With contributions from both practitioners and academics the book offers a diverse range of perspectives on how European developments have impacted on Ireland as well as reflections on what Ireland has brought to the European integration project In these different ways the authors offer interesting new insights into Ireland s involvement in the integration process and illustrate how Ireland s position within the European Union has matured and entered a new phase of development

BOOK JACKET

Ireland's UN Peacekeeping Policy During the Cold War Era Terry M. Mays, 2023-05-29 This is the first book to study the establishment and evolution of an Irish Peacekeeping Policy The author uses declassified primary source materials released by the Irish National Archives and relies on the notes and discussions of Government and legislative debates to demonstrate how the Irish governmental system operated to make the crucial decisions to dispatch contingents to UN peacekeeping operations Analysed are declassified discussion debate draft and final memos and cables between the UN and Irish Government as well as internal to the Irish Government The author considers the three step process of the political discussions between Ireland and the UN the coordination between Ireland and other states the discussions among members of the Irish Government and the debate within the Irish legislature Through this the author aims to promote an understanding of the mechanics behind Ireland's rise in reputation as a major backer and contributor to UN peacekeeping At the same time it presents an examination of a unique codified state process related to agreeing to the dispatch of personnel in support of UN peacekeeping

The Reality of Aid 1996 Judith Randel, Tony German, 2013-11-05 Should be on the shelf of any academic student NGO activist or politician with an interest in aid issues It should also be required reading for donor agency officials Development and Change As accessible as it is comprehensive has established itself as a reliable watchdog for anyone interested in this important aspect of international relations ORBIT Despite commitments to eradicate poverty 21 of the world's richest nations have slashed their aid to the world's poorest countries to just 0.3% of GNP its lowest level for more than 20 years In real terms aid in 1994 was below the 1990 level and with several donors planning further cuts it is likely that the aid level will continue to fall Now in its fourth annual edition The Reality of Aid critically examines the reality behind the rhetoric of development assistance and the discrepancy between the targets that the 21 member countries of the OECD Development Assistance Committee are publically committed to and the aid that is actually disbursed Part 1 of this year's edition includes analyses of the impact of the Copenhagen World Summit for Social Development and 20/20 compact developing countries debt and their Northern creditors including banks and international financial institutions efforts to eradicate poverty a stated aim of development assistance the human and economic cost of the estimated 140 million unexploded landmines currently planted around the world and the impact of conflict and humanitarian need on development cooperation In a new section Part 2 presents perspectives from the South with contributors from India Cambodia Peru Zimbabwe Poland and Fiji Part 3 consists of detailed country by country profiles of the aid performance of the OECD donors and Part 4 reviews aid spending by Northern governments and NGOs with at a glance tables and charts which compare donors performance on issues such as aid to basic health and education the priority given to poverty reduction the political management of aid and public attitudes to aid in developed countries Throughout information is summarized in easily interpreted figures and graphs First produced in 1993 The Reality of Aid has established itself as a unique source of independent evaluation and comment on aid policies and developments It is indispensable for all involved in development aid whether in the official or voluntary sectors Originally published in 1996
