Chances And Choices Further Tales Of A Gentle Southern Man:

Chances and Choices Jackie K. Cooper, 2001 The Bookbinder Jackie K. Cooper, 2006 It has been said that no man is an island We are all bound together by shared beliefs and shared experiences As we go through life we find that we are not as unique as we once thought We have much in common with the person who lives down the street as well as the ones who live across the globe Lives are not lived in vacuums but rather in interactive communities This world of binding is what gives life its richness The stories in this book will reach inside the reader's heart and soul to strike a common chord In lucid memorable prose Cooper offers remembrances reflections and experiences that can be shared by readers of all ages

Halfway Home Jackie K. Cooper, 2004 Every life is a journey and every journey is unique There are incidents in our lives that are common to those in other persons lives but the overall journey is as different and distinct as our fingerprints It is also true that some parts of our journey take place on roads that are rough and rocky while others take place on roads that are paved and smooth In Halfway Home Jackie K Cooper takes a look at his journey when he reached what he considered to be the halfway point of his life He had turned fifty his kids were teenagers he had been married for over twenty years Every day brought something new while every day was the same It was a time for thinking about his yesterdays and a time for contemplating his tomorrows In this book there are stories that reflect his thoughts on his family friends and events Some of the moments captured are funny some are sad some are important and some are silly but all are sure to affect your heart and your mind This collection of stories from a life's journey will remind you of times in your own life times you may have forgotten and now will relive Jackie K Cooper's journey continues and every bend of the road every spot on the horizon creates a new tale to be savored and enjoyed Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2002-02 The Humor of the Old

The Playwright's Muse Joan Herrington, 2013-05-13

August Wilson penned his first play after seeing a man shot to death Horton Foote began writing plays to create parts for himself as an actor Edward Albee faced commercial pressures to modify his scripts and resisted After Wit Margaret Edson swore off playwriting altogether and decided to keep her day job as a kindergarten teacher instead The Playwright's Muse presents never before published interviews with some of the greatest names of American drama all recent winners of the Pulitzer Prize In these scintillating exchanges with eleven leading dramatists we learn about their inspirations and begin to grasp how the creative process works in the mind of a writer We learn how their first plays took shape how it felt to read their first reviews and what keeps them writing for theater today Introductory essays on each playwright's life and work written by theater artists and scholars with strong professional relationships to their subjects provide additional insight into the writers' contributions to contemporary theater

Neither Black Nor White Yet Both Werner Sollors, 1999 Why can a white woman give birth to a black baby while a black woman can never give birth to a white baby in the United States What makes racial passing so different from social mobility Why are interracial and incestuous relations often confused or conflated in literature making miscegenation appear as if it were incest Werner Sollors examines these questions and others in Neither Black nor White yet Both a fully researched investigation of literary works that in the past have been read more for a black-white contrast of either-or than for an interracial realm of neither-nor-both and in-between From the origins of the term race to the cultural sources of the Tragic Mulatto and from the calculus of color to the retellings of various plots Sollors examines what we know about race analyzing recurrent motifs in scientific and legal works as well as in fiction drama and poetry
