Lichtman,2021-05-06 Covering everything from Hollywood films to Soviet cinema London s queer spaces to spaceships and horror architecture Screen Interiors presents an array of innovative perspectives on film design Authors explore how design can facilitate action and amplify tensions how rooms are employed as structural devices and how designed spaces can contribute to the construction of identities With a lens on class sexuality and identity across a range of films including Twilight of a Woman s Soul 1913 Caravaggio 1986 and Passengers 2016 and illustrated with film stills throughout this book showcases methodological approaches for the study of film and design history Halloween and Other Festivals of Death and Life Jack Santino,2025-03-14 Why do we celebrate Halloween No one gets the day off and unlike all other major holidays it has no religious or governmental affiliation A survivor of our pre Christian agrarian roots it has become one of the most popular and widely celebrated festivals on the contemporary American calendar Jack Santino has put together the first collection of essays to examine the evolution of Halloween from its Celtic origins through its adaptation into modern culture Using a wide variety of perspectives and approaches the thirteen essayists examine customs communities and material culture to reveal how Halloween has manifested itself throughout all aspects of our society to become not just a marginal survivor of a dying tradition but a thriving contemporary post industrial festival Its steadily increasing popularity despite overcommercialization and criticism is attributed to its powerful symbolism that employs both pre Christian images and concepts from popular culture to appeal to groups of all ages orientations and backgrounds However the essays in this volume also suggest that there is something ironic and unsettling about the immense popularity of a holiday whose main images are of death evil and the grotesque Halloween and other Festivals of Death and Life is a unique contribution that questions our concepts of religiosity and spirituality while contributing to our understanding of Halloween as a rich and diverse reflection of our society s past present and future identity

Voices of the Chronically Ill Mary Kalfoss,2023-08-09 This book describes what it is like to embody chaos and liminality in living with a physical chronic illness and how these experiences are related to the loss and remaking of one s sense of self It also encourages readers to listen closely to the figurative language people use in trying to articulate the unspeakable Focusing upon a wide array of narrative fragments gathered from first person literary work and research the author portrays how a conglomerate of sensations feelings and thoughts are embodied in the illness experience The voices present in this text speak of vulnerability suffering and brokenness yet also endurance and fortitude The ethics of philosopher Emmanuel Levinas provide the grounds for offering care lovingly This book makes a significant contribution to helping students practitioners and carers understand the chaos that is inherent yet so often silenced in the illness experience This text could also be of interest to laypeople who are curious about how subjective illness is experienced and to those who are ill who may be seeking affirmation for what they are experiencing

Postcolonial Literature and the Impact of Literacy Neil ten Kortenaar,2011-06-02 Examining images of literacy in African and West Indian novels Neil ten Kortenaar looks at how postcolonial authors have thought about the act of writing itself Writing arrived in many parts of Africa as part of colonization in the twentieth century and with it a whole world of book learning and paper pushing of school and bureaucracy newspapers textbooks and letters candles hurricane lamps and electricity pens paper typewriters and printed type and orthography developed for formerly oral languages Writing only penetrated many layers of West Indian society in the same era The range of writers is wide and includes Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and V S Naipaul The chapters rely on close reading of canonical novels but discuss general themes and trends in African and Caribbean literature Ten Kortenaar s sensitive and penetrating treatment of these themes makes this an important contribution to the growing field of postcolonial literary studies
