Changing Course An Agenda For The Real Reform Of Canadian Education:

Training the Excluded for Work Marjorie Griffin Cohen, 2003 In recent years job training programs have suffered severe funding cuts and the focus of training programs has shifted to meet the directives of funders rather than the needs of the community How do these changes to job training affect disadvantaged workers and the unemployed In an insightful and comprehensive discussion of job education in Canada Cohen and her contributors pool findings from a five year collaborative study of training programs Good training programs they argue are essential in providing people who are chronically disadvantaged in the workplace with tools to acquire more secure better paying jobs In the ongoing shift toward a neo liberal economic model government policies have engendered a growing reliance on private and market based training schemes These new training policies have undermined equity In an attempt to redress social inequities in the workplace the authors examine various kinds of training programs and recommend specific policy initiatives to improve access to these programs This book will be of interest to policymakers academics and students interested in policy work equity gender and education

Changing Course Paul Gallagher, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, 1995 Opportunity and Uncertainty Paul Anisef, Paul Axelrod, Etta Baichman-Anisef, 2000-01-01 Based on the longest running survey of its kind in Canada this book examines events in the lives of a generation of Ontario residents who graduated from grade 12 in 1973 and recreates the world in which these high school students faced the future Cool School Jane Loosmore, 2012-03-30 The present school system is steadily becoming dysfunctional and its time to improve that system ensuring it becomes one in which every child feels safe welcome interested and eager to learn In Cool School author Jane Loosmore presents a new two part approach to education that facilitates effective child friendly public schools Cool School outlines a plan called the Two School System from Cost to Classroom 2SS a school concept that is flexible holistic and recognizes each child as a blossoming individual This system is based on the decades of experience by Loosmore and her late husband Robert from their parenting and teaching in many different types of schools from rural to urban and from grades 1 to 12 in a wide span of subjects Collecting from their many experiences Loosmore offers the best of the best of what they've learned including discussion on class size length of the school day instruction methods technology curriculum and class composition Loosmore communicates that the purpose of the 2SS is to educate each child to his or her potential for becoming a competent caring knowing reasoning citizen of the world Its important to prepare this young generation for the usual challenges of adulthood and for finding and creating solutions to the problems with the environment and global enmity Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian, Marian Butler, 2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler, 2000 Rethinking Rural Literacies Michael Corbett, 2013-06-12 The chapters in this international collection investigate a wide range of theorizations of rurality and literacy literate practices and pedagogies questions of place space and sustainability and representations of rurality that challenge simplistic conceptions of standardized literacy and the real and imagined world beyond the metropolis The Futurist Directory World Future Society,2000 Teacher Learning and Power in the Knowledge Society Rosemary Clark,D.W. Livingstone,Harry Smaller,2012-09-18 The rise of knowledge workers has been widely heralded but there has been little research on their actual learning practices This book provides the first systematic comparative study of the formal and informal learning of different professional groups with a particular focus on teachers Drawing on unique large scale national surveys of working conditions and learning practices in Canada teachers are compared with doctors and lawyers nurses engineers and computer programmers as well as other professionals The class positions of professionals self employed employers managers or employees and their different collective bargaining and organizational decision making powers are found to have significant effects on their formal learning and professional development PD Teachers learning varies according to their professionally based negotiating and school based decision making powers Two further national surveys of thousands of Canadian classroom teachers as well as more in depth case studies offer more insight into the array of teachers formal and informal learning activities Analyses of regular full time teachers occasional teachers and new teachers probe their different learning patterns The international literature on teacher professional development and related government policies is reviewed and major barriers to job embedded ongoing professional learning are identified Promising alternative forms of integrating teachers work and their professional learning are illustrated Teacher empowerment appears to be an effective means to ensure more integrated professional learning as well as to aid fuller realization of knowledge societies and knowledge economies The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Sexuality Education ,2024-12-23 This Encyclopedia provides a comprehensive map of the field of sexuality education It offers an entry point for those interested in this topic providing a robust summary of issues and directing them to its best scholarship Comprehensive in scope it covers diverse global locations to highlight the significance of context when defining sexuality education The rapid development and increase in accessibility of digital technologies which has broadened sexuality education to include digital and media platforms is also reflected Resources in Education ,2001-10 APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service , Exploring the New Era of Technology-Infused Education Tomei, Lawrence,2016-11-17 Recent advancements in technology have led to significant improvements and developments within learning environments When utilized properly these innovations can serve as a valuable resource for educators and students Exploring the New Era of Technology Infused Education is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on the implementation of emerging technologies in contemporary classroom settings Highlighting theoretical foundations empirical case studies and curriculum development strategies this book is ideally designed for researchers practitioners educators and academics actively involved in teaching and learning environments Options: Reforms and Alternatives for Canadian

Education Terence R. Morrison, Anthony P. Burton, 1973 Educational Reform Jordan T. Ville, 2001 This book brings together the literature in a field which may define the 21st century Can economic and technological progress continue with educational systems which seem to answer to no one but themselves and which output graduates who can barely read and write and who have only the faintest clue how to use a map This bibliography provides access via Title Author and Subject Indexes Contents Educational Accountability Educational Change Educational Equalisation Educational Leadership Educational Planning Educational Indicates Canadian Who's Who 2003 Elizabeth Lumley, 2003-03 Now in its 93rd year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Of use to researchers students media business government and schools it is a useful source of general knowledge

Big Crime and Big Policing Tonita Murray, Elizabeth Kirley, Stephen Schneider, 2024-07-05 Following money over national borders banking systems casinos and free trade zones as well as the world of the corrupt elites Big Crime and Big Policing brings new scholarly and practical insights into our understanding of the interplay of money crime and policing on the grand scale In this wide ranging volume a mixed group of scholars and practitioners aim to show how money dictates the scope and nature of financial and corporate crimes and the impact of these crimes on national economies social institutions and communal well being alike The book examines how the combined efforts of governments and international organizations fail to stop financial crime at its source and despite apparently generous human and financial resources police and law enforcement efforts ultimately fall short of defeating big crime and of meeting public safety needs International in scope Big Crime and Big Policing provides fresh reflection on a significant problem of our age one that demands greater attention from governments and the public Sociological Abstracts , 2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Metropedagogy , 2006-01-01 What might it mean to develop a rigorous just and practical urban education Such a question takes on new importance in the middle of the first decade of the twenty first century as urban educators find themselves besieged with test driven standardized curricula promoted in the name of fairness educational excellence and egalitarianism Those who promote these standardized curricula fail to account for the unique situations and needs of particular urban students When an urban curriculum is standardized the students suffering from the effects of poverty racial discrimination and other problems are less likely to receive the specific pedagogical help they need to overcome the effects of such impediments Such students have special needs Teachers need the curricular freedom the professional respect to address these special requirements Metropedagogy constructed as a critical pedagogy for urban education addresses these concerns This book will be very useful as a text in urban education at the graduate and the undergraduate level Pathways and Participation in Vocational and Technical Education and Training Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,1998 The OECD countries have widely differing traditions regarding basic vocational training This report describes the internal logic and workings of some of these different systems
