Changing Face Of Christianity Africa The West The World:

The Changing Face of Christianity Lamin Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005-03-10 Over the past century Christianity's place and role in the world have changed dramatically In 1900 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America Today more than 60 percent of the world's Christians live outside of that region This change calls for a reexamination of the way the story of Christianity is told the methodological tools for its analysis and its modes of expression Perhaps most significant is the role of Africa as the new Christian heartland The questions and answers about Christianity and its contemporary mission now being developed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity Some contributions consider the development of non Western forms of Christianity others look at the impact of these new Christianities in the West The authors cover a wide range of topics from the integration of witchcraft and Christianity in Nigeria and the peacemaking role of churches in Mozambique to the American Baptist reception of Asian Christianity The Changing Face of Christianity shows the striking cultural differences between the new world Christianity and its western counterpart But with so many new immigrants in Europe and North America the faith's fault lines are not purely geographical The new Christianity now thrives in American and European settings and northerners need to know this faith better At stake is their ability to be good neighbors and perhaps to be good Christian citizens of the world The Changing

Face of Christianity Lamin O. Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005 The questions and answers about Christianity and its contemporary mission now being formed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity The Changing Face of World Missions Michael Pocock, Gailyn Van Rheenen, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10 Dramatic changes have taken place in global society and in the church that have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century This guide helps readers understand these trends The Changing World of Christianity Dyrón B.

Daugherty, 2010 Christianity has changed Formerly known as the religion of Europe and North America it is now a religion of the Global South Asia Africa and Latin America However Christianity has never been merely a Western phenomenon it has always been a borderless religion Indeed in six of the world's eight cultural blocks Christianity is the largest faith With convenient maps helpful statistics and concise histories of each of the world's major cultural blocks The Changing World of Christianity is a dynamic guide for understanding Christianity's new ethos From Ireland to Papua New Guinea Argentina to China South Africa to Russia this book provides a clear and encyclopedic look at Christianity the world's largest and most global religion Word Made Global Mark R. Gornik, 2011-07-22 A groundbreaking work of ethnography urban studies and theology Mark Gornik's Word Made Global explores the recent development of African Christianity in New York City Drawing especially on ten years of intensive research into three very different African immigrant churches Gornik sheds light on the pastoral spiritual and missional dynamics of this exciting global transnational Christian movement African Pentecostalism Ogbu Kalu, 2008-03-31 Across Africa Christianity is thriving in all shapes and sizes But one particular strain of Christianity prospers more than most Pentecostalism Pentecostals believe that everyone can personally receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit such as prophecy or the ability to speak in tongues In Africa this kind of faith in which the supernatural is a daily presence is sweeping the continent Today about 107 million Africans are Pentecostals and the numbers continue to rise In this book Ogbu Kalu provides the first ever overview of Pentecostalism in Africa He shows the amazing diversity of the faith which flourishes in many different forms in diverse local contexts While most people believe that Pentecostalism was brought to Africa and imposed on its people by missionaries Kalu argues emphatically that this is not the case Throughout the book he demonstrates that African Pentecostalism is distinctly African in character not imported from the West With an even handed approach Kalu presents the religion s many functions in African life Rather than shying away from controversial issues like the role of money and prosperity in the movement Kalu describes malpractice when he sees it The only book to offer a comprehensive look at African Pentecostalism this study touches upon the movement s identity the role of missionaries media and popular culture women ethics Islam and immigration The resulting work will prove invaluable to anyone interested in Christianity outside the West Church Growth in Britain David Goodhew, 2017-05-15 There has been substantial church growth in Britain between 1980 and 2010 This is the controversial conclusion from the international team of scholars who have drawn on interdisciplinary studies and the latest research from across the UK Such church growth is seen to be on a large scale is multi ethnic and can be found across a wide range of social and geographical contexts It is happening inside mainline denominations but especially in specific regions such as London in newer churches and amongst ethnic minorities Church Growth in Britain provides a forceful critique of the notion of secularisation which dominates much of academia and the media and which conditions the thinking of many churches and church leaders This book demonstrates that whilst decline is happening in some parts of the church this needs to be balanced by recognition of the vitality of large swathes of the Christian church in Britain Rebalancing the debate in this way requires wholesale change in our understanding of contemporary British Christianity From Orality to Orality James A. Maxey, 2009-09-15 In this groundbreaking work Bible translation is presented as an expression of contextualization that explores the neglected riches of the verbal arts in the New Testament Going beyond a historical study of media in antiquity this book explores a renewed interest in oral performance that informs methods and goals of Bible translation today Such exploration is concretized in the New Testament translation work in central Africa among the Vute people of Cameroon This study of contextualization appreciates the agency of local communities particularly in Africa who seek to express their Christian faith in response to anthropological pauperization An extended analysis of African theologians demonstrates the ultimate goals of contextualization liberation and identity Oral performance exploits all the senses in experiencing communication while performer text and audience negotiate meaning Performance not only expresses but also shapes identity as communities express their faith in varied contexts This book contends that the New Testament compositions were initially performed and not restricted to individualized silent reading This understanding encourages a reexamination of how Bible translation can be done Performance is not a product but a process that infuses biblical studies with new insights methods and expressions

Neo-Pentecostalism Nelson Kalombo Ngoy, 2019-05-23 For centuries Pentecostalism has played a significant role in oppressively shaping the life of formerly colonized people of Africa Moreover its theologies have perpetuated neocolonial policies developed through the lens of colonial legacies rooted in la mission civilisatrice mission to civilize However since the 1980s Neo Pentecostalism is increasingly reshaping the Congolese Christendom It sanctions the theologies of a prosperity gospel rooted in an uncritical reading of the Bible and self theologizing informed by a lack of literal contextual translation effects This book argues that the prosperity gospel bankrupts its adherents in this case the vulnerable impoverished sections of Sub Saharan Africa and particularly the Postcolonial Congo and instead offers a balanced theological reflection that broadens Neo Pentecostal studies with an African voice encouraging the rewriting and rereading of the story of redemptive mission The research engages a paradigm shift within global missions and world Christianity or the history of missions as the platform to negotiate literal prophetic and contextual translation and retransmission of the biblical gospel It is critical to reclaim and reestablish a hermeneutic of mixed methodologies and construct a contextual and critical interpretation of the Bible in the Congo To avoid the African assumption of cultural baggage which affects how the Congolese interpret the Bible the interpreter has to be neutral and experience the voice of Christ in the text instead of the voice of Congolese culture they must be a prophetic voice to reconstruct the authentic meaning of the salvific story

Mother Tongue Theologies Darren J. N. Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world's Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity's dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature's diversity And it highlights non Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity's global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity's foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so called post Christian West Encountering the Other Laura Duhan-Kaplan, Harry O. Maier, 2020-04-17 How do religious traditions create strangers and neighbors How do they construct otherness Or instead work to overcome it In this exciting collection of interdisciplinary essays scholars and activists from various traditions explore these questions Through legal and media studies they reveal how we see religious others They show that Jewish Christian Islamic and Sikh texts frame others in open ended ways Conflict resolution experts and Hindu teachers they explain draw on a shared positive psychology Jewish mystics and Christian contemplatives use powerful tools of compassionate perception Finally the authors explain how Christian theology can help teach respectful views of difference They are not afraid to discuss how religious groups have alienated one another But together they choose to draw positive lessons about future cooperation Canada and the Third World Sean Mills, Scott Rutherford, 2016-01-01 Canada and the Third World provides a long overdue introduction to Canada s historical relationship with the Third World A New Kind of Missionary Lionel F. Young, 2012-03 In the year 1900 there were only 9 million Christians on the African continent Today the once dark continent is home to nearly half a billion believers and growing at a rate of 23 000 new converts a day A dramatic southern shift has taken place in the last 100 years that many in the West have never heard about Today most of the world s Christians live in Africa Asia and South America the new global South Here is a short introduction to world Christianity written by a pastor scholar who discusses some of the exciting opportunities this presents for the Western church This is a must read book for every Christian who has a heart for global missions Based on ground breaking research that is illustrated throughout with real stories from the global church A New Kind of Missionary will leave you wondering why a book like this wasn t written sooner When Helping Works Michael Bamwesigye Badriaki, 2017-05-03 Today people from various parts of the world who are interested in helping fellow human beings impacted by famine epidemics wars and poverty are uniquely positioned They are interconnected due to globalization s impact which also has implications for intercultural work and global missions The ability to help people is a constructive asset which calls for the need to build friendships and partnerships across the globe Helping well depends on a number of factors yet this book looks into the impact of stereotype threat and its effects on intercultural identities the perceptions of others and performance in intercultural missions Human interactions continue to suffer due to fears anxious reactions about confirming negative stereotypes about a person s identity abilities and effectiveness in global missions Stereotype threat happens when caricatures and negative understandings about people s identities are invoked Wandering a Gendered Wilderness Isabel Mukonyora, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph Spirit-Filled Protestantism Luther Jeremiah Oconer, 2017-10-12 In Spirit filled Protestantism Luther Oconer shows how holiness and Pentecost themed revival meetings called culto Pentecostal helped form the development of Methodism in the Philippines He focuses on these revival meetings their theological content and the spiritual culture they helped perpetuate The resulting narrative provides a rich rendering of both male and female American Methodist missionaries their Filipino counterparts and their followers that both celebrates and critiques them Oconer also offers a unique perspective on Philippine Protestantism which has often been dismissed for being too intellectual and formal He defies the stereotype by demonstrating how culto Pentecostal revivals with their emphasis on holiness and the baptism of the Holy Spirit made Methodism the most innovative and successful of all Protestant denominations in the country prior to the Second World War Accordingly Oconer s treatment explains why Methodism provided a fertile seedbed for the emergence of the Manila Healing Revival and consequently the rise of Pentecostalism in the Philippines in the 1950s A long awaited volume on the history of Methodism in the Philippines Spirit filled Protestantism allows us to discern why Pentecostal impulses continue to shape Filipino Methodist identity in the twenty first century

African Catholicism and Hermeneutics of Culture Joseph Ogbonnaya,2014-08-05 The study of Christianity in the non Western world reveals a demographic shift in the center of Christianity from the Northern Hemisphere to the South But the contradictory aspect of the massive African conversion to Christian faith is the grinding poverty level in Africa This condition raises important theological and ecclesiological questions that demand urgent answers Therefore the research objectives of this book are to examine African Catholicism s involvement in human promotion and to seek a new way of theologizing Christianity that moves sub Saharan African peoples to action against the massive injustices that keep them poor Drawing on Africae Munus the Post Synodal Apostolic Exhortation of the Second African Synod 2011 and Bernard Lonergan s notion of culture African Catholicism and Hermeneutics of Culture argues that to truly be the spiritual lung of humanity African Catholicism must appropriate the Christian message to transform African attitudes and personhood and so foster a self reliant commitment to integral African development

Christian Thought in the Twenty-First Century Douglas H. Shantz,Tinu Ruparell,2012-04-01 In this volume some of the outstanding Christian scholars of our day reflect on how their minds have changed how their academic fields have changed over the course of their careers and the pressing issues that Christian scholars will need to address in the twenty first century This volume offers an accessible portrait of key trends in the world of Christian scholarship today Christian Thought in the Twenty First Century features scholars from Great Britain Canada the United States and Switzerland The contributors represent a wide variety of academic backgrounds from biblical studies to theology to religious studies to history English literature philosophy law and ethics This book offers a personal glimpse of Christian scholars in a self reflective mode capturing their honest reflections on the changing state of the academy and on changes in their own minds and outlooks The breadth and depth of insight afforded by these contributions provide rich soil for a reader s own reflections and an agenda that will occupy Christian thinkers well into the twenty first century

Missionary Interests David Golding,Christopher Cannon Jones,2024-04-15 In Missionary Interests David Golding and

Christopher Cannon Jones bring together works about Protestant and Mormon missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries charting new directions for the historical study of these zealous evangelists for their faith Despite their sectarian differences both groups of missionaries shared notions of dividing the world categorically along the lines of race status and relative exoticism and both employed humanitarian outreach with designs to proselytize American missionaries occupied liminal spaces between proselytizer and proselytized feminine and masculine colonizer and colonized Taken together the chapters in Missionary Interests dismantle easy characterizations of missions and conversion and offer an overlooked juxtaposition between Mormon and Protestant missionary efforts in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Religion, Globalization, and Culture Peter Beyer, Lori G. Beaman, 2007-10-30 This volume brings together over 25 articles by many of the most important authors who have worked on issues directly related to the theme of religion and globalization An additional emphasis on culture flags the inclusion of the relation of religion to its wider social context and also permits questioning the boundaries of religion so as to avoid a strong bias in favour of the analysis of institutionalized religion The key emphasis of the book however is the focus specifically on religion a topic that is still largely ignored in the burgeoning literature on globalization The articles are divided into five subthemes theoretical issues historical approaches to religion and globalization forms and boundaries of religion key issues such as ecology and gender and regional perspectives Contributors Afe Adogame Elisabeth Arweck Lori Beaman Peter Beyer John Boli Gary Bouma Dave Brewington George Van Campbell Jos Casanova Paul Freston Nobutaka Inoue Laurel Kearns Otto Maduro Vasilios Makrides Meredith McGuire Vincenzo Pace Rubina Ramji James T Richardson Ole Riis Roland Robertson Marie Andr e Roy Shandip Saha John H Simpson James V Spickard William Stahl George Thomas Bryan Turner Margit Warburg and Michael Wilkinson
