Economics of Education Review ,1996 A Guide to Living Standards Measurement Study Surveys and Their Data Sets Margaret E. Grosh,Paul Glewwe,1995-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 302 Presents an alternative way of financing development in Sub Saharan Africa in order to address the shortcomings of past investment lending This study discusses sector investment programs SIPs as an alternative way of financing development in Sub Saharan Africa in order to address the shortcomings of past investment lending in the region The report examines the nature and features of SIPs by drawing on the limited experience with such operations in a number of countries to date including Bangladesh Mozambique Pakistan Tanzania and Zambia A SIP is distinguished by its comprehensive sector coverage by close coordination among all parties including stakeholders and donors and by the requirement that it be formulated under local ownership and management Channeling Moroccanness Becky L. Schulthies,2020-12-01 Honorable Mention 2022 L Carl Brown AIMS Book Prize in North African Studies What does it mean to connect as a people through mass media This book approaches that question by exploring how Moroccans engage communicative failure as they seek to shape social and political relations in urban Fez Over the last decade laments of language and media failure in Fez have focused not just on social relations that used to be and have been lost but also on what ought to be and had yet to be realized Such laments have transpired in a range of communication channels from objects such as devotional prayer beads and remote controls to interactional forms such as storytelling dress styles and orthography to media platforms like television news religious stations or WhatsApp group chats Channeling Moroccanness examines these laments as ways of speaking that created Moroccanness the feeling of participating in the ongoing formations of Moroccan relationality Rather than furthering the discourse about Morocco s conflict between liberal secularists and religious conservatives this ethnography shows the subtle range of ideologies and practices evoked in Fassi homes to calibrate Moroccan sociality and political consciousness Government Reports

Announcements & Index ,1996 Poverty Lines in Theory and Practice Martin Ravallion,1998-01-01 A poverty line helps focus the attention of governments and civil society on the living conditions of the poor This paper offers a critical overview of alternative approaches to setting poverty lines In reviewing the methods found in practice the paper tries to throw light on and go some way toward resolving ongoing debates about poverty measurement emphasizing those debates which would appear to have greatest bearing on policy discussions Chronic Illness and Retirement in Jamaica Sudhanshu Handa,Monica Neitzert,1998-01-01 This paper explores the impact of six noncommunicable chronic diseases NCCDs on Jamaicans decisions to retire Using the 1991 and 1992 Survey of Living Conditions database it examines the significantly negative impact that NCCDs have on people remaining in employment Chapters present findings that suggest the need to integrate health and labor market policies discuss health transition and the labor market in Jamaica give data samples and health measures provide an econometric model examine NCCDs in respect to gender and other social issues and present sensitivity analysis on the impact of physical health status on employment Defining Poverty in the Developing World Frances Stewart,Ruhi Saith,Barbara Harriss-White,2007-06-28 Using data for India and Peru the authors compare and contrast four different approaches to poverty analysis at a theoretical and empirical level The research reveals the implications for measuring poverty and for policy concluding that the approach chosen does make a marked difference to conclusions drawn

A Manual for Planning and Implementing the Living Standards Measurement Study Survey Margaret E. Grosh,Juan Muñoz,1996 This manual explains the planning process technical procedures and standards used in Living Standard Measurement Study LSMS household surveys including what these procedures entail why they are used and how they can be implemented It provides a factual description of different procedures and standards as well as their purpose and an explanation of their distinctions The report offers explicit instructions along with examples of ways LSMS survey procedures have been implemented in different countries Although the lessons presented here are derived from LSMS surveys many of them are applicable to surveys in general and especially to those that are complex or especially concerned with quality control Topics covered in this manual include technical aspects of questionnaire formatting and testing methods of implementing sample design and fieldwork and data management procedures that have been successful The report sketches ideas about which directions to pursue in analyzing data presents a brief description of how to assess local statistical capacity and includes sample work plans and budgets to give surveyors estimates of how long each process will take
