

Challenging Attitudes in Relationships

Dr. David A. Reardon, PhD, Director, Center for the Study of Women & Gender Issues, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Relationships are a central part of our lives. They shape our experiences, our beliefs, and our actions. But what happens when the attitudes within a relationship become a barrier to growth and well-being? This session explores the challenges of identifying and changing negative attitudes in relationships, and offers practical strategies for fostering healthier, more supportive connections.
