Changing Social Stratification In Rural Bangladesh:

Changing Social Stratification in Rural Bangladesh A. F. Imam Ali, 1993-01-01 Changing Social Stratification in Rural Bangladesh A. F. Imam Ali, 1990 Social Stratification Among the Two Fishing Communities of the Coastal Areas of Chittagong A. F. Imam Ali, 1987 Employment, Income Distribution and Development Frances Stewart, 2013-09-13 First Published in 1975 These essays cover diverse topics on questions of employment unemployment and income distribution in the Third World The justification for collecting them into a single volume arises from the recent identification of the problem of employment in developing countries with that of income distribution State, Market and Society in an Emerging Economy Quamrul Alam, Rizwan Khair, Asif M. Shahan, 2023-07-26 The economic and social development that Bangladesh has achieved in the past two decades has made Bangladesh a development paradox This book tries to explain this paradox through a political economy lens The book explains the linkages between the state changing society and emerging private sector and examines whether the social transformation taking place in Bangladesh has the potential to live up to the expectations of a middle income country The early part of the book unravels the myriad relations between the state society and market to project the aspirations of a newly independent nation It analyzes how political turmoil militarization of politics politicization of institutions reforms initiatives industrial and social development policies and the power nexus influenced the nature of the political economy of Bangladesh The book goes on to examine how domestic appetite for capital and raw materials the digital revolution and the capacity of the local market to absorb expanded economic activities have created an environment that catalyzes innovation and entrepreneurship The book also explains how the country has attempted to transform from an agrarian to a manufacturing based economy with rapid growth in the ready made garment industry pisciculture pharmaceuticals and the ICT sector Bangladesh's journey from an emerging economy towards a developed country would interest those researching on development economics and those in policy making Survival Pattern of the Rural Poor Mohammed Sadeque, 1990 This book based on empirical data collected through census interview cum observations including the case studies from a Bangladesh village seeks to explore the survival characteristics of the poor A multiple deprivations approach to poverty provides the study's conceptual framework An uncertain as well as a very low income forced the poor day labourers petty traders artisans small farmers to adopt a variety of improvising mechanisms viz irregular carbohydrate diet substandard housing and total neglect of health and education needs Such a precarious living eroded the traditional family and kinship norms making certain categories of people particularly vulnerable A perpetual dependence on neighbours and patrons and alienation from the socio political affairs of the community relegated them to a low social status The poor by and large had low self perception and aspiration and were overwhelmingly religious and fatalistic in outlook yet many did not resign to fate and endeavoured to take all possible measures to adjust to multifarious depriving situations thus negating the culture of poverty concept The study outlines the policy implications at the end An unequal social structure is identified as a basic malaise that thwarts any attempt at social development Land and other asset redistribution is suggested as a first planned measure towards alleviation of mass poverty

Poverty, Population, and Sustainable Development Shiv Rattan Mehta, 1997 The only concordance to Eddic poetry ever published Kellogg's work is a basic reference tool of all scholars of Old Norse literature and language will become part of the indispensable core of reference works that an Old Norse eddic scholar needs Journal of English and Germanic Philology

The Elgar Companion to Development Studies David Clark, 2006 If handbooks can be inspiring this is it Like a true companion it takes in its stride conversations both big and small Its entries do not just present an international and multidisciplinary mix but true to life they work on several different scales And importantly the book makes its authority evident For it is like an extended website but with all the added advantages of an encyclopaedia that actually tells you about the authors and the sources on which they have drawn The resulting compilation is highly intelligent thoughtful and above all usable Dame Marilyn Strathern University of Cambridge UK The Elgar Companion to Development Studies is a major production in the development studies field authored by a star studded cast of contributors With 136 entries covering a vast range of topics it should quickly establish itself as a leading work of reference We should all feel indebted to David Clark who has successfully brought this substantial publishing project to completion John Toye University of Oxford UK This is a most comprehensive handbook on development studies It brings together a wide varied array of carefully crafted summaries of 136 key topics in development by an international cast of well respected academics and other experts in respective areas of study The handbook is heavily interdisciplinary organically combining economic political historical social cultural institutional ethical and human aspects of development While the wide range of entries might appear as a simple glossary listing or an encyclopedic collection each of the 136 entries offers more depth and discussion than the average handbook Viewed in this light this companion is highly likely to become known as a leading reference work on the topic Highly recommended Ismael Hossein Zadeh Choice The Elgar Companion to Development Studies is an innovative and unique reference book that includes original contributions covering development economics as well as development studies broadly defined This major new Companion brings together an international panel of experts from varying backgrounds who discuss theoretical ethical and practical issues relating to economic social cultural institutional political and human aspects of development in poor countries It also includes a selection of intellectual biographies of leading development thinkers While the Companion is organised along the lines of an encyclopaedia each of its 136 entries provide more depth and discussion than the average reference book Its entries are also extremely diverse they draw on different social science disciplines incorporate various mixes of theoretical and applied work embrace a variety of methodologies and represent different views of the world The Elgar Companion to Development Studies will therefore appeal to students scholars researchers policymakers and practitioners in the field of development as well as the interested layman

,1990 South Asian Studies ,2007 Life Course, Work, and Labour in Global History Josef Ehmer,Carola Lentz,2023-09-18 This multidisciplinary volume offers unique perspectives across the globe and throughout the centuries on the complexity of the nexus between work and the life course For industrialized regions from Germany and Western Europe to China and Japan it questions the widespread notion of an overall growing working life course instability since the 1970s For unindustrialized or industrializing regions from West Africa to state socialist East Central Europe as well as for transnational and transcontinental labour migrations it shows the enormous influence of the extended family and wider kin on individual pathways into and out of work For early modern Europe India and China and up to twentieth century state socialism and to current welfare states it stresses and concretizes the crucial impact of age and gender for both societal labour relations and individual work related decision making With all chapters based on original research the volume reflects a close cooperation between historians anthropologists and sociologists Its multidisciplinary approach finds expression in its methodological plurality reaching from archival research and sophisticated statistical analyses to biographical interviews and participant observation This mix allows to grasp the interaction between societal change and individual agency Asian Profile ,1994 Why Nations Fail to Feed the Poor Mohammad Mozahidul Islam,2022-10-06 This book examines the political and economic dimensions of food security in Bangladesh and assesses the role of the state in meeting the challenges of food security The key concern which is at the heart of this study is to explore how Bangladesh responds when its people go hungry There are no detailed empirical studies that examine the Bangladesh s role by providing an historical cum political analysis however conventional approaches are primarily concerned with a partial diagnosis of the economic or nutritional problems of food security The book then provides a detailed picture of the missing dimensions of state that include the strength of institutions the scope of state functions and other important attributes In doing so it uses the concept of neo patrimonialism to explore the political system of Bangladesh This book explicates the various impediments to food security ranging from the process of policy formulation to their implementation mechanisms It unpacks the structural weaknesses of the Bangladesh s institutional capacity in promoting food security and in the process argues that the root cause of food insecurity is deeply embedded in the nature of the government itself and the political institutions that link the state and society Bangladeshi Migration to Singapore Md Mizanur Rahman,2017-03-07 This book examines international labour migrants in the context of South South migration with a focus on Bangladeshi migration to Singapore Two principal questions in the South South migration are addressed Why and how individuals migrate for work and what impact this temporary form of migration has for migrants and their families The book adopts a relatively new methodological approach to labour migration by linking different phases that migrants undergo in the migration process and by combining migrants in the host country with their families in the origin country This is achieved through identifying and addressing six key areas i migration policy ii social imperatives of migration iii recruitment iv social worlds of the migrants v remittance process and finally vi family development dynamics This book introduces the bari to migration research as a unit of analysis over and above individual and family units The book reveals how social and cultural forces both initiate and perpetuate migration and later on influence bari dynamics
