Recording History Christopher Silver, 2022-06-28. A new history of twentieth century North Africa that gives voice to the musicians who defined an era and the vibrant recording industry that carried their popular sounds from the colonial period through decolonization. Arab music. For decades thousands of phonograph records flowed across North African borders. The sounds embedded in their grooves were shaped in large part by Jewish musicians who gave voice to a changing world around them. Their popular songs broadcast on radio performed in concert and circulated on disc carried with them the power to delight audiences stir national sentiments and frustrate French colonial authorities. With this book Christopher Silver provides the first history of the music scene and recording industry across Morocco Algeria and Tunisia and offers striking insights into Jewish Muslim relations through the rhythms that animated them. He traces the path of hit makers and their hit records illuminating regional and transnational
