Chaos Creativity And Cosmic Consciousness:

Chaos, Creativity, and Cosmic Consciousness Rupert Sheldrake, Terence McKenna, Ralph Abraham, 2001-11-01 Three of the most original thinkers of our time explore issues that call into question our current views of reality morality and the nature of life A wide ranging investigation of the ecology of inner and outer space the role of chaos theory in the dynamics of human creation and the rediscovery of traditional wisdom In this book of trialogues the late psychedelic visionary and shamanologist Terence McKenna acclaimed biologist and originator of the morphogenetic fields theory Rupert Sheldrake and mathematician and chaos theory scientist Ralph Abraham explore the relationships between chaos and creativity and their connection to cosmic consciousness Their observations call into question our current views of reality morality and the nature of life in the universe The authors challenge the reader to the deepest levels of thought with wide ranging investigations of the ecology of inner and outer space the role of chaos in the dynamics of human creation and the resacralization of the world Among the provocative questions the authors raise are Is Armageddon a self fulfilling prophecy Are we humans the imaginers or the imagined Are the eternal laws of nature still evolving What is the connection between physical light and the light of consciousness Part ceremony part old fashioned intellectual discussion these trialogues are an invitation to a new understanding of what Jean Houston calls the dreamscapes of our everyday waking life Chaos, Creativity, and Cosmic Consciousness Rupert Sheldrake, Terence McKenna, Ralph Abraham, 2001-11-01 Three of the most original thinkers of our time explore issues that call into question our current views of reality morality and the nature of life A wide ranging investigation of the ecology of inner and outer space the role of chaos theory in the dynamics of human creation and the rediscovery of traditional wisdom In this book of trialogues the late psychedelic visionary and shamanologist Terence McKenna acclaimed biologist and originator of the morphogenetic fields theory Rupert Sheldrake and mathematician and chaos theory scientist Ralph Abraham explore the relationships between chaos and creativity and their connection to cosmic consciousness Their observations call into question our current views of reality morality and the nature of life in the universe The authors challenge the reader to the deepest levels of thought with wide ranging investigations of the ecology of inner and outer space the role of chaos in the dynamics of human creation and the resacralization of the world Among the provocative questions the authors raise are Is Armageddon a self fulfilling prophecy Are we humans the imaginers or the imagined Are the eternal laws of nature still evolving What is the connection between physical light and the light of consciousness Part ceremony part old fashioned intellectual discussion these trialogues are an invitation to a new understanding of what Jean Houston calls the dreamscapes of our everyday waking life The Cosmos and the Creative Imagination Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Patricia Trutty-Cooill, 2016-02-03 The essays in this book respond to Anna Teresa Tymieniecka s recent call to explore the relationship between the evolution of the universe and the process of self individuation in the ontopoietic unfolding of life The essays approach the sensory manifold in a number of ways They show that theories of modern science become a strategy for the phenomenological study of works of art and vice versa Works of phenomenology and of the arts examine how individual spontaneity connects with the designs of the logos of the whole and of the particulars while the designs rest not on some human concept but on life itself Life's pliable matrices allow us to consider the expansiveness of contemporary science and to help create a contemporary phenomenological sense of cosmos

Dreamed Up Reality Bernardo Kastrup, 2011-06-16 A strong and growing intuition in society today is the idea that our thoughts create our own reality Yet it seems obvious that try as we might our lives are not quite what we fantasize Is the intuition thus wrong Through a rational methodic interpretation of meditative insights the validity of which is substantiated with a compelling scientific literature review the author constructs hypotheses that reconcile facts with intuition Mesmerizing narratives of his expeditions into the unconscious suggest an amazing possibility just as dreams are seemingly autonomous manifestations of our psyche reality may be an externalized combination of the subconscious dreams of us all mixed as they are projected onto the fabric of space time Perhaps the laws of physics are an emergent by product of such synchronization of thoughts Through computer simulations the author explores the implications of these hypotheses with conclusions uncannily reminiscent of observed phenomena

Daimonic Imagination Patrick Curry, William Rowlandson, 2013-07-16 From the artistic genius to the tarot reader a sense of communication with another order of reality is commonly affirmed this other may be termed god angel spirit muse daimon or alien or it may be seen as an aspect of the human imagination or the unconscious in a psychological sense This volume of essays celebrates the daimonic presence in a diversity of manifestations presenting new insights into inspired creativity and human beings relationship with mysterious and numinous dimensions of reality In art and literature many visual and poetic forms have been given to the daimonic intelligence and in the realm of new age practices encounters with spirit beings are facilitated through an increasing variety of methods including shamanism hypnotherapy mediumship and psychedelics The contributors to this book are not concerned with proving or disproving the existence of such beings Rather they paint a broad canvas with many colours evoking the daimon through the perspectives of history literature encounter and performance and showing how it informs and has always informed human experience

A Psychonaut's Guide to the Invisible Landscape Dan Carpenter, 2006-02-14 A bold cartography of the inner landscape visible only to those experiencing altered states Presents the psychedelic experience as an objective landscape that embodies the Other rather than a subjective state of mind Provides corroboration of phenomena encountered by those who venture into this domain Journeying into the invisible world revealed by his use of the dissociative psychedelic DXM dextromethorphan Dan Carpenter found that what he experienced was not simply subjective sensations and psychological states but an objective world of familiar if inordinately odd landmarks and characters The running diary he kept of these voyages recounts impressions of a landscape charted by other travelers into this Inner Space and includes descriptions of many of the same phenomena recorded by such mind travelers as Terence and Dennis McKenna Alexander and Ann Shulgin and others who have experienced the hive mind the pool of all consciousness Into this territory where expression is like chaos theory where oddly symmetrical order manifests out of the seemingly anarchic swirl of images and events the author ventures with the mind set of a naturalist accepting whatever might be rather than what he hopes he might find What emerges is not a location crafted by subjective experience but a landscape that embodies the Other and that represents a conscious state in which the barriers between the self and the not self dissolve
