

Hands

With seeds in palms, life begins,
Gently buried, growth it wins.
Tender touch to tuck them right,
Awaiting sprouts, kissed by light.

Under the sun, hands toil and turn,
For every bloom, a lesson to learn.
Dirt-clad fingers, nature's song,
In gardens where dreams belong.

Hands that plant, hope, and provide,
With every seed, life's promise implied.
Earth's embrace, and patience's dance,
In gardens, hands give life a chance.

the period The Dream of Absolutism Hall Bjørnstad,2021-10-15 The Dream of Absolutism examines the political aesthetics of power under Louis XIV What was absolutism and how did it work What was the function of the ostentatious display surrounding Louis XIV at Versailles What is gained and what is lost by approaching such expressions of absolutism as propaganda as present day scholars tend to do In this sweeping reconsideration of absolutist culture Hall Bjørnstad argues that the exuberance of Louis XIV's reign was not top down propaganda in any modern sense but rather a dream dreamt collectively by king court image makers and nation alike Bjørnstad explores this dream through a sustained close analysis of a corpus of absolutist artifacts ranging from Charles Le Brun's famous paintings in the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles via the king's secret Memoires to two little known particularly extravagant verbal and textual celebrations of the king The dream of absolutism Bjørnstad concludes lives at the intersection of politics and aesthetics It is the carrier of a force that emerges as a glorious image a participatory emotional reality that requires reality to conform to it It is a dream finally that still shapes our collective political imaginary today Further Discovery of the D's - Poetry David Christensen,2009-05-01 Expanding on the original work Discovery of the D's Poetry the journey goes deeper into the world that is David's heart and mind I Love Hearing Your Dreams Matthew Zapruder,2025-10-14 From one of contemporary poetry's most playful and original minds an enchanting and harrowing journey through the landscape of dreams and twenty first century hopes and disillusion Dust jacket Flap The Poetry and Mystery of Dreams Charles Godfrey Leland,1856 Love is Poetry, My Dreams and A Tribute to My Dad Charles Hooks, Boyd Hooks,2014-05 I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR That was my oath to my god and country in August 1963 I was an infantryman and a paratrooper for the U S Army I fought for my country in Vietnam After my discharge I was a self contractor and had a son and daughter to this day that has been my life Literally no legacy to be remembered by maybe my great or great great grandchildren Now I need something so if someone asked them who I was they could prove I was a real person and maybe I'd be noted for something special I dream constantly and write poetry and would like to publish a memoir It has to start now at the age of sixty nine as my life has consisted of nothing special to this point I would like to continue writing and publishing more poetry and a novel My heart has stopped five times and now I am obsessed in having a legacy to put me in a category where I may be extra special for something Maybe in thirty or forty years someone may say OH Yes I Do Remember Him He The Braided Dream Randolph Paul Runyon,2021-12-14 Robert Penn Warren's reputation as a poet though always considerable has soared in the last decade as indicated by his recent selection as America's first poet laureate The Braided Dream is one of the first book length studies of the poetry that has led to Warren's recent rise to eminence and the first to consider his final collection Altitudes and Extensions In a communicable jargon free style that will appeal to the nonacademic reader as well as the serious scholar Randolph Paul Runyon provides a detailed and illuminating guide to a body of poetry that despite its greatness has until now seemed resistant to full understanding Every poem of Warren's last four sequences Now and Then Being Here Rumor Verified and Altitudes and Extensions is given a close reading with a precise laying out of words phrases and recurring images that not only enrich the texture of the poetry but are themselves the texture Runyon demonstrates the relevance of Freud s concept of the dream work of the unconscious to a reading of this tightly interwoven poetry He shows how Warren s poems assume additional meanings by the poet s very arrangement of them deepening his thesis by arguing that poems eat poems as each reuses and reconceptualizes the imagery of its predecessor frequently with ironic or parodic effect Page Publishing Poetry Anthology Volume 2 Rochelle

The Dream and the Dialogue Alice Templeton,1994 Adrienne Rich s poetry has long engaged critics in questions about the nature of poetic art the character of poetic tradition and the value of poetry as a political and cultural activity At the same time it has attracted many general readers largely because it expresses the personal social and intellectual crises faced by feminists during the last thirty years In this study Alice Templeton looks at the ways in which feminist thinking has influenced Rich s poetics while simultaneously her poetic practice has shaped her feminist conceptions Templeton begins by exploring the tensions between epic eulogistic and lyric claims made in the poems collected in Diving into the Wreck 1973 She then examines the strategies Rich uses in subsequent collections to test and refine her feminist thinking Templeton focuses in particular on the dialogic moments of cultural participation that Rich s poetry provides for the poet and the reader These moments Templeton argues can dispel myths of social determinism even as they implicate readers in an ethically charged communal bond By demonstrating the contributions that Rich has made both to feminist thinking and to our ways of reading poetic tradition The Dream and the Dialogue treats Rich as a poet of ideas and places her work solidly in the context of contemporary literary theory
