Projections of Paradise, 2011-01-01 Paradise is commonly imagined as a place of departure or arrival beginning and closure permanent inhabitation of which however much desired is illusory This makes it the dream of the traveller the explorer the migrant hence a trope recurrent in postcolonial writing which is so centrally concerned with questions of displacement and belonging Projections of Paradise documents this concern and demonstrates the indebtedness of writers as diverse as Salman Rushdie Agha Shahid Ali Cyril Dabydeen Bernardine Evaristo Amitav Ghosh James Goonewardene Romesh Gunsekera Abdulrazak Gurnah Janette Turner Hospital Penelope Lively Fatima Mernissi Michael Ondaatje Shyam Selvadurai M G Vassanji and Rudy Wiebe to strikingly similar myths of fulfilment In writing directly or indirectly about the experience of migration all project paradises as places of origin or destination as homes left or not yet found as objects of nostalgic recollection or hopeful anticipation Yet in locating such places quite specifically in Egypt Zanzibar Kashmir Sri Lanka the Sundarbans Canada the Caribbean Queensland Morocco Tuscany Russia the Arctic the USA and England they also subvert received fantasies of paradise as a pleasurable land rich with natural beauty Projections of Paradise explores what happens to these fantasies and what remains of them as postcolonial writings call them into question and expose the often hellish realities from which popular dreams of ideal elsewhere are commonly meant to provide an escape Contributors Vera Alexander Gerd Bayer Derek Coyle Geetha Ganapathy Dor Evelyne Hanquart Turner Ursula Kluwick Janne Korkka Marta Mamet Michalkiewicz Sofia Mu oz Valdieso Susanne Pichler Helga Ramsey Kurz Ulla Ratheiser Petra Tournay Thedotou

Journeys and Destinations Alex Norman, 2013-07-16 Journeys and Destinations Studies in Travel Identity and Meaning brings together scholarship from diverse fields all focused on either practices of journeying or destinations to which such journeys lead Common across the contributions herein are threads that indicate travel as a core component as a concept or a practice of the fabric of identity and meaning

The World as a Global Agora Soumia Boutkhal, Larbi Touaf, 2009-03-26 In the current postmodern reality where society is no longer viewed as a totality but as a collection of individual interests public space both as a physical and symbolic space has no determined contours and the public sphere is likely to take new forms Yet as a crucial principle of democracy public space will continue to feed discussions as long as models of participatory democracy represent the guarantor of good governance and the preservation of the public good Ranging from architecture sociology to literary criticism and women and gender studies the essays that compose this collection have as a common denominator the idea of public space as a vital aspect of public life in modern as well as in developing and traditional societies Placing themselves beyond the relentless theoretical debates around the concept of public space the authors agree that no matter what forms it takes public space remains a fundamental aspect of even those societies that until recently were viewed as hermetically sealed What emerges from the different perspectives included in this book is a general consensus that the symbolic value of the physical public space is grounded in the collective socio-political consciousness as the basis for a general sense of civic action

Genre Studies in Focus Faten Haouioui, Hajer Ayadi, 2024-03-05 This collection of essays aims to revise genre theory and studies Authors in this volume present and discuss different literary genres in transition They investigate genre hybridization transformation reconciliation and evolution Therefore the volume reconceptualizes the theory according to novel texts and contexts in for example trans generic film series feminine poetry and Arab women writing It introduces new generic labels in travel literature and new sub genres in Maghrebean literature Genre blurs the boundaries between genre hierarchy labels and borderlines We read a gothic text that encompasses trauma testimony resistance and history Moreover scholars contributing to this collection astutely point out that genres are hybrid yet flexible by nature They adopt a cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach to genre theory The volume targets researchers theorists and students reading and interpreting literary and historical texts alongside genre theory

Critical Perspectives on Literature and Culture in the New World Order Washima Che Dan, Jason Sanjeev Ganesan, Noritah Omar, 2012-11-15 The fifteen chapters in this volume explore both new and tested theoretical perspectives on literature and culture at large this multiplicity of discourses is a reflection of the implicit discontent in conforming to the New World Order and a contestation against hierarchical relationships between countries which inform the social cultural and political climates of weaker nations With the political and economic hegemony of stronger nations weaker nations run the risk of being dominated or at the very least having their own national identity and sovereignty steeped in ambivalence in the face of a globalised culture This volume hopes to bring together critical views in relation to the construction of cultural studies in the Western framework the application of literary theory in the readings of vernacular literature contestation of the mainstream scientific methodology of cultural evaluation the role of English literature in Asian cultures the application of postcolonial theory in literature literary ethics in relation to Islamic literature as well as the Islamic and Western conceptions of democracy More than half of the articles in this collection centre on Islam as a guiding principle or as a context through which critical perspectives are made on literature and culture in today's globalised world order This inadvertent foregrounding of Islam reflects a continuing dialogue on and with Islam and its significant impact on existing academic discourses founded upon Western style scholarship

Shades of the Planet Wai Chee Dimock, Lawrence Buell, 2018-06-05 In a globalizing age studying American literature in isolation from the rest of the world seems less and less justified But is the conceptual box of the nation dispensable And what would American literature look like without it Leading scholars take up this debate in Shades of the Planet beginning not with the United States as center but with the world as circumference This reversed frame yields a surprising landscape alive with traces of West Africa Eastern Europe Iran Iraq India China Mexico and Australia The Broadway musical Oklahoma has aboriginal antecedents Black English houses an African syntax American slavery consorts with the Holocaust Philip Roth keeps company with Milan Kundera the crime novel moves south of the border and R P Blackmur lectures in Japan A national literature becomes haunted by the world when that literature is seen extending to the Pacific opening up to Islam and accompanying African American authors as they travel Highlighting American literature as a fold in a planet wide fabric this pioneering volume transforms the field redrawing its institutional as well as geographical map The contributors are Rachel Adams Jonathan Arac Homi K Bhabha Lawrence Buell Wai Chee Dimock Susan Stanford Friedman Paul Giles David Palumbo Liu Ross Posnock Joseph Roach and Eric J Sundquist New Literary Voices of the Moroccan Diaspora Ieme van der Poel, 2022-09-15 The highly charged debate over Morocco's diasporic minorities in Europe has led to a growing interest in the literary production of these new Europeans This comparative study is the first to discuss together a body of texts including contemporary Judeo Moroccan literature written in French Spanish Catalan and Dutch which have never been studied as a group Faced with such a variegated field of literary production the aim of this book is not to tie individual works of literature to their national place of origin but to re conceptualize the idea of a Moroccan literature with regard to the transnational and multilingual experiences from which it arises Drawing on a wide range of theoretical insights from Fatima Mernissi s concept of female subalternity to Abdelmalek Sayad s principle of the immigrants absent history this book allows for the re evaluation of the relationship between migration and postcolonial literary studies A careful analysis of the literary techniques used in the texts under scrutiny here highlights their poetic qualities without bypassing their political relevance with regard to the intercultural relations between Morocco and Europe as they are presently unfolding across the Mediterranean and beyond
