Dress And Ethnicity Change Across Space And Time:

Dress and Ethnicity Joanne Bubolz Eicher,1995 From African American women s headwraps to beauty pageants in Swaziland this absorbing book explores ethnicity through the frequently noticed but less often analyzed human phenomenon of dress The authors ethnographers folklorists and textile scholars present case studies from around the world to illustrate their different theoretical frameworks and assumptions In considering how the body is modified and supplemented they discuss not only garments and accessories but also hairstyles and cosmetics

Dress and Globalisation Margaret Maynard,2004-09-04 This work surveys dress and identity of cultures around the world It draws on issues of consumption ethnicity gender and the body as well as anthropological accounts and studies of representation

Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite,2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian s writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian s writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian s identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph

 MARIANNE VEDELER ANNA ZANCHI Value Construction in the Creative Economy Rachel Granger, 2020-03-27 The book provides a critical and integrative analysis of value as it pertains to different aspects of creative and cultural industries The notion of value a frequently used but rarely considered term is deconstructed and considered as a spatial and structural impact an active resource and process and as soft institutions and embodied forms which collectively create a space through which value is constructed and negotiated This book consists of three main sections normative valuation value and transformation from interactions and process and embodied value Together the contributions assess what value means in the creative and cultural industries how it is constructed and added through process and the way in which it is embodied in people and shaped through and by social space Especially relevant for postgraduate study and research in the creative and cultural industries where critical studies are key this book is also relevant for multiple disciplines which occupy the creative and cultural fields Moroccan Fashion M. Angela Jansen, 2016-05-19 This title presents a detailed ethnographic study of Moroccan fashion Drawing on interviews with three generations of designers and the lifestyle press the author provides an in depth analysis of the development of urban dress which reveals how traditional dress has not been threatened but rather produced and consumed in different ways The King of Drinks Dmitri van den Bersselaar, 2007-10-30 Imported schnapps gin has a remarkable history in West Africa Gin was imported in great quantities between 1880 and World War I when its consumption showed access to the modern international world Subsequently schnapps was transformed into a good that signified traditional local culture Today imported schnapps has high status because of its importance for African ritual and as symbol of the status of chiefs and elders but actual consumption is limited This book explores this unexpected trajectory of commoditisation to investigate how imported goods acquire specific local meanings This analysis of consumption and marketing of gin contributes to our understanding of patterns of consumption rejection and appropriation within processes of identity formation elite formation and the redefinition of community in colonial and postcolonial West Africa The Enigma of Ethnicity Wilbur Zelinsky, 2001-04 In The Enigma of Ethnicity Wilbur Zelinsky draws upon more than half a century of exploring the cultural and social geography of an ever changing North America to become both biographer and critic of the recent concept of ethnicity In this ambitious and encyclopedic work he examines ethnicity s definition evolution significance implications and entanglements with other phenomena as well as the mysteries of ethnic identity and performance Zelinsky begins by examining the ways in which ethnic groups and ethnicity have been defined his own definitions then become the basis for the rest of his study He next focuses on the concepts of heterolocalism the possibility that an ethnic community can exist without being physically merged and personal identity the relatively recent idea that one can concoct one s own identity In his final chapter which is also his most provocative he concentrates on the multifaceted phenomenon of multiculturalism and its relationship to ethnicity Throughout he includes a close look at African Americans Hispanics and Jews as well as such less studied groups as suburbanized Japanese Cubans in Washington Koreans Lithuanian immigrants in Chicago Estonians in New Jersey Danish Americans in Seattle and Finns Reasonable nonpolemical and straightforward Zelinsky's text is invaluable for readers wanting an in depth overview of the literature on ethnicity in the United States as well as a well thought out understanding of the meanings and dynamics of ethnic groups ethnicity and multiculturalism Archiv 61-62 Weltmuseum Wien Friends, The Dream Fields of Florida Ella Schmidt, 2009-01-01 Using ethnographic data from several immigrant farmworker communities in Florida Schmidt unravels the embedded structural inequalities of U S society and the ideological discourses that mask them This book is a timely and increasingly necessary look at one of the most invisible populations in the U S one that has been systematically ignored and continuously misrepresented Fashion, Identity, and Power in Modern Asia Kyunghye Pyun, Aida Yuen Wong, 2018-10-25 This edited volume on radical dress reforms in East Asia takes a fresh look at the symbols and languages of modernity in dress and body Dress reform movements around the turn of the twentieth century in the region have received little critical attention as a multicultural discourse of labor body gender identity colonialism and government authority With contributions by leading experts of costume textile history of China Korea and Japan this book presents up to date scholarship using diverse methodologies in costume history history of consumption and international trade Thematically organized into sections exploring the garments and uniforms accessories fabrics and fashion styles of Asia this edited volume offers case studies for students and scholars in an ever expanding field of material culture including but not limited to economic history visual culture art history history of journalism and popular culture Fashion Identity and Power in Modern Asia stimulates further research on the impact of modernity and imperialism in neglected areas such as military uniform school uniform women's accessories hairstyles and textile trade Chinese New Migrants in Suriname Paul B. Tjon Sie Fat, 2009 This book covers various aspects of New Chinese Migration in Suriname in the 1990s and early 2000s It is an ethnography of New Chinese Migrants in the context of South South migration but also a first ethnography of Chinese in Suriname as well as an analysis of Surinamese ethnic discourse and ethnopoltics Starting in the 1990s renewed immigration from China changed the dynamics of the Surinamese Chinese community which developed from a Hakka enclave to a culturally and linguistically diverse modern Chinese migrant group Local positioning strategies of Chinese had always depended on ethnic entrepreneurship and political participation but were now complicated by anti immigrant sentiments Doing Research in Fashion and Dress Yuniya Kawamura, 2011-03-15 Provides readers with a guided introduction to the key qualitative methodological approaches and shows students how to do research by combining theoretical and practical perspectives The Fabric of American Literary Realism Babak Elahi, 2014-01-10 This critical study traces the connections between the rising economic importance of the garment industry and the advent of a powerful movement towards literary realism in American fiction Examining the works of Henry James Theodor Dreiser Abraham Cahan Anzia Yezierska and Willa Cather and the shifting of the American ideal from the homespun to the ready made it explains how that cultural and psychological change appeared in the new literature of the nation
