Driving The Tiger International Rapid Growth Program:

Riding the Tiger Wilfried Aulbur, Amit Kapoor, 2016-11-18 How can one survive in a market which is volatile and uncertain What strategies have worked and not worked in the past What does it take to be successful in India What are the successful strategies applied by the likes of HUL Godrej Adani Ports and redBus So what does it take to Ride the Tiger Sound flexible strategy operational excellence and dedication to customer centric innovation But what does that really mean How have successful Indian companies managed challenges in an extremely price sensitive market In this book Wilfried Aulbur and Amit Kapoor look at successful and sometimes not so successful strategies operations and innovations in India They have distilled lessons from their decades of practical work experience in the country From large family conglomerates like Tata and Godrej to newer additions like Adani from MNCs like Maruti Suzuki to start ups in Bangalore and Gurgaon the book explores key learnings from all four kinds of companies in an Indian context and provides useful insights into how business is done in India

Higher Education in the Asia-Pacific Simon Marginson, Sarjit Kaur, Erlenawati Sawir, 2011-08-21 This survey provides unprecedented scope and detail of analysis on higher education in the Asia Pacific region In this era of global integration convergence and comparison the balance of power in worldwide higher education is shifting In less than two decades the Asia Pacific region has come to possess the largest and fastest growing higher education sector on Earth The countries of East and Southeast Asia and the Western Pacific together enrol 50 million tertiary students compared to 14 million in 1991 and will soon conduct a third of all research and development In China Hong Kong Taiwan Korea and Singapore world class universities are emerging at breakneck pace fostered by modernizing governments that see knowledge and skills as key to a future shaped equally by East and West and supported by families deeply committed to education But not all Asia Pacific countries are on this path not all reforms are effective and there are marked differences between nations in levels of resources educational participation research state controls and academic freedom Higher Education in the Asia Pacific Strategic responses to globalization provides an authoritative survey of tertiary education in this diverse and dynamic region Its 23 chapters written by authors from a dozen different countries focus successively on the Asia Pacific as a whole the strategies of individual universities and national policies and strategies in response to the global challenge

Religion and Development in the Global South Rumi Hasan, 2017-09-21 This book examines how the beliefs and practices of each of the major world religions as well as other belief systems affect the variables that influence growth and development in the Global South Evidence suggests that as countries develop the influence of religion on all aspects of society declines In stark contrast to the developed world in the Global South the role of religion is highly pervasive the distinctive conclusion of this book is therefore that a lessening of religiosity is a sine qua non for growth and development including secular laws and constitutions Offering a ground breaking study in an area little explored in the English language this book will satisfy an important gap in the literature on the political economy of development sociology of religion law and anthropology Global

Future Drivers of Growth in Rwanda The World

Bank, Government of Rwanda, 2020-07-06 A strong and widely acknowledged record of economic success including a three and a half fold increase in per capita income since 1994 places Rwanda among the world's fastest growing economies. Traumatic memories of the 1994 genocide are gradually fading as associations begin to take a more positive form of a nation on the rise powered by human resilience, a sense of common purpose and a purposeful government. Past successes and a sense of frailty have fueled aspirations for a secure, prosperous and modern future. Sustaining high rates of economic growth is at the heart of these ambitions. Recent formulations of the nation's Vision 2050 set a target of achieving upper middle income status by 2035 and high income status by 2050.

Future Drivers of Growth in Rwanda: Innovation, Integration, Agglomeration and Competition a joint undertaking by experts from Rwanda and the World Bank Group evaluates the country's possibilities and options in this endeavor. The report identifies four essential drivers of growth: innovation, integration, agglomeration and competition, and reforms in six priority areas: human capital development, export dynamism and regional integration, well managed urbanization, competitive domestic enterprises, agricultural modernization and capable and accountable public institutions.

Globalization and Development in East Asia Jan Nederveen Pieterse, Jongtae Kim, 2012 East Asia is widely regarded as the main winner in contemporary globalization, unscathed by the economic crisis of 2008 with its leading new industrializing nations and emerging economies. While twentieth century globalization was mainly led by the West, the twenty first century is ushering in different dynamics. The re-emergence of Asia involves alternative visions of the world and different perspectives on globalization. This volume seeks to address these dimensions, turning to local reflexivities notably in South Korea and China to explore the key debates in sociology and political economy within East Asia rather than from an outside view.
