Droit Sans Peines:

Le Droit sans peines Michel Van de Kerchove, 1987 La problématique de la dépenalisation et de la décriminalisation paraît se mouvoir sans cesse entre le mythe et la mystification Mythe d'un droit sans peines que l'on situe tantôt aux origines plus ou moins lointaines de nos sociétés tantôt l'horizon de leur avenir plus ou moins proche Mystification d'un discours qui prétend pouvoir observer dans la réalité même un phénomène homogène et constant de recroisement du droit pénal garantissant la fois une plus grande humanité Adoptant une perspective différente l'ouvrage s'efforce de déterminer la portée réelle et les limites des principaux types de transformations qui ont affecté aux XIX^e et XX^e siècles les systèmes pénaux belge et américain Analysant tant la nature et la fonction des peines en général que le traitement spécifique de certaines catégories de personnes et de comportements il met en lumière la fois la relativité et la diversité des phénomènes que recouvrent le retrait du droit pénal ainsi que son remplacement éventuel par d'autres systèmes de contrôle social Il tente enfin d'identifier les principaux enjeux politiques qui leur sont liés sur un plan tant utilitaire que symbolique et d'éclairer les questions éthiques qu'ils suscitent inéluctablement Abordant une problématique qui se trouve au cœur des débats passés et présents en matière de politique criminelle l'ouvrage est susceptible d'intéresser non seulement les juristes pénalistes mais encore tous ceux qui traversent leurs disciplines respectives thématisant le droit droit comparé criminologie histoire philosophie sociologie science politique et économie sont appelés recouper ce large champ d'étude

Criminal Liability of Corporations / La Criminalisation Du Comportement

Collectif Hans de Doelder, Klaus Tiedemann, 1995-11 This volume contains fourteen national reports and the general report on the subject of Criminal Liability of Corporations written for the XIVth Congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law which was held in 1994 in Athens Greece The issue of criminal liability of corporations is being discussed worldwide as is apparent in the many changes which are taking place in both criminal law and administrative law in several countries The national reports give an overview of the various trends in criminal policy when addressing the topic of liability of corporations and the general report sets out a common thread in this field

The European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights Mireille Delmas-Marty, 2021-10-25 The reason of State plays an important role under the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms Not only does Article 15 authorize States to take measures derogating from their obligations under the Convention in time of war or other public emergency threatening the life of the nation most of the rights and liberties defined in the Convention are subject to escape clauses as well This book demonstrates first that the system of the Convention is much more ambiguous than could have been expected Secondly it shows on the basis of study carried out in most of the Member States of the Council of Europe that a certain resistance exists to the Convention Neither the ambiguity of the European system nor the resistance of States to the system must be overlooked These should not however conceal the dynamics of the Europe States relationship which could well lead to a more reasoned conception of the reason of State Has a Europe of human rights begun to develop through the complex interplay of national and European norms This is the question raised in this fascinating book Mireille Delmas Marty is professor of Law at the Universit  de Paris 1 Panth on-Sorbonne and Director of the Section de Sciences Criminelles of the Institute of Comparative Law in Paris

Sexual Behaviour and Risks of HIV Infection Michel Hubert, 1990 The Centre d' tudes sociologiques of the Facult  s universitaires Saint-Louis has been selected to participate in the 4th Medical and Health Research Programme of the European Communities by launching a concerted action programme on Sexual Behaviour and Risks of HIV Infection These are the proceedings of a workshop that was held in Brussels on 5 to 7 April 1989 Its objectives were to discuss with representatives from about twenty potential collaborating centres a proposal for a concerted action programme and to engage in preliminary scientific exchanges on the main aspects of the proposed research programme

Environmental Protection Versus Trade Liberalization : Finding the Balance Sandra L. Walker, 1993 Recent years have witnessed a proliferation of laws regulating the environment Such laws aim to protect the environment of the legislating country and increasingly the environment beyond its borders While the objectives of these rules appear to be laudable ones environmental regulation is frequently criticized as trade restrictive and protectionist In addition attempts to regulate foreign production processes are attacked as interfering with the sovereign right of foreign countries to determine their own standards of environmental management Environmental protection goals may also hinder international trade and consequently become vulnerable to legal challenge under international trade law The manner in which international trade law weights the competing objectives of environmental protection and trade liberalization is the subject of this book The experience of the European Economic Community in this regard provides a useful backdrop against which the treatment of environmental regulation under the GATT can be both examined and improved The author concludes the GATT reforms such as the incorporation of environmental principles into GATT jurisprudence are critical to ensuring the legality of legitimate environmental protection measures Such efforts would serve to safeguard both the environment and a more stable international trading system The study was financed by the Brussels Capital Region through the Visiting Scientists Programme

Bilingual Portuguese Poet Anne Terlinden, 1990 The purpose of this book is to shed light on the rather unexplored English facet of Fernando Pessoa considered one of the major Portuguese poets of the twentieth century The originality of this study also lies in its extensive use of unpublished documents Out of the bulk of Pessoa s English writings The Mad Fiddler has been selected it offers not only poems of better quality than most of his writings in English but it also has the advantage of being a complete and coherent suite of mystical poems A systematic comparative study of the themes in The Mad Fiddler and in the poems by the four Portuguese heteronyms reveals a clear continuity and shows that Pessoa s bilingual Poetry is based on his main ontological quest which he tried to solve by means of his dramatic scattering into masks After this comparative analysis the individuality of The Mad Fiddler is defined Following an overview of the unpublished English writings found in the Pessoaan legacy The Mad Fiddler is analysed by means of Pessoa s own unpublished comments An investigation of Pessoa s private French library and of his unpublished Literary Appreciations proves how fully he understood the impact of Symbolism on the evolution of Modern Art The Mad Fiddler could indeed be viewed as an English echo of Pessoa s interest in modern trends in Literature and as a kind of English microcosm of Pessoa s aesthetic theory Le Guide Musical ,1867
