The Drover's Wife and Other Stories Murray Bail, 1984      The Drover's Wife and Other Classic Stories Henry Lawson, 1994      The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors      Short Story Paul March-Russell, 2009-05-15 This new general introduction emphasises the importance of the short story to an understanding of modern fiction In twenty succinct chapters the study paints a complete portrait of the short story its history culture aesthetics and economics European innovators such as Chekhov Flaubert and Kafka are compared to Irish New Zealand and British practitioners such as Joyce Mansfield and Carter as well as writers in the American tradition from Hawthorne and Poe to Barthelme and Carver Fresh attention is paid to experimental postcolonial and popular fiction alongside developments in Anglo American Hispanic and European literature Critical approaches to the short story are debated and reassessed while discussion of the short story is related to contemporary critical theory In what promises to be essential reading for students and academics the study sets out to prove that the short story remains vital to the emerging culture of the twenty first century      Writing Woman, Writing Place Sue Kossew, 2004-06 This book analyses the ways in which contemporary women writers in the two settler colonies of Australia and South Africa explore notions of self identity and place in their fiction

The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head, 2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without      The Cambridge Paperback Guide to Literature in English Ian Ousby, 1996-02-23 Derived from the parent Guide to Literature in English this volume offers in concise form over 4 000 entries on literature in English from cultures throughout the world Writers and major works from the UK and the USA are represented as are those from Canada the Caribbean Australia India and Africa The coverage is broad from the classics of English literature to the best of modern writing Additionally the Guide has a wealth of entries on literary movements groups or schools in literature and criticism literary magazines genres and sub genres critical concepts and rhetorical terms      Editing for Sensitivity, Diversity and Inclusion Renée Otmar, 2023-08-29 Editors should approach their work with an informed worldview ensuring that harmful stereotypes cultural insensitivities and inaccurate information are avoided Knowing how to do so and what to replace them with can be tricky Editing for Sensitivity Diversity and Inclusion is a guide for professional editors providing evidence based definitions recommendations and support for emerging and experienced editors working with fiction and non fiction genres Part One introduces the foundations of professional editing and what editors need to know to conduct themselves well in professional contexts Part Two applies this knowledge to professional practice covering topics such as plagiarism literary and cultural appropriation critical appraisal and developing a workplace policy and style guide Part Three explores an extensive range of topics relevant to editing for sensitivity diversity and inclusion including addiction dependence and recovery class and socio economic status indigeneity religious spiritual and other belief systems sex and gender identity and trauma and torture

The Broken Promise of Agricultural Progress Cameron Muir, 2014-06-05 Food and the global agricultural system has become one of the defining public concerns of the twenty first century Ecological disorder and inequity is at the heart of our food system This thoughtful and confronting book tells the story of how the development of modern agriculture promised ecological and social stability but instead descended into dysfunction Contributing to knowledge in environmental cultural and agricultural histories it explores how people have tried to live in the aftermath of ecological imperialism The Broken Promise of Agricultural Progress An environmental history journeys to the dry inland plains of Australia where European ideas and agricultural technologies clashed with a volatile and taunting country that resisted attempts to subdue and transform it for the supply of global markets Its wide ranging narrative puts gritty local detail in its global context to tell the story of how cultural anxieties about civilisation population and race shaped agriculture in the twentieth century It ranges from isolated experiment farms to nutrition science at the League of Nations from local landholders to high profile moral crusaders including an Australian apricot grower who met Franklin D Roosevelt and almost fed the world This book will be useful to undergraduates and postgraduates on courses examining international comparisons of nineteenth and twentieth century agriculture and courses studying colonial development and settler societies It will also appeal to food concerned general readers

"Return" in Post-colonial Writing Vera Mihailovich-Dickman, 1994 For writers and academics prominent in the field of the New Literatures in English today the notion of return explodes into rich semantic difference to reveal the diversity of preoccupations underlying the use of the common tongue From the Caribbean to Australia Guyana to South Africa India to Great Britain literary political and personal history collaborate in the poetic metamorphosis of an otherwise everyday experience Now a state of being now a reading rich with cross cultural age return draws from the collective memory invokes revenants digs up forgotten history quests for roots Just as it creates a dialogue with the past textual or real it negotiates turning points and perpetuates reversals It reclaims territory tradition and language in its yearning for home Fraught with the tensions arising from awareness of the impossibility of return from the exhilarations of imaginary fictional return even from the glimmering hope of a possible return its contemplation can also lead to appreciation of the infinite re turn re newal and re creation that is the beauty of human experience Discussion ranges from revenant supernaturalism in West Indian literature and the exploration of return in Australian African and Indo Anglian fiction to Caribbean poetry South African praise poets and West African drama Writers treated include Ama Ata Aidoo Edward Kamau Brathwaite Jean D Costa Bessie Head Matsemela Manaka Salman Rushdie Derek Walcott and Patrick White The personal biographical dimension of physical return is encompassed via the examination of the life and works of such writers as Es kia Mphahlele and Wole Soyinka and through autobiographical reflections The essays stories and poetry in this collection challenge patterns of conditioned reading and call for a multilayered polylogue with reality

APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Sybilla, and other stories Isabella Banks,1885 Bloomsbury Essential Guide for Reading Groups Susan Osborne,2009-01-01 A book club gives the opportunity to meet up with friends and wake the brain up a bit with lively and often quite aggressive discussion Dawn French How do you keep your reading groups discussions lively and focussed If you want to gain new insight into literature and share your passion with friends this book offers readers guides for 75 of the very best reads guaranteed to provoke spirited debate Each of the readers guides includes a summary of the book a brief author biography discussion points to spark debate and a set of titles for further reading that deal with similar themes A background section provides pointers to more material about the book online and as well as further thought provoking material Where did the author come from What made them write the book How did the context in which they wrote influence them If you d like further insight debate discussion and analysis to underpin your understanding and enjoyment of reading then look no further than this guide New titles in this edition include The Long Firm Leper s Companions By the Sea The Ninth Life of Louis Drax Buddha of Suburbia The Icarus Girl Black and Blue The Minotaur Takes a Cigarette Break Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress The Cutting Room Shadow of the Wind Giving up the Ghost and many more

Biography of a Book: Henry Lawson's While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert,2013 Biography of a Book traces the life of an iconic Australian literary work in the lead up to and for a century after its initial publication Henry Lawson s 1896 collection While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert follows Lawson s gradual development of a pared back bush realism in the early 1890s as he struggled to forge a career writing short stories and sketches for the newspapers Lawson s famous collection came out at a decisive moment for the development of a fully professional Australian literary publishing industry then in its infancy in Sydney The volume s editing design and production were collaborative events that changed the feel and nature of Lawson s writing He had to give ground on his texts and their sequencing The collection went on to be reprinted and repackaged countless times Its production and reception histories act like a geological cross section revealing the contours of successive cultural formations in Australia In unravelling the life of Lawson s classic work Eggert s book historical approach challenges and clarifies established understandings of crucial moments in Australian literary history and of Lawson himself

Carnivalizing Reconciliation Hanna Teichler,2021-10-15 Transitional justice and national inquiries may be the most established means for coming to terms with traumatic legacies but it is in the more subtle social and cultural processes of memory work that the pitfalls and promises of reconciliation are laid bare This book analyzes within the realms of literature and film recent Australian and Canadian attempts to reconcile with Indigenous populations in the wake of forced child removal As Hanna Teichler demonstrates their systematic emphasis on the subjectivity of the victim is problematic reproducing simplistic narratives and identities defined by victimization Such fictions of reconciliation venture beyond simplistic narratives and identities defined by victimization offering new opportunities for confronting painful histories

Women and the Bush Kay Schaffer, 1988 How the concept of the typical Australian has evolved across a range of cultural forms Nationalism and the Postcolonial, 2021-08-16 Often thought of as a thing of the past nationalism remains surprisingly resilient in the postcolonial era especially since the concepts of multiculturalism and cosmopolitanism have lost authority in recent years The contributions assembled in Nationalism and the Postcolonial examine various forms representations and consequences of past and present nationalisms in languages popular culture and literature in or associated with Australia Canada England India Jamaica Kenya Nigeria Saint Lucia and Trinidad and Tobago Bringing together perspectives from linguistics political science cultural studies and literary studies the collection illustrates how postcolonial nationalism functions as a unifying mechanism of anti colonial nation building as well as a divisive force that can encourage discrimination and violence Contributors Natascha Bing Prachi Gupta Ralf Haekel Kathrin H rtl Idreas Khandy Theresa Krampe Lukas Lammers Arhea Marshall Hannah Pardey Sina Schuhmaier Hanna Teichler Michael Westphal The Cornish Fishermen's Watch-night, and Other Stories.
