Narco-terrorism Kristen Boon, Aziz Huq, Douglas Lovelace, 2010 Volume 105 Narco Terrorism explores the legal aspects of combatting narco terrorism domestically in the U S and through international endeavors in Colombia and Afghanistan This book serves as a one volume guide to the relationship between the drug trade and terrorism The volume s sections on Afghanistan and Colombia demonstrate the challenges faced by the international legal community in thwarting that relationship Criminology Stephen E. Brown, Finn-Aage Esbensen, 2010-06-25 This highly acclaimed criminology text presents an up to date review of rational choice theories including deterrence shaming and routine activities It also incorporates current examples of deterrence research regarding domestic violence drunk driving and capital punishment and features thought provoking discussion of the relativity of crime The authors explore the crime problem its context and causes of crime The organization of the text reflects the fact that the etiology of crime must be at the heart of criminology It examines contemporary efforts to redefine crime by focusing on family violence hate crimes white collar misconduct with violent consequences and other forms of human behavior often neglected by criminologists Extensive discussion of evolving laws are included and while the prevalence of the scientific method in the field of criminology is highlighted the impact of ideology on explanations of crime is the cornerstone of the book Comprehensive introductory text emphasizing the ideology of crime Boxes throughout each chapter highlight the text with figures features and highlights Each chapter concludes with key terms and concepts key criminologists key cases Drugs Maria Tenaglia-Webster,2008-12-05 Editor Maria Tenaglia Webster has selected a compelling range of essays that introduce global perspectives about drugs By examining various issues about drugs from a variety of international perspectives readers will broaden their current understanding and opinions Topics include the war on drugs the Afghan poppy war prohibition meth labs addiction to qat D N A damage from aerial spray eradication and safe injection programs Readers will learn from such cultures and places as Columbia Yemen the United Kingdom Mexico Afghanistan the Netherlands Canada and Australia Essay sources include the Drug Reform Coordination Network Transnational Institute Transform Drug Policy Foundation Drug Policy Alliance and the U S Drug Enforcement Administration DARE to Say No Max Felker-Kantor,2024-02-14 With its signature DARE to keep kids off drugs slogan and iconic t shirts DARE Drug Abuse Resistance Education was the most popular drug education program of the 1980s and 1990s But behind the cultural phenomenon is the story of how DARE and other antidrug education programs brought the War on Drugs into schools and ensured that the velvet glove of antidrug education would be backed by the iron fist of rigorous policing and harsh sentencing Max Felker Kantor has assembled the first history of DARE which began in Los Angeles in 1983 as a joint venture between the police department and the unified school district By the mid 90s it was taught in 75 percent of school districts across the United States DARE received near universal praise from parents educators police officers and politicians and left an indelible stamp on many millennial memories But the program had more nefarious ends and Felker Kantor complicates simplistic narratives of the War on Drugs He shows how policing entered US schools and framed drug use as the result of personal responsibility moral failure and poor behavior deserving of punishment rather than something deeply rooted in state retrenchment the abandonment of social service provisions and structures of social and economic inequality Criminology Stephen Eugene Brown,Finn-Aage Esbensen,Gilbert Geis,2013 This highly acclaimed criminology text presents an up to date review of rational choice theories including deterrence shaming and routine activities

Black Masculinity and Sexual Politics Anthony J. Lemelle, Jr.,2010-04-26 African American males occupy a historically unique social position whether in school life on the job or within the context of dating marriage and family Often their normal role expectations require that they perform feminized and hypermasculine roles simultaneously This book focuses on how African American males experience masculinity politics and how U S sexism and racial ranking influences relationships between black and white males as well as relationships with black and white women By considering the African American male experience as a form of sexism Lemelle proposes that the only way for the social order to successfully accommodate African American males is to fundamentally eliminate all sexism particularly as it relates to the organization of families Greener than Thou Terry L. Anderson, Laura E. Huggins, 2013-09-01 In a powerful argument for free market environmentalism Terry Anderson and Laura Huggins break down liberal and conservative stereotypes of what it means to be an environmentalist They show that by forming local coalitions around market principles stereotypes are replaced by pragmatic solutions that improve environmental quality without necessarily increasing red tape Constructing Global Enemies Eva Herschinger, 2010-11-30 Examines efforts to counteract terrorism at the international level and drug prohibition policies Accounting for Mother Nature Terry Lee Anderson, Laura E. Huggins, Thomas M. Power, 2008 In turn the contributors explore the role that private individuals and organizations can play in protecting natural and agrarian landscapes BOOK JACKET The Governance of Female Drug Users Natasha Du Rose, 2016-06-01 Available Open Access under CC BY NC licence This book is the first to examine how female drug user s identities and hence their experiences are shaped by drug policies It analyses how the subjectivities ascribed to women users within drug policy sustain them in their problematic use and reinforce their social exclusion Challenging popular misconceptions of female users the book calls for the formulation of drug policies to be based on gender equity and social justice It will appeal to academics in the social sciences practitioners and policy makers Dependent America? Stephen Clarkson, Matto Mildenberger, 2011-09-30 Following the acclaimed Uncle Sam and Us and the influential Does North America Exist Stephen Clarkson the preeminent analyst of North America s political economy and Matto Mildenberger turn continental scholarship on its head by showing how Canada and Mexico contribute to the United States wealth security and global power This provocative work documents how Canada and Mexico offer the United States open markets for its investments and exports massive flows of skilled and unskilled labour and vast resource inputs all of which boost its size and competitiveness more than does any other US partner They are also Uncle Sam s most important allies in supporting its anti terrorist and anti narcotics security Clarkson and Mildenberger explain the paradox of these two countries simultaneous importance and powerlessness by showing how the US government has systematically neutralized their potential influence Detailing the dynamics of North America s power relations Dependent America is a fitting conclusion to Clarkson s celebrated trilogy on the contradictory qualities of its regionalism asymmetrical economic integration thickened borders and emasculated governance Property Rights Terry L. Anderson, Laura E. Huggins, 2013-09-01 Drawing on the thoughts of various philosophers political thinkers economists and lawyers Terry Anderson and Laura Huggins present a blueprint for the nonexpert expert on how societies can encourage or discourage freedom and prosperity through their property rights institutions This Hoover Classic edition of Property Rights details step by step what property rights are what they do how they evolve how they can be protected and how they promote freedom and prosperity
