MEMORIES OF A JAMAICAN CHILDHOOD

A sensitive and invaluable memoir, admirable in its reticence and accurate in its mood.

Drumblair Memories Of A Jamaican Childhood

Hunter, Maureen

Drumblair Memories Of A Jamaican Childhood:

Drumblair Rachel Manley, 1997 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Modern Blackness Deborah A. Thomas, 2004-11-29 An ethnographic study of cultural policy in Jamaica as seen from above and below in relation to race class and nation Rex Nettleford, His Works Albertina Jefferson, 1999 Bibliografie van het werk van Rex Nettleford Bevat ook Nettleford s choreografie voor het National Danstheater van Jamaica Caribbean Literature and the Public Sphere Raphael Dalleo, 2011 Bringing together the most exciting recent archival work in anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean studies Raphael Dalleo constructs a new literary history of the region that is both comprehensive and innovative He examines how changes in political economic and social structures have produced different sets of possibilities for writers to imagine their relationship to the institutions of the public sphere In the process he provides a new context for rereading such major writers as Mary Seacole Jos Mart Jacques Roumain Claude McKay Marie Chauvet and George Lamming while also drawing lesser known figures into the story Dalleo s comparative approach will be important to Caribbeanists from all of the region s linguistic traditions and his book contributes even more broadly to debates in Latin American and postcolonial studies about postmodernity and globalization Critical Interventions in Caribbean Politics and Theory Brian Meeks, 2014-11-27 These essays by Brian Meeks a noted public intellectual in the Caribbean reflect on Caribbean politics particularly radical politics and ideologies in the postcolonial era But his essays also explain the peculiarities of the contemporary neo liberal period while searching for pathways beyond the current plight In the first chapters titled Theoretical Forays Meeks makes a conscious attempt to engage with contemporary Caribbean political thought at a moment of flux and search for a relevant theoretical language and style to both explicate the Caribbean s recent past and confront the difficult conditions of the early twenty first century The next part Caribbean Questions both retrospective and biographical retraces the author s own engagement with the University of the West Indies UWI the short lived but influential Caribbean Black Power movement the work of seminal Trinidadian thinker and activist Lloyd Best Cuba s relationship with Jamaica and the crisis and collapse of the Grenadian Revolution As evident in its title Jamaican Journeys the concluding section excerpts and extracts from a longer more sustained engagement with Jamaican politics and society Much of Meeks argument builds around the notion that Jamaica faces a crucial moment as the author seeks to chart and explain its convoluted political path and dismal economic performance over the past three decades Meeks remains surprisingly optimistic as he suggests that despite the emptying of sovereignty in the increasingly globalized world windows to enhanced human development might open through policies of greater democracy and popular inclusion

Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 This Companion is divided into six sections that provide an introduction to and critical history of the field discussions of key texts and a critical debate on major topics such as the nation race gender and migration In the final section contributors examine the material dissemination of Caribbean literature and point towards the new directions that Caribbean literature and criticism are taking

Jamaica in Pictures Janice Hamilton, 2005-01-01 Discusses the land history government people and economy of Jamaica

What's a Black Critic to Do? Donna Bailey Nurse, 2009 This collection of profiles interviews essays and reviews on such well known writers as Ken Burns Dionne Brand Austin Clarke and Edwidge Danticat constitutes a frank conversation on the significance of race in the work of contemporary Black artists

National Pride - People (Volume 1) Indiana Robinson, 2017-07-17 People Volume 1 Jamaican topics covered in the book include our slave fore fathers our national heroes our political and religious leaders our educators our youths our nurses and doctors our lawyers our journalists and authors our beauty queens our talented athletes our vendors and our Jamericans and JAGlobians Naturally our multi talented brothers and sisters are saluted including those still here and those who have since departed to the great beyond So dear readers enjoy the mind triggers and heart wrenching diggers you will find in this book honouring the 55th year of celebrating Jamaica s independence and the tantalizing trip down memory lane with this unofficial reference resource guide by your side

Decolonizing Democratic Education, 2008-01-01 The essays in this edited collection open up a hopeful dialogue about the existing state of democratic education and the ways in which it could be re imagined as an inclusive democratized space of possibility and engagement Proceeding from a critique that questions the dominance of Western liberal understandings of democratic education as a series of rational culturally neutral acts undertaken by individuals who conceive of democracy and the common good in universalist and fundamentally exclusionary terms the contributors give voice to those whose ideas histories cultures and current understanding of the world is not highlighted in the dominant relationships of schooling From a variety of theoretical and pragmatic approaches the chapters in this collection engage the dialectics of history power colonization and decolonization identity memory citizenship Aboriginal rights development and globalization all in the context of providing a critique of educational systems relations structures and curricula that seem badly in need of reform While the contributors who have diverse scholarly interests are not in a direct dialogue with one another their different foci should nevertheless inter topically inform each other The book should interest students and researchers in the general foundations of education democracy and education citizenship education comparative and international education postcolonial studies in education and cultural studies in education Jamaican Americans Heather A. Horst, Andrew Garner, 2007 From Colin Powell the first African American to be appointed US secretary of state in 2000 to former NBA star Patrick Ewing and Grammy Award winner Harry Belafonte Jamaican Americans have made important contributions to American society Drawing on personal stories this book focuses on this dynamic people and assesses their lasting impact Women's Writing in Canada Patricia Demers, Caribbean Labor and Politics Perry Mars, Alma H. Young, 2004 A pioneering collection of studies linking the political and labor backgrounds of two distinguished and dynamic leaders of the Caribbean and the Third World When Trees Fall Dale Mahfood, 2022-10-15 A sweeping family saga exploring secrets we keep and the lines we'll cross for love Cailin is a naive adventure seeking girl living in a Jamaican Great House Archie is a teenage boy with a chip on his shoulder Sharpe is a young man with divided loyalties living as an outsider in a poor hillside village Yet all three long for the same thing a father's approval But the man who has the power to give it to them won't or can't Behind his back his property workers call him a tyrant for allegedly murdering a worker in the past and his family walks on eggshells when he returns home from his drunken visits with his mistress All while Cailin Archie and Sharp's unfulfilled desires spiral into rejection mistaken affections and murder Set in a seaside village during the final year of World War II and Jamaica's first general election When Trees Fall is the first novel in Dale Mahfood's Wood and Water Saga If you enjoy well drawn relatable characters and a compelling story you don't want to put down you'll love this first installment in Dale Mahfood's series Join Cailin Archie and Sharpe for their Caribbean coming of age saga An intriguing coming of age novel exploring the bittersweet tales of three Jamaican families Lynda R Edwards author of Friendship Estate Colonial Jamaica was a pale copy of the society that existed in Britain a century or more earlier a quaintly polite facade that often shielded dark secrets When Trees Fall by Dale Mahfood portrays this society with compelling authenticity and irresistible allure It is about the society I grew up in and people I might have known yet the novel is so meticulously researched that I kept coming across surprising nuggets of new information And there's more than mere historical virtuosity This is a complex and many layered family saga The writing style reminds me of Jane Austen which enhances the story's antique flavor making it easy to suspend disbelief as you travel back in time George Graham Journalist and Author of Hill An Gully Rider 10% of the sales profit of this book goes to Trees That Feed Foundation a nonprofit organization whose mission is planting fruit bearing trees to feed people create jobs and benefit the environment in fourteen Caribbean Central and South American and African countries Race, Class, and the Politics of Decolonization Colin Clarke, 2016-04-29 This book offers a detailed picture of Jamaica before and after independence A 1961 journal sheds light on the political and social context before independence while a 1968 journal shows how independence dissolved dissident forces and identifies the origins of Jamaica's current two party politics New West Indian Guide, 2005 The Language of Dress Steeve O. Buckridge, 2004 Annotation African enslaved and freed women used their fashion and style of dress as a symbol of resistance to slavery and accommodation to white culture in pre and post emancipation society African cultural features folklore music language religion and dress were retained and nurtured in Jamaica because they guaranteed the survival of Africans and their descendants against European attempts at cultural annihilation Steeve Buckridge illuminates the complexities of accommodation and resistance showing that these complex responses are not opposites but are in fact melded into each other as he reveals the dynamics of race class and gender in Jamaican society and the role of women in British West Indian history His work contributes to the ongoing interest in the history of women and in the history of resistance BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
