DSM-IV Training Guide for Diagnosis of Childhood Disorders Judith L. Rapoport, Deborah R. Ismond, 1996 Twenty nine collected essays represent a critical history of Shakespeare's play as text and as theater beginning with Samuel Johnson in 1765 and ending with a review of the Royal Shakespeare Company production in 1991 The criticism centers on three aspects of the play the love friendship debate Working Parents, Thriving Families David J Palmiter, 2011-03-16 A straightforward lighthearted and research based parenting book for working parents who want to do the best they can for their children in the time they have together Board certified child psychologist David J Palmiter PhD distills the broad and complex endeavor of parenting into 10 effective strategies for promoting happy and well adjusted children in busy households Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work Francis J. Turner, 2009-07-23 All of us as Canadians are touched throughout our lives by some aspect of social welfare either as recipients donors or taxpayers But despite the importance of the social network in our country there has been no single source of information about this critical component of our society Even professionals in the field of social work or social services have not had a comprehensive volume addressing the myriad features of this critical societal structure The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work fills this need Over five hundred topics important to Canadian social work are covered written by a highly diverse group of social workers covering all aspects of the field and all areas of the country Practitioners policy makers academics social advocates researchers students and administrators present a rich overview of the complexity and diversity of social work and social welfare as it exists in Canada The principal finding from this project underscores the long held perception that there is a Canadian model of social work that is unique and stands as a useful model to other countries The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work will be an important source of information both to Canadians and to interested groups around the world The Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work is available in e book version by subscription or from university and college libraries through the following vendors

Psychology students will learn about both normative and abnormal development throughout children's lives. Consistent with previous editions, several themes run throughout the book. Developmental psychopathology: Children's and adolescents' behaviors are on a continuum from very adaptive to very maladaptive, with only the very severe ends of the spectrum being conceptualized as disorders. Diversity, inclusion, and understanding: Special attention is given to issues of race, ethnicity, gender, family constellation, religious orientation, primary language, socioeconomic status, and physical differences to help students see the commonalities and differences of abnormal child behavior within a cross-cultural and international context. New to the 4th edition: Completely revised in both structure and content to reflect the DSM-5. Increase coverage of risk factors related to long-term effects of sexual abuse and bullying. Increased coverage of diversity to include new diversities that have emerged as important, i.e., transgender children. New research on suicide and suicide prevention.

Trauma Counseling Lisa Lopez Levers, 2012-03-15 A worthy addition to a graduate training bookshelf. I was a bit daunted by the large, almost 600-page book that landed on my desk, but once I started reading it, I had a hard time putting it down. Melanie D. Hetzel Riggan, PhD, Penn State Journal of Trauma and Dissociation. This book is heavy in weight and heavy in substance. It may be that you will not read this book from cover to cover, but it is likely that you will jump in and out and often. Illness, Crisis, and Loss. Lisa Lopez Levers's work delivers an important contribution to enable beginning professionals to be familiarized with the basics of trauma and to provide specialists with her hidden gems of insight. Her decision to cover trauma in its broadest sense allows her textbook to provide innovative insights into real-world concepts such as hate, racism, oppression, and evil in respect to trauma. Intervention: Trauma Counseling is a comprehensive multidisciplinary guide to the theory and treatment of survivors of a broad spectrum of traumatic events, including interpersonal violence, hate crimes, school violence, community violence, natural disasters, and war and terrorism. It is written by a Fulbright scholar who is internationally recognized for her work with traumatized populations in Rwanda, several southern African countries, Russia, and the United States. It also includes the contributions of researchers from the United States, Australia, Africa, and Europe. The book discusses evidence-based trauma assessment and intervention techniques and integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology. It focuses on issues of loss and grief, survivorship, and disability; genocide; natural disasters; the impact of war on civilians and veterans; and the distinct effects of trauma in early childhood, childhood, and adolescence. Also addressed are ethical perspectives and methods of self-care for counselors who work with this population. The text will be of value to graduate counseling students and professional counselors as well as social workers, psychologists, psychiatric nurses, and other human service providers who will be able to attend to trauma survivors with a depth of knowledge and confidence. The contents of Trauma Counseling not only fulfill but exceed the requirements of The Council of Accreditation and Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) standards. Key Features: Addresses the theory and treatment of trauma survivors of interpersonal violence, hate crimes, school violence, community violence, natural disasters, and war and terrorism. Provides a multidisciplinary approach to treatment that integrates findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology Includes evidence based counseling techniques Illuminates the intersections of trauma crisis and disaster issues exceeding related requirements of CACREP standards Examines ethical dimensions and the need for self care among trauma counselors Emphasizes the relevance of clinical supervision in trauma care Offers topic relevant resources at the end of each chapter
