Perspectives to Know D. G. Reagle,2025-04-11 In writing this book I set out with two main goals to create an accessible resource for anyone curious about life s big questions and to satisfy my own quest for answers While I often find the answers I seek they frequently lead to more questions especially on the nature of good and evil This concept has long intrigued me and for many it s a central question about God Over the past forty years I ve explored these questions across the globe and contemplating the universe s mysteries While my conclusions may not resonate with everyone I hope to guide readers in finding answers that bring them peace Understanding good and evil can be deeply personal and I believe there s no single right answer what matters is discovering a perspective that aligns with your beliefs Various perspectives on good and evil emerge from religion philosophy and influential thinkers each offering unique insights Some overlap while others diverge significantly I invite you to consider questions like What defines good and evil for you Are they universal or culturally specific Is there a moral foundation and if so whose morals are they These reflections can encourage deeper exploration and build empathy

Facing It Leigh Ross Chambers, 2023-06-20 For a generation or more literary theorists have used the metaphor of the death of the author in considering the observation that to write is to abdicate control over the meanings one's text is capable of generating But in the case of AIDS diaries the metaphor can be literal Facing It examines the genre not in classificatory terms but pragmatically as the site of a social interaction Through a detailed study of three such diaries originating respectively in France the United States and Australia Ross Chambers demonstrates that issues concerning the politics of AIDS writing and the ethics of reading are linked by a common concern with the problematics of survivorhood Two of the diaries chosen for special attention in this light are video diaries La Pudeur ou l'impudeur by Herv Guibert author of To the Friend Who Did Not Save My Life and Silverlake Life by the American videomaker Tom Joslin aided by his lover and friends notably Peter

Friedman The third is a defiant but anxious text Unbecoming by an American anthropologist Eric Michaels who died in Brisbane Australia in 1988 Other authors more briefly examined include Pascal de Duve Bertrand Duqu nelle Alain Emmanuel Dreuilhe David Wojnarowicz Gary Fisher and the filmmaker not a diarist Laurie Lynd Finally Facing It takes on the issue of its own relevance asking what contributions literary criticism can make in the midst of an epidemic Groundbreaking in its approach and potentially wide in its appeal The rigor of the ideas their dramatic nature and the political drive of the rhetoric all should win Facing It a large readership that could extend far beyond students of narrative or queer theory David Bergman Towson University editor of Camp Grounds Style and Homosexuality Ross Chambers is Distinguished University Professor of French and Comparative Literature University of Michigan and author of Room for Maneuver Reading the Oppositional in Narrative and Story and Situation Narrative Seduction and the Power of Fiction
