The Duality of Vision, 1970 The Duality of Vision Walter Sorell, 1970 Essential Papers on Object Loss Rita V. Frankiel, 1994-03 This choice collection contains some of the most significant contributions to psychoanalytic and psychological understanding of the effect of object loss on adults and children Designed for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and students of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy this important volume focuses on those contributions most directly relevant to the clinical situation without neglecting fundamental descriptive and theoretical contributions Rita V Frankiel has culled the literature on object loss and assembled the most salient and conceptually powerful contributions to the field Each paper is introduced with a brief summary of its contribution to the development of our understanding of object loss This valuable resource thus provides the serious student of object loss with a ready source of the most important materials on the subject Contributors Karl Abraham Sol Altschul John Bowlby Helene Deutsch J Marvin Eisenstadt George Engel Joan Fleming Sigmund Freud Erna Furman Robert Furman Edith Jacobson Melanie Klein Paul Lerner Erich Lindemann Hans W Loewald Marie E McAnn George Pollock Hanna Segal Chistina Sekaer Vamik D Volkan and Martha Wolfenstein Artists All Burton Raffel, 2010-11-01 Prodigal Daughters Helen Martineau, 2015-07-17 Prodigal Daughters affirms what artists have always known that their work has an inner spiritual source and power It weaves the arts of music dance drama literature architecture and visual forms into a living tapestry of sounds shapes colours words and movements as dynamic influences in the bloodstream of society challenging enriching and awakening us to beauty and our own potentials Written in a lively and engaging style this innovative book is accessible despite treating profound truths that shape human destiny Helen Martineau celebrates artistic expression with an original vision that discloses the nature of the creative process and connects with the deepest layers of the self The reader is invited to re imagine themselves and the world through perspectives from the arts by undertaking this journey with a sure guide who has been a practising artist for most of her life Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity's restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound's slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both
