Dreaming No Small Dreams William R Harveys Visionary Leadership:

Unearthing Promise and Potential: Our Nation's Historically Black Colleges and Universities Gasman, Valerie Lundy-Wagner, Tafaya Ransom, Nelson Bowman III, 2010-06-21 Born out of extreme racism and shepherded through the centuries by enduring hope the nation's historically black colleges and universities HBCUs have educated countless African Americans These institutions which boast great diversity are treasures that illuminate the talent and potential of African Americans This volume provides an overview of the salient issues facing HBCUs as well as the many contributions that these historic institutions make to our country as a whole Topics include Historic Origins of HBCUs Desegregation Students Presidential Leadership Faculty and Governance Issues Fundraising Federal and State Policy Curriculum Thoughts about the future With suggestions for additional reading other references and an appendix of historically black colleges and universities by this is a comprehensive and much needed addition to the literature in the field on HBCUs This is the fifth issue the 35th volume of the Jossey Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph in the series is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education problem based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication A Handbook for Seminary Presidents G. Douglass Lewis, 2006-06-13 There are now over 250 theological seminaries in the United States and Canada Leading these diverse institutions is a difficult task that combines elements of executive management academic prowess master storytelling and spiritual discipline Apart from informal mentoring relationships however there has been no resource specifically designed to impart collected presidential wisdom Douglass Lewis Lovett Weems and the four dozen other presidential contributors to this volume a project of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada together possess hundreds of years of combined experience in institutional leadership They pass along sage advice on everything from boards and enrollment to facilities and institutional advancement with special discussions of women in leadership Canadian schools and the challenges of university based programs Any person in administration at a seminary recognizes that leadership in theological education presents a unique set of challenges A Handbook for Seminary Presidents aims to make this task easier and more fulfilling not only for the presidents themselves but also for deans faculty support staff and all who seek to effectively prepare the next generation of Christian leaders Contributors Daniel Aleshire Harold W Attridge Albert Aymer Rebekah Burch Basinger Michael Battle Maxine Beach Charles E Bouchard C Samuel Calian Cynthia Campbell John Canary Robert Cooley Vincent Cushing Marvin Dewey David Draper Ward Ewing Frederick J Finks Dorcas Gordon Thomas Graves Heidi Hadsell Adolf Hansen Martha Horne James Hudnut Beumler Byron Klaus Christa Klein Steven Land Robert Landrebe Robert F Leavitt G Douglass Lewis David Maldonado Kevin Mannoia David McAllister Wilson William McKinney Laura Mendenhall Ron Mercier Donn Morgan Richard J Mouw David Neelands Anthony Ruger Donald Senior Jean Stairs

Brian Stiller Susan Thistlethwaite David L Tiede Timothy Weber Kent M Weeks Louis Weeks Lovett H Weems Jr Edward Wheeler Craig Williford Wilson Yates Civil Rights and Politics at Hampton Institute Hoda M. Zaki, 2007 Civil Rights and Politics at Hampton Institute presents the story of how one of the preeminent and historically conservative private institutions of black higher education came to play an important part in the struggle for full racial equality Hoda Zaki traces Hampton Institute's progressive impact to its first black and alumnus president Alonzo G Moron who used his office to launch a powerful and sustained attack against segregation A brilliant man who was uncompromising in his beliefs about creating a more inclusive democracy Moron struggled against conservative forces both outside of and within his own institution before his ouster by Hampton's predominantly white governing board in 1959 just a year before the Greensboro sit ins signaled the death knell for the segregationist era in which his institution had prospered Hoda Zaki details the significance of Moron's complicated career through discussions of his theories of citizenship education his work in promoting equal rights as a mission for the college and the political philosophy as evidenced in his speeches that he shared with other civil rights leaders of the era Three Black Generations at the Crossroads Lois Benjamin, 2007-12-07 The 20th century marked by dramatic socioeconomic cultural and technological changes greatly altered the value systems of many Americans Three Black Generations at the Crossroads Community Culture and Consciousness looks at how these values shifted within the black community and asks the question Can African Americans successfully confront the challenges of the continuing color line in the 21st century Exploring generational differences in the black community this second edition contains new chapters on politicians and artists two groups that are symbolic of the new occupations that have emerged since the post civil rights era Benjamin also addresses the necessity for resiliency and survival within the black community to endure continuing transformations as we move into the 21st century Historically Black Colleges and Universities Charles L. Betsey, 2017-07-12 Beginning in the 1830s public and private higher education institutions established to serve African Americans operated in Pennsylvania and Ohio the Border States and the states of the old Confederacy Until recently the vast majority of people of African descent who received post secondary education in the United States did so in historically black institutions Spurred on by financial and accreditation issues litigation to assure compliance with court decisions equal higher education opportunity for all citizens and the role of race in admissions decisions interest in the role accomplishments and future of Historically Black Colleges and Universities has been renewed This volume touches upon these issues Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs are a diverse group of 105 institutions They vary in size from several hundred students to over 10 000 Prior to Brown v Board of Education 90 percent of African American postsecondary students were enrolled in HBCUs Currently the 105 HBCUs account for 3 percent of the nation's educational institutions but they graduate about one quarter of African Americans receiving college degrees The competition that HBCUs currently face in attracting and educating African American and other students presents both challenges and opportunities Despite the fact that

numerous studies have found that HBCUs are more effective at retaining and graduating African American students than predominately white colleges HBCUs have serious detractors Perhaps because of the increasing pressures on state governments to assure that public HBCUs receive comparable funding and provide programs that will attract a broader student population several public HBCUs no longer serve primarily African American students There is reason to believe and it is the opinion of several contributors to this book that in the changing higher education environment HBCUs will not survive particularly those that are

Dreaming No Small Dreams Lois Benjamin, 2004-09 In 1868 the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute opened its doors under the leadership of its twenty nine year old founder General Samuel Chapman Armstrong In spite of a proud history social movements and the national economy had brought the institute to the brink of disaster 110 years later when William R Harvey was appointed president Brushing aside suggestions that the institute abandon its program of higher education and reconstitute itself as a preparatory school Harvey began by dreaming dreams that were both big and infectious Twenty five years later the successes are extraordinary The institute became a university sixty four new academic programs were established the endowment fund has grown to more than six times its 1978 level the budget has been rescued from a sea of red ink and is now cruising safely in the black fourteen new building that have been raised and all the old ones spiffed up Among other such achievements is an innovative venture into commercial enterprise the profits from which are applied to scholarship funds Detailed throughout this book are specific examples of decision making processes priorities programs and approaches that worked for Harvey and can work for you as well Overriding all else though is a commitment to people expressed as one leader s w9ill to improve the lot of others If you can help somebody do it If you can alleviate someone s pain do it If you can brighten someone s day with a kind word do it If you can be less bureaucratic do it If you can reach out and positively touch just one somebody do it If you can alleviate just one somebody s misery do it And don t forget to dream large
