Dreams And Wishes Essays On Writing For Children:

Dreams and Wishes Susan Cooper, 1996 An informative book for young writers interested in the pursuit of writing and the writing process presents a collection of Susan Cooper's inspirational speeches spanning from 1976 to the present on the theme of creative writing for children What Do We Tell the Children? Critical Essays on Children's Literature Ciara Ní Bhroin, Patricia Kennon, 2012-03-15 This peer reviewed collection of critical essays on children's literature addresses contemporary debates regarding what constitutes suitable texts for young audiences The volume examines what adult writers tell their child readers with particular focus on the following areas the representation of sexuality gender and the body the treatment of death and trauma concepts of race prejudice and national identity and the use of children's literature as a tool for socializing acculturating politicizing and educating children The focus of the collection is on Irish and international fiction addressed at readers from mid childhood to young adulthood One section of the book examines what child readers were told in the past while another section examines young readers capacity for self invention through the participatory culture of the twenty first century Topics explored include the controversial issue of teenage prostitution and the commodification of the male body in contemporary young adult fiction the allure of celebrity and the impact of today's surveillance culture on young people the representation of the Holocaust for young readers and representations of Muslim characters and culture in a post 9 11 mediascape This collection which offers insights into a range of literary constructions and representations of childhood will be a valuable resource for students and scholars working in children's literature youth culture and childhood studies Contributors Jane Suzanne Carroll Norma Clarke Shehrazade Emmambokus Michele Gill Marnie Hay Eimear Hegarty Nora Maguire Kerry Mallan Anne Markey Kimberley Reynolds Beth Rodgers Kay Sambell This is the fifth publication of the Irish Society for the Study of Children's Literature ISSCL It follows the Society's publication of Studies in Children's Literature 1500 2000 Dublin Four Courts Press 2004 Treasure Islands Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2006 Divided Worlds Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2007 and Young Irelands Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2011 Landscape in Children's Literature Jane Carroll, 2012-08-06 This book provides a new critical methodology for the study of landscapes in children's literature Treating landscape as the integration of unchanging and irreducible physical elements or topoi Carroll identifies and analyses four kinds of space sacred spaces green spaces roadways and lapsed spaces that are the component elements of the physical environments of canonical British children's fantasy Using Susan Cooper's The Dark Is Rising Sequence as the test case for this methodology the book traces the development of the physical features and symbolic functions of landscape topoi from their earliest inception in medieval vernacular texts through to contemporary children's literature The identification and analysis of landscape topoi synthesizes recent theories about interstitial space together with earlier morphological and topoanalytical studies enabling the study of fictional landscapes in terms of their physical characteristics as well as in terms of their relationship with contemporary texts and historical precedents Ultimately by providing topoanalytical studies of other children s texts Carroll proposes topoanalysis as a rich critical method for the study and understanding of children s literature and indicates how the findings of this approach may be expanded upon In offering both transferable methodologies and detailed case studies this book outlines a new approach to literary landscapes as geographical places within socio historical contexts

The Volunteer Library Linda S. Fox,1999-01-01 Even a small public library can demand tremendous personal and material investments In communities struggling to find the means to support a library an institution started and staffed by volunteers inspired by a love for books and learning can be an ideal solution However the intricacies of such an undertaking may seem overwhelming This work provides practical tested advice on planning developing and maintaining the volunteer based library A valuable guide for any library that enlists volunteers in any capacity the book includes worksheets models checklists and a variety of anecdotes and examples illustrating the suggestions in action

Of Bread, Blood and The Hunger Games Mary F. Pharr,Leisa A. Clark,Donald E. Palumbo,2012-07-24 This collection of fresh essays on Suzanne Collins s epic trilogy spans multiple disciplines The contributors probe the trilogy s meaning using theories grounded in historicism feminism humanism queer theory as well as cultural political and media studies The essayists demonstrate diverse perspectives regarding Collins's novels but their works have three elements in common an appreciation of the trilogy as literature a belief in its permanent value and a need to share both appreciation and belief with fellow readers The 21 essays that follow the context setting introduction are grouped into four parts Part I History Politics Economics and Culture Part II Ethics Aesthetics and Identity Part III Resistance Surveillance and Simulacra and Part IV Thematic Parallels and Literary Traditions A core bibliography of dystopian and postapocalyptic works is included with emphasis on the young adult category itself an increasingly crucial part of postmodern culture Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Topologies of the Classical World in Children's Fiction

Claudia Nelson, Anne Morey, 2019 Drawing on a cognitive poetics approach to reception studies this volume examines the use of spatial metaphors palimpsest map and fractal to organize the classical past for preteen and adolescent readers arguing that these reflect different modes in children's literature and encourage different cognitive effects in readers Essays on

Teaching Bob Blaisdell, 2013-11-21 These reflections on the teaching experience include selections from works of philosophy and drama as well as essays fiction and poems A wide range of authors and educators includes Plato Jean Jacques Rousseau Lev Tolstoy Louisa May Alcott D H Lawrence John Dewey Bertrand Russell A S Neill and a variety of contemporary American writers The Palgrave Handbook of Global Fantasy Elana Gomel, Danielle Gurevitch, 2023-06-07 This handbook is the first of its kind comprehensive overview of fantasy outside the Anglo American hegemony While most academic studies of fantasy follow the well trodden path of focusing on Tolkien Rowling and others our collection spotlights rich and unique fantasy literatures in India Australia Italy Greece Poland Russia China and many other areas of Europe Asia and the global South The first part focuses on the theoretical aspects of fantasy broadening and modifying existing definitions to accommodate the global reach of the genre The second part contains essays illuminating specific cultures countries and religious or ethnic traditions From Aboriginal myths to self representation of Tibet from the appropriation of the Polish Witcher by the American pop culture to modern Greek fantasy that does not rely on stories of Olympian deities and from Israeli vampires to Talmudic sages this collection is an indispensable reading for anyone interested in fantasy fiction and global literature The Boggart and the Monster Susan Cooper, 2001-12-12 When the Scottish owner of Castle Keep died the ancient castle went to his Canadian great nephew Robert Volnik There was no way the Volniks could keep the castle so it was sold to an Edinburgh lawyer Mr Maconochie Two years later Emily Volnik and her younger brother Jessup return to the castle for a visit To their delight the Boggart a mischievous shape shifting spirit who has lived in the castle for centuries playing tricks on the owners is still there making Mr Mac doubt his own sanity as strange things happen At Jessup's urging Mr Mac takes them and Tommy Cameron a local friend on a camping trip to Loch Ness Where a new expedition with advanced underwater equipment is planning another search for the Loch Ness Monster The boggart comes along and on their first night there he is entranced to rediscover Nessie a boggart cousin who has long forgotten how to change shape and remains in the prehistoric monster form he long ago adopted Beautifully imagined and beautifully written this is an unforgettable adventure filled with humor suspense and wonderful characters It is a stunning companion to Susan Cooper's earlier book The Boggart Susan Cooper Nina Mikkelsen,1998 In Susan Cooper the first full length critical study of its subject Nina Mikkelsen argues persuasively that Cooper's books have much to tell us about the human condition about children and about children's literature Organizing her material chronologically Mikkelsen commences with a biographical portrait of the writer tracing influential persons and events from Cooper's growing up years in a London suburb during World War II to her present day life in New England Individual chapters then focus on The Dark Is Rising sequence including its English and Welsh set volumes and the response from its readers explore the works of the 1980s and 1990s among them The Boggart and The Boggart and the Monster centering on a mischievous Scottish spirit and geared to younger children and assess the form structure and vision marking Cooper's writing as a whole Reading History in Children's Books

Catherine Butler,Hallie O'Donovan,2012-07-17 This book offers a critical account of historical books about Britain written for children including realist novels non fiction fantasy and alternative histories It also investigates the literary ideological and philosophical challenges involved in writing about the past especially for an audience whose knowledge of history is often limited Bibliomaniac Robin Ince,2022-10-06 A Waterstones Best Books of 2022 pick A unique funny picture of Britain A love letter to bookshops and the vagaries of public transport Richard Osman Ince's love of books is infectious Books of the Year Independent Why play to 12 000 people when you can play to 12 In Autumn 2021 Robin Ince's stadium tour with Professor Brian Cox was postponed due to the pandemic Rather than do nothing he decided instead to go on a tour of over a hundred bookshops in the UK from Wigtown to Penzance from Swansea to Margate Packed with witty anecdotes and tall tales Bibliomaniac takes the reader on a journey across Britain as Robin explores his lifelong love of bookshops and books and also tries to find out just why he can never have enough of them It is the story of an addiction and a romance and also of an occasional points failure just outside Oxenholme Chasing Fog Laura Pashby,2024-08-29 At first I didn't find fog fog found me Liminal transformative and increasingly elusive far from a simple cloud of water droplets fog is a state of mind As mist drifted through a copse of trees turning a familiar place strange and otherworldly Laura Pashby snapped a photograph and an obsession began Pashby hunts for fog walks and swims in it explores its often pivotal role in literature mythology and history as well as its environmental significance There has been a 50 per cent drop in fog events in the past fifty years fog is drifting away without us noticing and the ecological impact could be calamitous As she journeys to the foggiest places she can find Pashby immerses herself in Dartmoor's dangerous fog searches for the Scottish haar experiences Venice's magical mist tell us the myths behind the River Severn's fog and the shipwrecks it hides It's easy to get lost in fog but sometimes it's where imperceptible things can be found including in ourselves Chasing Fog is a captivating meditation on fog and mist a love song to weather and nature's power to transform Bulletin bibliographique de la Société internationale
