Doughboys, the Great War, and the Remaking of America Jennifer D. Keene,2001 How does a democratic government conscript citizens turn them into soldiers who can fight effectively against a highly trained enemy and then somehow reward these troops for their service In Doughboys the Great War and the Remaking of America Jennifer D Keene argues that the doughboy experience in 1917 18 forged the U S Army of the twentieth century and ultimately led to the most sweeping piece of social welfare legislation in the nation s history the G I Bill Keene shows how citizen soldiers established standards of discipline that the army in a sense had to adopt Even after these troops had returned to civilian life lessons learned by the army during its first experience with a mass conscripted force continued to influence the military as an institution The experience of going into uniform and fighting abroad politicized citizen soldiers Keene finally argues in ways she asks us to ponder She finds that the country and the conscripts in their view entered into a certain social compact one that assured veterans that the federal government owed conscripted soldiers of the twentieth century debts far in excess of the pensions the Grand Army of the Republic had claimed in the late nineteenth century

Remembering a Dream Francis J. Moloney,2024-04-01 In order to mark the bicentenary of the foundational dream that Saint John Bosco experienced when only nine years of age 1824 this book offers readers reflections on a number of biblical and theological themes that emerge from the simplicity yet depth of that dream In the first place certain elements from the life and person of Jesus are presented as the model for a so called Salesian spirituality and life style Those elements are outlined as an awareness that Jesus never abandons his fragile disciples and that a genuinely Christian education writes on the hearts of the young They are never abandoned in the challenging all pervasive secularity of contemporary society It closes with a summons to a deeper awareness of the universal possibility of the perfection of love as Saint Francis de Sales 1567 1622 taught well before his fellow Savoyard John Bosco 1815 1888
