the halfway house such as innovators cowboys and outlaws as she gets to know them The main source of conflict is the rivalry between the homeowners and ranchers in the area as well as the potential for violence from a renowned criminal group headed by Black Bart Haines Nan's inventiveness and strong will make her an invaluable mediator in conflict resolution As Nan works through the difficulties of life on the harsh western frontier themes of justice atonement and the wild west are explored throughout the book The storyline gains levels of mystery and suspense as Nan's true identity and her affiliation with the criminal gang become clear throughout the story *Chambers's Edinburgh journal, conducted by W.
