how destructive a lack of these may become This book offers food for thought about the theory and practice of psychotherapy It encourages analysts and therapists from different schools to look again at some of the assumptions on which they base their practice and teaching and provides a resource for further reflection on the therapeutic task Taking a psychological look at where humour comes from what it is about and why we need it this book will also intrigue anyone who wants to know more about the kinds of people psychotherapists are what they do and why Written in a highly accessible style Why Don't Psychotherapists Laugh will appeal to psychotherapists with a range of trainings and allegiances their teachers in vocational and academic institutions and their clients as well as to readers with an interest in psychotherapy humour and psychology

Metafiction and Myth in the Novels of Peter Ackroyd Susana Onega Jaén, 1999 Providing detailed analysis of the recurrent structural and thematic traits in Peter Ackroyd's first nine novels this work sets out to show how they grow out of the tension created by two apparently contradictory tendencies These are on the one hand the metafictional tendency to blur the boundaries between story telling and history to enhance the linguistic component of writing and to underline the constructedness of the world created in a way that aligns Ackroyd with other postmodernist writers of historiographic metafiction and on the other the attempt to achieve mythical closure expressed for example in Ackroyd's fictional treatment of London as a mystic centre of power This mythical element evinces the influence of high modernists such as Ezra Pound and T S Eliot and links Ackroyd's work to transition to postmodern writers such as Lawrence Durrell Maureen Duffy Doris Lessing and John Fowles The Cambridge Companion to Ian McEwan Dominic Head, 2019-07-04 Provides a thorough overview of Ian McEwan's fiction articulating his place in the canon of contemporary fiction Performing Libertinism in Charles II's Court J.
