Young,2004-07-31 We must many now argue get back to history but which one History has always been a problematical concept in Western theory particularly for Marxism In the wake of postmodernism its status has become ever less certain Is it possible to write history that avoids the trap of Eurocentrism Robert Young's investigation of the history of History from Hegel and Marx to Althusser and Foucault calls into question the Eurocentrism of traditional Marxist accounts of a single World History in which as he shows the Third World appears as an unassimilable excess surplus to the narrative of the West Young goes on to consider recent questionings of the limits of Western knowledge He argues that the efforts of Edward Said Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and Homi Bhabha to formulate non historicist ways of thinking and writing history are part of a larger project of a decolonisation of History and a deconstruction of the West The Ongoing Revolution in American

Political Science Joshua R. Berkenpas,2009 This thesis explores a mid twentieth century European American literary discourse on the death and prospects for revival of political theory or political philosophy in the 1950s and early 1960s This thesis is relevant for contemporary American readers because we can still observe and feel the effects of the behavioral revolution

Sport and the Social Significance of Pleasure Richard Pringle,Robert E. Rinehart,Jayne Caudwell,2015-06-05 This innovative text's critical examination foregrounds the prime reason why so many people participate in or watch sport pleasure Although there has been a turn to emotions and affect within academia over the last two decades it has been somewhat remiss that pleasure as an integral aspect of human life has not received greater attention from sociologists of sport exercise and physical education This book addresses this issue via an unabashed examination of sport and the moving body via a pleasure lens It provides new insights about the production of various identities power relations and social issues and the dialectical links between the socio cultural and the body Taking a wide sweeping view of pleasure dignified and debauched distinguished and mundane it examines topics as diverse as aging health fandom running extreme sports biopolitics consumerism feminism sex and sexuality In drawing from diverse theoretical approaches and original empirical research the text reveals the social and political significance of pleasure and provides a more rounded dynamic and sensual account of sport     Jean-François Lyotard Kiff Bamford,2017-08-15 Best known in the English speaking world for his book The Postmodern Condition Jean Fran ois Lyotard was one of the most important and complex French thinkers of the twentieth century In this new critical biography Kiff Bamford traces the multi faceted sometimes surprising journey of Lyotard s life and work Bamford s book is the first to consider Lyotard s work and ideas in the wider context of his life and times He unravels the thrust of Lyotard s main philosophical arguments his struggle with thinking and his confrontation with the task of writing and thinking differently about philosophy Bamford takes care to situate each of these in their particular context the Algerian war the experimental university at Vincennes and within Lyotard s sustained engagement with the visual arts The philosopher s own suspicion of easy narratives and rejection of self determination help to frame the book It is only by following these prescribed cautions that Bamford is able to present a compelling portrait of a challenging subject     The Rhetoric of the Talmud in the Perspective for Post-structuralism Serguei Boris

Ballard,1998-06-18 In developing regions of the world understanding how indigenous populations manifest their worldviews is imperative before implementing new social policies Building on three decades of studies of Melanesia by ethnologists the authors argue that these societies worldviews assume that the process of flow between events rather than the nature of the events is critical to a model of human sociality
