A vivid description through ample illustrations like maps, graphs, tables and photographs has been made. A detailed Bibliography and Questionnaire would help readers in further research. A comprehensive subject index would facilitate easy reference. A detailed study of government initiatives, Five year plans and the current budget proposals has been made. The idea behind the book is to respond to the two challenges of a increasing the availability of education by expanding the number of schools for girls or taking the schools to the un reached girls thereby increasing supply and b improving the accessibility of education by reducing costs thereby increasing demand Dropouts Leonard M. Gasperini L 2000 Dropout Leslie Gavel, 2017-08 One family's story of coping after their teenage daughter drops out of school and an examination of the public school system itself. In the fall of 2000 while in Grade 7 Leslie Gavel's daughter Avery began what would be a four year disengagement from school. Avery didn't fit the stereotype of the dropout. Why would a privileged middle class adolescent choose this path when dropping out was a social stigma and would complicate her personal life and career choices? Leslie began to analyze the school system itself but all of her research led not to answers but to further questions. Did school its history, structure, practice play any role in underachievement? Was the problem of marginal or failing grades, chronic student dissatisfaction and disruptive classroom behaviour always the fault of the student and by extension her parents or could it be the fault of the school system itself? And did dropping out an ultimate taboo for teenagers along with pregnancy and drug abuse really have to mean the end of the world for child and
