Shahram Heshmat, 2015-05-22 Addiction A Behavioral Economic Perspective focuses on the behavioral economics of addiction to explain why someone decides and act against her own well being It answers the questions of what accounts for self defeating behavior patterns and how do we best motivate individuals to act according with their long term goals A better understanding of decision processes will lead to an improved knowledge of why people engage in self destructive behaviors and better policy interventions in areas of addiction and obesity The approach also promises to be valuable as a framework for understanding decisions for an addict s professional and business life This book will be of particular use to clinicians students and researchers in the fields of addiction public health and behavior therapy The gender dimension of non-medical use of prescription drugs in Europe and the Mediterranean region Pompidou Group, Council of Europe, 2015-04-13 In recent years the non medical use of prescription drugs NMUPD has caused increasing public concern around the globe Women constitute a special risk category for NMUPD and understanding gender as it relates to this phenomenon is now a critical requirement for effective policy and practice Intended primarily for policy makers and researchers this Pompidou Group publication aims to explore gender specificities in terms of the use and misuse of prescription drugs in Europe and the Mediterranean region Using secondary sources it also seeks to identify gaps in the data available in the area covered and to make recommendations for further research coherent policy development and effective gender sensitive practice This publication is an initial attempt to map this emerging phenomenon and to identify lacunae and avenues for further investigation It constitutes an important resource for those interested in the interaction between gender and drug use The Wondrous Story of Anesthesia Edmond I Eger II, Lawrence J. Saidman, Rod N. Westhorpe, 2013-09-14 Edited and written by an international who s who of more than 100 authors including anesthesiologists nurse anesthetists bench scientists a surgeon and representatives of industry this text provides a comprehensive history of anesthesia unique in its focus on the people and events that shaped the specialty around the world particularly during the past 70 years when anesthesia emerged from empiricism and developed into a science based practice Lies, Damned Lies, and Drug War Statistics, Second Edition Matthew B. Robinson, Renee G. Scherlen, 2013-12-12 First published in 2007 Lies Damned Lies and Drug War Statistics critically analyzed claims made by the Office of National Drug Control Policy ONDCP the White House agency of accountability in the nation s drug war since 1989 as found in the six editions of the annual National Drug Control

Strategy between 2000 and 2005 In this revised and updated second edition of their critically acclaimed work Matthew B Robinson and Renee G Scherlen examine seven more recent editions 2006 2012 to once again determine if ONDCP accurately and honestly presents information or intentionally distorts evidence to justify continuing the drug war They uncover the many ways in which ONDCP manipulates statistics and visually presents that information to the public Their analysis demonstrates a drug war that consistently fails to reduce drug use drug fatalities or illnesses associated with drug use fails to provide treatment for drug dependent users and drives up the prices of drugs They conclude with policy recommendations for reforming ONDCP's use of statistics as well as how the nation fights the war on drugs Public
