Redemption Dennis Shere,2005-08-01 Formerly known as America s bloodiest prison the 18 000 acres that comprise

Louisiana s Angola State Penitentiary are now home to 5 000 inmates a full range of seasonal crops a 9 hole golf course yearly rodeos a Bible seminary a museum and much more All of this came into being at the behest of Warden Burl Cain who is now the longest standing warden in the history of Angola prison Under his leadership the inmate population of 5 000 has gone from regular knife fights to Bible studies Cain is a strong believer in the ability of the gospel to turn the most incurrigible of sinners into productive moral citizens Because eight out of ten prisoners are serving life sentences without parole at Angola Cain has taken upon himself the task of making the lives of these prisoners productive and educational

Through a partnership with New Orleans Baptist Seminary prisoners have the opportunity to get a bible degree and even be transferred to other prisons as a missionary The Angola phenomenon has been covered by such media outlets as Time Magazine Christianity Today and in the award winning film documentary The Farm Angola USA Author Dennis Shere combines his background in journalism and law to bring readers this account of redemption and life change in the most unlikely of places a maximum security prison

Street Mental Health Handbook Simon Hatcher, Liz Frye, Kim Van Herk, 2025-10-10 This book grounds the work of street mental health within the lived realities of the people it serves emphasizing the importance of trauma and context of care and how these factors shape the experience of homelessness and engagement with mental health care With the rise in homelessness has come a growing movement of street medicine healthcare delivered directly to individuals who live on the streets in encampments or within emergency shelters While physical health services are relatively well integrated into street medicine models mental health care remains underdeveloped and poorly resourced There is a pressing need for guidance reflection and solidarity in this space The authors have nearly fifty years of combined experience working in street based mental health services across North America Much in this field has not yet been formally researched or codified many insights have been gained through trial error and the wisdom of those served The authors goal is to share what they have learned in a way that is honest grounded and helpful The opening chapters discuss the individual collective historical and structural traumas that are common in the vulnerably housed population and how these should inform engagement diagnosis and treatment Subsequent chapters explore the complexities of and practical strategies for conducting mental health assessments and prescribing medications on the street The authors discuss the importance of building and working in teams to adapt to the chaos that street medicine clinicians and their patients frequently encounter The book closes with a discussion of psychosocial interventions for individuals experiencing homelessness emphasizing their potential effectiveness despite implementation challenges Chapters emphasize harm reduction and include case studies and dialogues to aid understanding The primary audience of Street Mental Health Handbook is front line clinicians physicians nurses outreach workers social workers and others who are new to the field of street mental health or are seeking to deepen their understanding of it For those already embedded in this work the authors hope it will serve as a practical and reflective guide that acknowledges the unique challenges and rewards of working with people who are homeless and living with mental illness

Combating Drugs in America United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1996

Drug War Zone Howard Campbell, 2023-01-06 A ground level chronicle of the violent drug war in Ciudad Ju rez Mexico with accounts from both traffickers and law enforcement and astute analysis The Americas Thousands die in drug related violence every year in Mexico Ciudad Ju rez Chihuahua adjacent to El Paso Texas has become the most violent city in the drug war Much of the cocaine marijuana and methamphetamine consumed in the United States is imported across the Mexican border making El Paso Ju rez one of the major drug trafficking venues in the world In this anthropological study of drug trafficking and anti drug law enforcement efforts on the US Mexico border Howard Campbell uses an ethnographic perspective to chronicle the recent Mexican drug war focusing especially on people and events in the El Paso Ju rez area It is the first social science study of the violent drug war that is tearing Mexico apart Based on deep access to the drug smuggling world this study presents the drug war through the words of direct participants Half of the book consists of oral histories from drug traffickers and the other half from law enforcement officials There is much journalistic coverage of the drug war but very seldom are the lived experiences of traffickers and narcs presented in such vivid detail In addition to providing an up close personal view of this world Campbell explains and analyzes the functioning of cartels the corruption that facilitates trafficking the strategies of smugglers and anti narcotics officials and the perilous culture of drug trafficking that Campbell refers to as the Drug War Zone This collection of oral histories of drug traffickers and counter drug officials examines the border narco world through the eyes of first hand participants An invaluable resource for anyone seeking a greater sociological understanding Journal of Latin American Studies Heroin Sandra Lee Smith,1999-12-15 Discusses heroin and its unique qualities and dangers and counsels against illegal involvement with the drug Inside a Support Group Margi Trapani,1996-12-15 Explains what Alateen is and how it can help teens with alcoholic parents
