Musso,2008-11-13 Anthony Musso was born and raised in Brooklyn New York where he was first attracted to the groundbreaking music recorded by many of the artists featured in this book His interest in history and more important historic accuracy resulted in his first book FDR and the Post Office and was followed by Setting the Record Straight Volume

One Musso lives in upstate New York's Hudson Valley region. Setting the Record Straight Volume Two continues author Anthony Musso's quest to dispel countless rumors and inaccurate information that surrounds the music and careers of another 50 top recording artists from the 1950s and 1960s. By way of first hand interviews with solo artists and/or founding and original members of leading vocal groups of the era, readers will learn the real stories about each artist's musical influences, entry into the music industry and experience while touring and performing during the infancy of the rock and roll era. Learn how legendary vocalist Jerry Butler was first dubbed 'The Iceman', why Ben E. King described his first year as lead singer of the Drifters as a grueling and somewhat harrowing experience, and how Gladys Horton and four childhood friends from Inkster, Michigan, known as the Maryettes, scored the very first number one hit recording for Motown Records. Hear how Connie Francis first entered the business with an accordion, and why Peggy March decided to relocate to Europe and subsequently became a top international star, and learn about the bittersweet performance that a young Bobby Vee gave as the replacement act for his departed idol Buddy Holly. These are the indisputable and accurate accounts as told by the artists themselves. With the intent of finally Setting the Record Straight, Tony Musso has written one of the most comprehensive biographies that Danny and the Juniors have ever had. He's recaptured the facts and voice absolutely the way it was. Dossel Joe Terry, founding member of Danny and the Juniors. If you are looking for accuracy about the unsung heroes and legends of rock and roll, Tony Musso is your man. Kenny Vance, founding member of Jay and the Americans, and Kenny Vance and the Planettes. Tony Musso did a wonderful job in straightening out many of the myths that have existed in The Diamonds and many other artists' biographies for a long time. Setting the Record Straight certainly lived up to its name and intent. Thank you Dave Somerville, original lead singer of The Diamonds.

Doo-Wop Acappella Lawrence Pitilli, 2016-08-02. In Doo Wop Acappella: A Story of Street Corners, Echoes, and Three Part Harmonies, scholar and musician Lawrence Pitilli details this too little explored area of 1950's to early 60's American culture. As Kenny Vance and the Planettes suggested in their classic song 'Looking for an Echo', every doo wop acappella group's mission is the search for a sound, a place to be in harmony, a place we almost found. It is more than the story of street kids seeking recording glory; it is the tale of urban change, mass migrations, ethnic acculturation, a changing radio and recording industry, and the dynamics of cultural change in the sounds, sonic and linguistic, that every generation seeks to make and re-make for itself. In his study of this neglected period, Pitilli uncovers a rich musical tradition practiced largely by amateurs in an almost mythologized urban America. Although most of these practitioners were musically untrained, their lack of formal music education and financial support neither diluted their passion for singing nor their quest for possible fame and fortune. In this engagingly written and celebratory work, Pitilli further demonstrates that doo wop acappella was closely tied to broader issues including the self-invented individual, gender roles, ethnicity, race, and class.
