Ouma, 2020-02-27 This book examines the representation of figures memories and images of childhood in selected contemporary diasporic African fiction by Adichie Abani Wainaina and Oyeyemi The book argues that childhood is a key framework for thinking about contemporary African and African Diasporic identities It argues that through the privileging of childhood memory alternative conceptions of time emerge in this literature and which allow African writers to re imagine what family ethnicity nation means within the new spaces of diaspora that a majority of them occupy The book therefore looks at the connections between childhood space time and memory childhood gender and sexuality childhoods in contexts of war as well as migrant childhoods These dimensions of childhood particularly relate to the return of the memory of Biafra the figures of child soldiers memories of growing up in Cold War Africa queer boyhoods sonhood as well as experiences of migration within Africa North America and Europe Assessing the Long-Term

Impact of Truth Commissions Anita Ferrara, 2014-09-19 In 1990 after the end of the Pinochet regime the newly elected democratic government of Chile established a Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC to investigate and report on some of the worst human rights violations committed under the seventeen year military dictatorship The Chilean TRC was one of the first truth commissions established in the world This book examines whether and how the work of the Chilean TRC contributed to the transition to democracy in Chile and to subsequent developments in accountability and transformation in that country The book takes a long term view on the Chilean TRC asking to what extent and how the truth commission contributed to the development of the transitional justice measures that ensued and how the relationship with those subsequent developments was established over time It argues that contrary to the views and expectations of those who considered that the Chilean TRC was of limited success that the Chilean TRC has in fact over the longer term played a key role as an enabler of justice and a means by which ethical and institutional transformation has occurred within Chile With the benefit of this historical perspective the book concludes that the impact of truth commissions in general needs to be carefully reviewed in light of the Chilean experience This book will be of great interest and use to students and scholars of conflict resolution criminal international law and comparative legal systems in Latin America Free at Last? Juan Battle,2017-07-05 As this volume indicates the issues facing black America are diverse and the tools needed to understand these phenomena cross disciplinary boundaries In this anthology the authors address a wide range of topics including race gender class sexual orientation globalism migration health politics culture and urban issues from a diversity of disciplinary perspectives The Chautauquan ,1881 Riccardo Freda Roberto Curti,2017-03-21 In an eclectic career spanning four decades Italian director Riccardo Freda 1909 1999 produced films of remarkable technical skill and powerful visual style including the swashbuckler Black Eagle 1946 an adaptation of Les Miserables 1947 the peplum Theodora Slave Empress 1954 and a number of cult favorite Gothic and horror films such as I Vampiri 1957 The Horrible Dr Hichcock 1962 and The Ghost 1963 Freda was first championed in the 1960s by French critics who labeled him the European Raoul Walsh and enjoyed growing critical esteem over the years This book covers his life and career for the first time in English with detailed analyses of his films and exclusive interviews with his collaborators and family A History of Europe J.
