The Impact of Virginia Woolf on Anita Desai Dr. Varsha P. Zanwar,2014-01-07 Virginia Woolf was a talented and indefatigable writer She was a very serious and conscious artist interested more in the life of the mind in sensation thoughts feelings intuitions than in the life of external action Being an artist of great insight and penetration she painted a picture of real life as she saw it In her desire to paint reality she broke with the traditions and conventions of the 19th century novel Anita Desai is also an indisputably one of the most powerful and distinguished contemporary Indian novelists in English A novelist of considerable merit Anita Desai has enriched the tradition of the Indian novel in English She is a conscious artist of a high order and her concern for human has imparted profound appeal to her novels Anita Desai in contrast with other women novelists is more interested in the interior landscape of the mind the thought than in political and social realities Thus Virginia Woolf and Anita Desai are two great artists in the realm of English fiction Both are rooted in two totally different milieus yet the works of two share not only in structure and themes but also in imagery style and technique The study of the impact of Virginia Woolf on Anita Desai provides a very fascinating and rewarding experience Anita Desai and Virginia Woolf have taken deep interest in depicting the family structure These two writers have their thematic nexus on the familial relationship It is the depiction of the familial relationships which binds the two novelists with each other in a strong bond Though these two great writers Woolf and Desai are from two different centuries and countries the works of two shares in the structure themes like loneliness isolation death etc and imagery Also in the novels of both there is a major role of time and memory This book makes a modest attempt to focus attention upon the impact of Woolf on Desai In both Woolf and Desai we find an almost obsessive involvement with the characters past as a key to their consciousness their lives A pre occupation with nostalgia and memory thus becomes an integral part of their craft But these are not used as things in themselves They are used artistically both for thematic as well as formal purposes A careful study of the novels makes us understand how they are made to function as artistic tools This book particularly highlights the impact of Virginia Woolf on Anita Desai with respect to three novels of each These are I Mrs Dalloway and Cry the Peacock II To the Lighthouse and Clear Light of Day III The Waves and Fire on the Mountain I record my gratefulness to the principal of J E S College Jalna Dr R S Agrawal Head of the Department of English M A Sami Siddiqui for support and encouragement at every stage of my work I also offer my sincere thanks to the senior teachers of my Department for their valuable suggestions I feel deeply to put into words my sense of thankfulness to my parents and family I am thankful to Rut Printer and Publisher and Dr U P Mogle for the valuable work help to design and print Dr Varsha P Zanwar

Symbolism in Anita Desai's Novels Kajali Sharma,1991 "Theme of Alienation and isolation in Anita Desai's Novels" Dr.Gaitry Sanyal,2017-01-20

In England the novel established itself as a distinct genre with the works of Daniel Defoe and Richardson in the eighteenth century Alongside the development of realism in the novel the exotic and the adventurous continued to be popular The novelist s tradition does not consist of rules but of certain assumptions about the handling of imagined reality The element of realism helped in differentiating the eighteenth century fiction from the earlier fiction The one common feature that binds the works of Richardson Defoe and Fielding is the quality of realism Modern English writers of fiction preserve to maintain the startling element which is an aspect of realism They have endeavoured to view life realistically to investigate and explore the secret of the mind thus proving that the function of a novelist is the revelation of hidden life

Women in Exile and Alienation Kaptan Singh,2016-06-22

Since World War II exile and alienation have become two of the most prominent themes in world literature Canadian and Indian literatures are no exception Modern human civilisation is passing through a terrible ordeal following on from the catastrophic consequences of two world wars and many people have been overwhelmed and overawed by the growth of science technology and urbanisation Alienation a feeling of not belonging has filled the life of modern man with uncertainties and disappointments obstructions and frustrations Indian and Canadian literatures are currently two of the most acclaimed forms of global literature with major themes including a search for identity a struggle for survival and self and social isolation and it is not surprising that female writers are major voices in both Indian and Canadian literature There is a heavy imbalance of power between two sexes in both cultures where men are considered to be domineering and the centre of the family while women are regarded as subordinate to men Women s suppression compels them to live in their self exiled and alienated world The works of Margaret Laurence and Anita Desai depict heart rending facts and bitter realities which women have to face in an emotionless modern society Since the patriarchal structure is prevalent in India and Canada women are categorised as second rate citizens and are treated as liabilities by their families due to a lack of financial power In the absence of any economic social emotional and financial support they also consider themselves inferior to men Time and again they revolt against the mechanical and merciless treatment of their family and society and sometimes they choose self exile as a safeguard against the callous and selfish treatment of their family members Their inner desire to revolt against an oppressive society and the prevailing cultural norm only increases their isolation In their works Laurence and Desai have unveiled the tortured psyche of sensitive women who are unable to share their feelings with others and are destined to live an emotionally deprived life
