Medieval Art and Architecture British archaeological association, 1978 Medieval Art, Architecture and Archaeology in the Dioceses of Aberdeen and Moray Jane Geddes, 2016-04-14 Exploring the medieval heritage of Aberdeenshire and Moray the essays in this volume contain insights and recent work presented at the British Archaeological Association Conference of 2014 based at Aberdeen University The opening historical chapters establish the political economic and administrative context of the region looking at both the secular and religious worlds and include an examination of Elgin Cathedral and the bishops' palaces The discoveries at the excavations of the kirk of St Nicholas which have revealed the early origins of religious life in Aberdeen city are summarized and subsequent papers consider the role of patronage Patronage is explored in terms of architecture the dramas of the Reformation and its aftermath highlighted through essentially humble parish churches assailed by turbulent events and personalities The collegiate church at Cullen particularly its tomb sculpture provides an unusually detailed view of the spiritual and dynastic needs of its patrons The decoration of spectacular ceilings both carved and painted at St Machar's Cathedral Provost Skene's House and Crathes Castle are surveyed through the eyes of their patrons and the viewers below Saints and religious devotion feature in the last four chapters focusing on the carved wooden panels from Fetteresso which display both piety and a rare glimpse of Scottish medieval carnal humour the illuminated manuscripts from Arbuthnott the Aberdeen Breviary and Historia Gentis Scotorum The medieval artistic culture of north east Scotland is both battered by time and relatively little known With discerning interpretation this volume shows that much high quality material still survives while the lavish illustrations restore some glamour to this lost medieval world Bury St. Edmunds Antonia Gransden, 2017 Medieval Art, Architecture and Archaeology at Rouen Jenny Stratford, 1993 The thirteen papers in this volume are based on lectures given at the British Archaeological Association's Annual Conference at Rouen in 1989 Contributors include D Bates Rouen from 900 to 1204 J Le Maho Le groupe episcopal de Rouen du IVe au Xe siecle M Bayle Les vestiges romains de l'ancienne priorale Saint Gervais de Rouen N Stratford The wall paintings of the Petit Quevilly L Grant Rouen cathedral 1200-1237 C Norton The export of that appeared at a parochial level during the later Middle Ages      Medieval Art and Architecture at Exeter Cathedral Francis Kelly, 1991 This eleventh volume in the Transactions series deals almost exclusively with Exeter Cathedral and reflects the balance of the conference held in 1985 The structural archaeology of the fabric and its enrichment and fittings are examined in parallel with the rich documentary evidence and put in their art historical contexts This makes a valuable contribution to scholarship and to the understanding and hence appreciation of the Cathedral Indeed it should prove to be the most significant landmark in the study of the Cathedral since the 19th century and to be a definitive reference work for years to come Colour plates are included for the first time in this series relating largely to the analysis and interpretation of the West Front and a reconstruction of its colour scheme      Medieval Art and Architecture at Worcester Cathedral British
